SONESTOWN ITEMS. Magargel Bros. are training their colts. Our hotels are entertaining about their usual number of guests. Our stores are doing as much business as these times will permit. Repairs are being pushed right along on the Hazzen Mill by Alfred Taylor. Frank Shoemaker is teaching a successful term of school here this summer. Our township auditors were in town the first of this week settling township business. Geo. W. Simmons has purchased a new organ from S. Q. Mingle, of Williamsport, Pa. Mrs. L. R. Gavitt went to Williamsport Wednesday to attend the Prohibition Convention, we suppose. There is some talk of having a celebration here on the 4th of July. We would say—let us celebrate in good style. People are rejoicing over the fact of some sunshine and are hoping the same will continue long enough for them to get their potatoes hoed. We understand the new bell has arrived for the Evangelical church, and soon we expect to hear the sound thereof throughout this valley. Sonestown, Pa., June 5, 1894.
