

The N. Y. Weekly Tribune and Sullivan Republican for $1.25 One Year $1.25.

Sunday was breezy. Land sales June 11th. Read our business locals. Court adjourned Saturday morning.

A tin plate mill will be constructed in Harrisburg. The State treasurer is paying out the school warrants.

Carpenters began work on the court House, Wednesday. Our people predicted an early spring, but they were wrong.

Francis McDonald of Cherry, was doing business in town Saturday. Time flies fast. Fourth of July only three weeks from next Wednesday.

The Democratic county convention will convene in Forksville, in August. Sheriff Mahaffey advertises two sheriff sales in this issue of the REPUBLICAN.

A shower passed over this vicinity Sunday night and the air was full of electricity. Judge Phillips of Muncy Valley, was doing business at the county seat, Monday.

The first ward people are giving Mr. McFarlane lots of orders for lumber, these days. The Democratic State Convention will convene in Harrisburg on Wednesday, June 27th.

Frank Magarale of Sonestown, was transacting business at the county seat, Wednesday. The Republican convention will be held in Laporte on the 26th of June. See call elsewhere.

The through express was short life, but she was a high header and a good looker while she existed. A large number of subscribers to the REPUBLICAN, called last week and settled with the printer. Thanks.

The Senate investigating committee, Carlisle and the Sugar Trust, are making a sweet mess of it. The people of Western Sullivan are anxious for a mail service between Foot of Plain and Eldredville.

There were three divorce cases in court last week. The women were the dissatisfied ones and did the applying. Mother earth is soaked with water and a good part of the seeds recently put in the ground, are decaying.

Those of our readers who desire to attend the Treasurers' land sales, must put in an appearance on Monday June 11th. A large number of suckers taken from the tributaries of Lake Mokoma, were carried home by court guests last week.

Frank Gallagher says the people of Laporte are more united today, than for the past nine years. The cause is apparent. Jack Robinson says he is a stalwart republican and proposes to take of his coat and work for the ticket. Good boy Jack.

Hon. M. S. Quay is not in favor of increasing the present rates of domestic postage on newspapers. Quay is a friend of the poor. John Gota, the Frenchman of Celestia, who stole F. H. Ingham's bull, last winter, reposes in jail. The court sentenced him to 30 days.

Three new cases of smallpox were reported to the board of health of Lewistown, last week. There are nine cases under treatment now. When Cleveland comes to draw his salary for May, will the paymaster deduct $1370 for the ten days he was absent snipe shooting.

W. J. Lawrence of Dushore, was among the business men at the county seat, Monday. He was accompanied by his little son, Sailor. The thirty-ninth annual meeting of the Pennsylvania State Teachers' Association will be held at Media, Delaware county, Pa., July 31, 4th and 5th, 1894.

Judge Ritter of Tunkhannock, while here last week, said to one or two of his personal friends that he intended to be a candidate for reelection, this fall.

Now that we have a new moon it is predicted that we will have less rain.

The new school board organized on Monday. J. A. Jordan was elected president of the board. Mr. Higley, was the delegate from Laporte, to the Prohibition State Convention held in Williamsport on Wednesday.

A number of our people will attend the commencement exercises of the Collegiate Institute, of Towanda, next Wednesday. If the Senate would only try to do something and stop trying the newspaper correspondents it might grow more popular.

County Commissioner, J. J. Webster and Commissioners' clerk, J. E. Gallagher, were doing business in Williamsport, Tuesday. The M. E. parsonage at Laporte, was raised on Tuesday. The large, able and willing force of men present made quick work of it.

M. C. Mercer Esq., of Eldredville, was transacting business at the county seat, Tuesday. Mr. Mercer made the REPUBLICAN office a call while here. Landlord Seelye of the Forksville Hotel, is erecting a new barn. Mr. Seelye proposes to be in readiness to look after the horses left in his care, during the progress of the Forksville fair.

Williamsport welcomed the Prohibitionists on Wednesday. It is fair to presume that the Lumber City people did not use any display of prejudice because their guests favored water. Everybody is making preparations to come to Laporte on the 15th of August. Well, they will never regret the trip. We are going to have a gala day over here on that date.

There wasn't a single civil case heard last week. The little petty Commonwealth suits took the time of the court. The same old trial list will appear for September term with a few new cases added to it. The annual encampment of the Department of Pennsylvania, Grand Army of the Republic, will be held at Gettysburg, June 30 to July 6, inclusive. A sufficient number of tents will be pitched on Cemetery Hill for the use of Posts.

A bicycle to be run by hot air and that will carry two persons is soon to be placed on the market by Hiram W. Kistler, says the Stroudsburg Jeffersonian. It will cost $500. The price places it beyond the reach of printers. We turned out nine jobs last week and have as many more on our job hook. We did one or two for parties in the vicinity of Dushore. When the people over there are desirous of a good job, they address it to the REPUBLICAN office.

Stewart Chase while looking after the furnace in the basement of the school building last week, stepped on a wire nail, which penetrated his foot a half inch or more. The pain of the wound was so severe that Stewart was confined to his room for several days after the mishap. A general rehearsal of politics was talked over at the county seat last week. There seems to be a general dissatisfaction in the Democratic ranks regarding their candidates and there is a move on foot to bring out a "dark horse" for one or two of the offices.

Officials of the Lehigh Valley and Montrose roads came to this place Tuesday, and were taken to Montrose by special train. The object of the trip is unknown, but is supposed to have been in connection with the much talked of Binghamton and Williamsport road.—Tunkhannock Republican.

Will Put the Train on Again. A prominent railroad man informs us that it is only a question of a very short time when the Satterfield dyer will again run through to Towanda. Final arrangements for the re-establishment of the through service are now pending. Towanda will possess its soul with patience.—Towanda Review.

Wm. Beecher, a teamster in the employ of James McFarlane of Laporte, indulged in "red eye" on Sunday and entered his employers store and took on like a wild man. Mr. McFarlane came up town and notified Mr. Crossley, chief of police, who with N. C. Mahon, constable, went down and arrested the fellow and placed him in the custody of Sheriff Mahaffey. On Monday morning the case was heard before Bobb Stortz, J. P. The verdict was, $5.00 fine and cost. Beecher refused to "come down" and was returned to jail.

When hailstones as large as oranges cover the ground to the depth of six inches in Texas, people residing north of Mason & Dixon's line have little cause to complain. Jack Robinson, at the Republican convention, recently held in Harrisburg captured high, low and the game. If the cards had not been manipulated he would have got "Jack" also.

Every consumer of sugar after the pending tariff bill becomes a law with the sugar schedule retained as it now is, will contribute to enriching the sugar trust by paying the advanced price of sugar. Among the number of Laporte people who attended the Prohibition Convention in Williamsport on Wednesday, were: Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Conklin, Mrs. Tinklepugh, Mr. Higley and J. W. Ballard and daughter, Miss Irine.

Trains Nos. 23 and 24, known as the morning and evening express, are not subject to flagging at the Laporte Fannery and Holmes' Mill. Laporte people desirous of taking these trains must get aboard at the Laporte depot. W. C. T. U. Convention.

The Third Quarterly Convention of the Sullivan county W. C. T. U. will be held at Laporte, on Wednesday, June 20. Mrs. Anna V. Hammer, State President, will be present during the entire session. The program will be published next week. Miss H. M. Little, Sec'y.

Farmers who have planted their corn in consequence of the continued wet weather talk discouragingly of the prospect of a good crop should they be able to plant within a week. Crop records will show that good crops of corn have resulted from planting as late as the 12th of June.

At the annual meeting of the Hills Grove township school board on Monday it was decided to lengthen the school term to eight months and to raise the salaries of the teachers ten per cent. This indicates a progressive spirit on the part of the school board of Hills Grove, and should be an example to the boards in other districts in our county.

The wood work of the Lake Mokoma steam boat, arrived last week and is being put together on the bench of the lake. The machinery will be shipped in a few days. The men engaged on the work say it will take them until the last of June to complete the structure. The boat will be fifty feet in length and will carry from fifty to seventy five people.

If the pending tariff bill is passed it will always be blackened with the sugar trust scandal, and every person who pays two cents more a pound therefor for sugar, will be reminded of the corrupt bargain made by the Democrats in the presidential campaign of 1892 with the trust in consideration of a $500,000 contribution to the campaign fund.

Prohibition a Failure. PORTLAND, Me., May 28.—In an interview General Neal Dow acknowledged that, for the first time in his life, his prohibition liquor law was "not enforced at all in Portland." He said: "The sheriff and city authorities are commanded by the statutes to enforce the Maine law, and their official oath binds them to be faithful to that duty. The liquor law is not enforced in Portland because the leaders wish to obtain the vote and influence of the rum sellers."

The proper officials of Lycoming county not being satisfied with the result of the inquest held on the remains of Isacher Houseknecht, disinterred the body on Wednesday of last week and with several physicians made a second examination, with a view of obtaining, if possible, the cause of his death, but not even a tooth had been knocked out—and positively no evidence was found to show that the unfortunate man had been murdered. This will put a stop to gossip and will be better in the end.

Bradford county has two places for holding court—at Towanda and Froy. The question of the constitutionality of two courts for one county is being agitated up there, and the Towanda Republican says that "in order to have this question removed, a movement has been started by Towanda citizens to have the case taken before the Supreme Court, and a final decision rendered. With this end in view subscription papers have been started, and it is expected sufficient funds will be raised to defray the expense of carrying it up. This is an important question, and should be decided finally. It is a question in which the people of Froy and the whole circuit embraced by this court are interested as well as those outside of it. If this court is unconstitutional as some attorneys believe, it should be known, in order that no property titles may be affected by its decision."

County Superintendent, F. W. Meylert, of Laporte, has been selected as one of the examiners of the graduating class of the Mansfield Normal School and will leave for that place on Saturday. The examining exercises will take place on Tuesday, June 12th. Mr. Meylert will be accompanied by his wife as far as Waverly, where she will go to Middletown, N. Y., on a visit to friends. Frank, after filling his appointment at Mansfield, will join the Mrs. at Middletown. They will be absent from home for several weeks.

ABLE TO BEAR ARMS. Military Enrollment for the County of Sullivan. Below will be found a list of citizens in the different precincts of Sullivan county, who are able to bear arms in defense of their country, if called upon to do so. The assessors who performed this work received three cents per name:

Table listing names and amounts for military enrollment: Cherry, 406; Colley, 390; Davidson, 211; Dushore, 158; Elkland, 151; Forksville, 33; Fox, 95; Forks, 100; Hill-Grove, 109; Laporte B., 66; Laporte T., 72; Shawatory, 96. Total: 1777.

On Tuesday, the 26th of June the delegates of the various precincts in Sullivan county will meet in Convention at Laporte for the purpose of nominating men to fill the places on the Republican ticket. It should be remembered by these delegates that to their good judgment, in a great measure, depends the success of the ticket next fall and they should use lots of care that their selections be wisely made. Let their work be well done in harmony and the party will march forward to victory in the coming campaign. We should all be true to our principles and help and advise to nominate the strongest ticket possible. The REPUBLICAN will ever favor this end.

The receipts at the Laporte Rail Road station for the month of May, was as follows: Tickets sold, $200.00; Freight received, 755.00; Freight forwarded, 631.24; Express received, 40.75; Express forwarded, 9.50; Telephoning, 5.50; Telegraphing, 8.71. Total, $1,646.45.

It will be noticed that our shipments are nearly as large as those received, which is a very good showing for our town. Mr. Ritter, the station agent, informs us that the receipts of April ran over two thousand dollars. This makes Laporte one of the best paying stations along the line of the Williamsport and North Branch Rail Road.

There will be a picnic at Cumiskey in Newcomb's grove for the benefit of St. Francis Catholic church at that place, dancing and other amusements will be the order of the day. Refreshments will be served on the grounds. Good music will be furnished. A cordial invitation is extended to all.

We clip the above from the "Grandmother" the Dushore Gazette. Now just when this picnic is to take place the readers of the "Grandmother," don't know. Such information is frequent in "Grandmother." She means well, but is childish and forgetful. "Grandma" is not official by any means.

A Scranton paper gives publicity to the following, but takes no stock in the prediction that the small stockholders will be swindled out of their stock in the matter indicated: "The results of oil operations at Brooklyn, Susquehanna county, are awaited with interest by the residents of the supposed oil belt. The boring is now in charge of New York parties, who have enlisted the interest of farmers in that vicinity, who in return for fuel and other supplies take stock in the prospective gushers. Great secrecy is observed in the work, and the drillers will give no information as to the depth of the bore holes. It is estimated that the wells are now about 1,200 feet in depth. In case oil is found many intimate that the wells will be plugged until the small stockholders can be induced to part with their claims."

Killed on the State Line & Sullivan. A man by the name of Charles A. Stanton was killed on the State Line & Sullivan railroad between New Albany and Ludsburg, at about 11:30 o'clock last Friday night. He left the Haverly house in New Albany a short time before, somewhat under the influence of liquor, and started up the railroad track to work his home. About the time stated an extra coal train, north bound, came along, and struck him, and the whole train passed over him, before it could be stopped. He was a resident of Ludsburg, and a stone mason by trade. A wife and two children survive him.
