Senator Hill's Bold Stroke.

NEW YORK, May 23.—Senator Hill's arrival here to-day, coupled with the presence of several Democratic leaders of the State and with other rumors lately afloat concerning him, has given rise to an extraordinary story. It is said Mr. Hill has determined upon a bold stroke against the administration, which has no parallel except in the course once followed by Senators Roscoe Conkling and Thomas C. Platt during the Garfield administration.

Mr. Hill, it is avowed, will next week present in the Senate a Tariff bill of his own, which he has been preparing at his home in Albany, for several days past. It will contain no income tax feature and on this point he will take issue by resigning his seat in the Senate and going before the people for a vindication as the machine candidate for Governor.

In connection with the scheme is the story of a conference with the members of the State Committee tomorrow, when Senator Murphy it is said, will agree to retire as chairman, leaving a vacancy for Mayor Gilroy.

The latter's selection as State Chairman would take him out of the way of ex-Mayor Grant, who wants to succeed Crocker, as Tammany's chieftain and harmonize the various conflicting interests of the Democratic machine.

On account of the Endeavor Convention at Wyalusing June 5th and 6th, the Lehigh Valley R. R. has made a reduced rate of two cents a mile from all stations to Wyalusing and return. In order to secure this rate it is necessary to have cards which are issued by the Company. They may be procured by addressing H. L. Holcomb, Towanda, Pa. All Endeavor Societies expecting to send delegates are requested to send to Mr. Holcomb for cards.

The train service over the W. & N. B. and S. L. & S. railroads from Williamsport to Towanda, has been discontinued. It is more than likely that it will resume again in the near future. The Barclay Rail Road Co., who owns the track from Monroeton to Towanda, objects, but we are given to understand by our Towanda exchanges that Mr. MacFarlane, president of the Barclay road is willing to enter into a contract with the officials of the W. & N. B. by which our trains may pass over their road.

T. V. Powderly, ex-master workman of the Knights of Labor, had H. B. Martin, of Indianapolis, placed under arrest for criminal libel on Wednesday. The alleged libelous article being an interview published in the Scranton Truth of that day, alleging that Mr. Powderly had been expelled from the order because he refused to surrender certain books and unwritten work to his successor in office.

George Strey says we are running both the Democratic and Republican parties of the county. Well, inasmuch as the Democratic party has no organ of its own, they will not object. The Democrats call the Gazette the "Old Grandmother Sheet," and they are good judges of a newspaper, too.

Decoration Day at Sonestown and Laporte.

Notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather, Decoration Day was appropriately observed at Sonestown and Laporte. The old soldier boys in this vicinity and citizens took the eight o'clock train en route to Sonestown. There they were met by the members of the Simmons G. A. R. Post No. 477 and were escorted to Main street where a line of march was formed headed by the Sonestown drum corps, the G. A. R.'s and the P. O. S. of A's, which organization made a very creditable appearance, then the Sunday School organizations and citizens. After the line of march had been formed, the life and drums struck up and the procession moved up Main street to the M. E. church where touching and belting services took place. After entering the church the drum corps played that old familiar tune "Marching Through Georgia." Then Commander Isaac T. Low requested music by the choir, which was rendered exceedingly well. The choir had selected such music as was appropriate to the occasion and did their part very nicely, indeed. The G. A. R.'s then proceeded with their usual ceremonies, after which Prof. F. W. Meylert was called upon and delivered a very able address. Then they marched to the cemetery where the graves of the old veterans were decked with beautiful flowers, but owing to the down pour of rain, the usual ceremony in the graveyard was omitted. With this done a large percentage of the gathering marched to the depot and took the train for Laporte.

LAPORTE. The train arrived a few minutes late at Laporte, but those aboard did not care for this. A line of march was formed along the lake road with the organizations placed by Commander Low, similar to that in Sonestown. They broke ranks at the Meylert store building in which a festival was in progress under the auspices of the Ladies Aid Society of Laporte, where a large number of the visiting guests were served a bounteous repast of good things. With their dinner hardly settled the church bell rang giving the signal to fall in line of march. At the church a rehearsal of the G. A. R. ceremonies were gone through with, when Rev. Mr. Campbell of Sonestown was called upon and gave an excellent address. The choir like our Sonestown songsters, are "in it," for their share of compliments. With the doings at the church completed, everybody marched to the cemetery and appropriately decorated the graves of the fallen heroes.

A beautiful arch of flowers was placed over the large gates to the cemetery and a very large banner was tacked to a temporary post inside the yard and directly opposite the entrance and which presented a beautiful appearance. The custom from time to time of placing this wreath over the gates on Memorial Day, was at the suggestion of the late Mrs. Dunham and our young people took pride in placing it there this year as she would have urged had she been with us.

The public buildings in Sonestown were nicely decorated with flags likewise were those in Laporte.

ESTELLA ITEMS.

The continued rains makes farming up hill work—nothing grows but grass. Well perhaps we will be glad to eat that before the present administration ends, the way it looks now.

Quite a number from Estella have gone courting this week.

George Tretter and family have moved to Evergreen, Bradford Co.

Grant Little has his new house almost ready for occupancy. D. K. Little is the architect.

The creamery at this place will soon be ready for operation.

Town Commissioner Bird has done a fine job grading and fencing in the narrows, between W. T. Mores and Fred Rosbauchs on Kings Creek.

Sheep shearing is now in order, but its almost an imposition on the poor animals at the present low price of wool.

Bald colds and influenza is very prevalent. Quite a number of children are quite sick around this neighborhood.

Hattie Brown expects to leave Estella soon to spend the summer at her brother's, E. T. Brown, near Bontown.

Elder Frazier preached a splendid Memorial sermon at Estella church last Sabbath evening.

KITTIE CLOVER.

SONESTOWN ITEMS.

We had a frost down this way Tuesday morning.

There were some parties here last week trying to interest some of our farmers and others in the erection of a creamery at this place. As yet we have not learned whether their visit to this place will bear fruit or not.

Alfred Taylor has bought the John E. Hazzen property, consisting of land, grist mill and saw mill and is now repairing the grist mill.

This place would be a good one for the establishment of some manufacturing business.

A few weeks ago our people were wishing for rain and last week they were wishing for it to stop raining.

The E. M. R. R. Co. are grading and putting in some long siding near the W. & N. B. depot, which will make it much more convenient for the transfer and putting of lumber.

Sonestown, Pa., May 29, 1894.
