

The N. Y. Weekly Tribune and Sullivan Republican for $1.25 One Year $1.25.

The weather is quite cool these days.

Court is in session in Wyoming county, this week.

County Commissioner Farrell of Dushore, was in town, Friday.

If rumor is correct, a wedding will take place in town, shortly.

E. V. Ingham, proprietor of Hotel Eagles Mere, was doing business in town, Tuesday.

Miss Margaret Katz of Hughesville, is visiting Miss Mable Spencer and friends of this place.

Garret Donahoe, post-master at Dushore, was doing business at the county seat, Thursday.

BORN: To Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Mason, of Laporte, on Tuesday Aug. 14th, 1894, a daughter.

W. H. Riddell the merchant tailor of Pictou Rocks, has a new ad in the REPUBLICAN this week.

J. H. Spencer and sister Miss Emma Spencer, of Laporte, were shopping in Williamsport, Saturday.

Our time table in last week's issue, of the excursion to Laporte on the 15th, was appreciated by visiting guests.

A number of people of Berace, were present at the colored camp-meeting in the grove at Lake Mokoma, Sunday.

Mrs. Sheriff Mahaffey of Laporte, was called to Williamsport Tuesday to attend the funeral of a brother-in-law, Mr. Wm. Blair.

F. H. Tomlinson of Montoursville and landlord, Lora, of Sonestown, were among the business callers at the county seat, Friday.

The old mill site on West Main street, is an eye sore and the Town Council should order it cleaned off and made to look respectable.

Geo. M. Bartholomew and Frank Temple of Milton and McClellan Rinebold of Watsonstown, are laying the foundation for the Catholic church.

A goodly number of Democratic office seekers will return home from their convention next Tuesday, with pains in their stomachs. Who will they be?

A. L. Marks, dealer in clothing, hats, caps, gents furnishing goods and trunks and valises, of Dushore, has a new ad in the REPUBLICAN, this week.

The County Commissioners have disposed of $20,000 worth of bonds to parties residing in Lansford, Schuylkill county. They were taken at par.

Harry McKibbons, an old hotel man of Dushore, has leased the Kennedy Hotel at this place and will take possession of the same on Monday September 17th.

Sam Allen, the veteran engineer on the W. & N. B., spent Saturday with friends in Laporte. Sam has hosts of friends here, who are always pleased to see him.

An excursion of about three hundred people of Pennsylv., visited Lake Mokoma, Saturday. They occupied the Mason grove and evidently enjoyed a very pleasant day.

Good clean thinking Democratic people, are frank in saying that this is going to be a bad year for Democracy. Why wouldn't it be? they have raised thunder all along the line.

The Demorest base ball club of Williamsport crossed bats with the Muncy team at the latter place, recently. At the end of the ninth inning the score stood thus: Muncy 00; Demorest 11.

There will be an excursion from Williamsport to Lake Mokoma next Sunday morning. The excursionists will come to visit the colored camp-meeting. The genuine Jubilee Singers will be here and a very large day is anticipated. This will be the last day of the meeting. Come and enjoy the concerts.

The County Commissioners who are considering the best plan of heating the court house, went down to Danville Monday to inspect the heating apparatus in the Danville court house. This structure is heated by hot water and we understand that the officers are undecided which to accept of, hot water or steam. It is probable that on their return they will have made a choice.

Mr. F. W. Ecker, of Corning, N. Y., who represents the Corning Mfg. Co., has charge of the cornice and slate work on our new court house.

Mr. G. W. Ingham and wife of Sugar Run, are visiting his brother, Judge Ingham and family of this place. The two brothers are silvery gray and as time advances they resemble one another very materially.

Work on the court house is progressing right along. The second story is up and the carpenters are erecting the rafters. They expect to have the building in readiness for the slaters by the last of this week or the fore part of next.

A few Democrats predict a sharp tilt in their convention next Tuesday, over the nomination for Member. They say that George is in it deeper than some people have any idea. It would be a surprise to many, if George should get there.

Philo Kissenger and son Ellis of Eagles Mere, were doing business at the county seat, Tuesday. They paid their respects to the REPUBLICAN office, while here. Philo is a good Democrat, but is some disgusted with the doings in Congress of to-day.

The Republicans of Bradford county held their convention in Towanda on Thursday last and placed in nomination the following ticket: For Congress, Myron B. Wright; Representatives, F. L. Kiraner, A. S. Newman and F. W. Moore; Jury Commissioner, B. G. Wilmot.

U. S. Dist. Atty. E. P. Ingham, met with a painful accident Saturday afternoon. He sprang from a wagon near the Lake Mokoma pavilion and unfortunately alighted on a sharp wire nail, which penetrated his foot an inch or more. The wound was very painful and Ellery was confined to his room several days with it.

Mr. A. L. Grim says he has been an old war horse in the Sullivan county Democratic party for years and feels that the party owes him the nomination for Member. As the Democratic party is noted for fulfilling all obligations, they will not overlook the old war horse. It is well for Mr. Grim that his party is so conservative.

LATER: Mr. Grim has withdrawn from the field.

D. H. Lora of Sonestown, recently opened up a stone quarry on his land in the vicinity of Sonestown. A sample of the stones taken from this mine, is on exhibition at the commissioners office and is a handsome piece of rock. It is about two and a half inches in thickness, almost perfectly flat on either side and its color is red tint, similar to red shale land. Dan feels that he has struck it rich and will make a business of mining the stone.

The bricklayers engaged on the court house left for their homes in Williamsport on Thursday last and will be absent about one week. During their vacation the carpenters will erect scaffolding and place the heavy timbers on the building. On Friday the carpenters erected with rope and tackle, two girders, each containing 600 feet of lumber, over the court room proper. They were 60 feet in length and were 10 by 12 inches in thickness. Under the supervision of Mr. Chas. Lawrence these heavy timbers were put in place without a jar and the work progressed as if nothing extraordinary was taking place. Will Cook did the grinding.

Mrs. Robt. Taylor, widow of the late Robt. Taylor, of Muncy Valley, died of dropsy on Thursday last, aged 88 years, 1 month and 5 days. Interment took place on Sunday. Deceased with her late husband, were among the early settlers of Sullivan county. Rev. W. A. Lepley preached the funeral sermon from the text, "Even to your old age I am here; and even to your hairs will I carry you." Isa. 46, 4. She was buried in the Hughesville cemetery. Six out of eight children survive her of whom General Taylor of Tivoli, is the oldest. Two of the daughters are living in the west and one of these, Mrs. Speary of Ill., was present at the funeral.

The Democrats of Sullivan county will lose in Forkville on next Tuesday, August 21st. That is they will hold their convention there on that date and a great big time is anticipated. The bosses will be there, but the rank and file of our Democracy will remain at home and when the day of judgment comes they will cast their vote for the best men on the ticket regardless of party principles. In short, the boys are getting tired of voting the ticket slated by the bosses of the party. What is there in it for them anyway? Most every "boss" in the county is anxious to be on the ticket. It doesn't matter who of the candidates are the lucky ones, it will be made up of bosses and of course they will expect the rank and file of their party who has nothing to say in the make up of the ticket, to elect them. Here are the Democratic candidates looking for office. Term each one of them "boss" and you will not hit it amiss: P. Connor, for Congress, of Bernice; A. Walsh, for Senator, of Dushore; Russel Karns, for Senator, of Laporte; Ambrose Farrell, for Member, of Lopez; George Strey, for Member, of Dushore; A. L. Grim, for Member, of Laporte; E. J. Mullen, for Dist. Atty. of Dushore and Chas. Hugo for Jury Commissioner of Elkland.

Here is the ticket as predicted by a few of the leading spirits: For Congress, P. Connor; for Senator, A. Walsh; for Member, Ambrose Farrell and for Dist. Atty. E. J. Mullen. Geographically, one point of the compass would take all of these fellows in, and it stands to reason that the rank and file of the Democratic party in Davidson, the two Laportes, Shrewsbury, Forkville, Forks, Fox, Elkland and Hills Grove, will bolt the ticket and let the people of the Chery Combine know that there are citizens residing in other parts of the county competent of filling an office or two.

The inclemency of the weather interfered materially with the attendance at the colored campmeeting, on Sunday. The two excursions, one from Williamsport, and one from Towanda arrived at the grove at about 10:30 a. m., but the coaches were nearly empty of people. It commenced to rain early in the morning and continued all day and at intervals it poured down. There were lots of people anxious to come but they would not venture out. At Williamsport, we were informed the depot and platform were crowded with people to take the excursion, but at the hour of starting the rain came down in sheets and all or nearly all gave up the trip.

Notwithstanding the down pour of rain, services were held in the grove at 3 p. m. and were listened to with mark attention by the small gathering present. Rev. Mr. Johnson of Williamsport delivered the sermon; after which the jubilee singers entertained the audience with a selection of old plantation songs.

The conferees comprising the Seventeenth Congressional district will meet in the Montour House at Danville Friday, August 17, for the purpose of placing in nomination a candidate to represent the Republican party at the coming fall election. There are four counties comprised in this district with a representation of fourteen votes as follows: Montour 3; Sullivan, 2; Columbia, 4; and Northumberland 5.

Montour's conferees are instructed for Col. C. W. Bakman, of Danville, Columbia's for J. C. Brown, of Bloomsburg, and Northumberland for M. H. Kulp, of Shamokin. Sullivan has no candidate, but has elected conferees—E. V. Ingham of Eagles Mere and F. P. Vincent of Dushore, who will go into the conference and vote for the man who can poll the largest number of votes at the general election.

De La Green, the ex-cashier of the Muncy National Bank has entered a protest to the petition of the stockholders requesting a dismissal of the case now pending in the United States Court. Mr. Green was, with President John M. Bowman, arrested for the embezzlement of $23,000. The ex-cashier says he wants no settlement of the case. All he desires is justice. He says he cannot obtain justice unless the case comes to trial so that he can vindicate himself. Mr. Green says he was out of the bank two years before the money disappeared and that half a dozen persons had access to the vault after he left the bank. He says: "I think there is a man in Muncy who probably knows what became of the money."

Mrs. Jacob May of Kybertown and mother of landlord May of the Laporte Hotel and two sisters, Mrs. Wagner of Phillipsburg and Miss Mary May of Kybertown, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. May of this place.

The 15th of August at Laporte, a Grand Success. Yesterday, August 15th, was, as was advertised, a gala day at Laporte. The excursion came around the curve at 9:30 a. m. and at 10:00 a. m. There were two sections. Both were loaded down with people. The first section brought 7 coaches and the second 9. The Germania and Bernice bands came in on the second section, when a line of march was formed to the grove. It was then announced that Father Enright would hold services in the Pavilion. With this over all joined in for a good time. The dancing was started and the numerous games put in motion. Rowing on the lake and riding on the steam boat were among the chief attractions.

The Hills Grove band joined the gathering at about 11 a. m. and with the three bands present, lots of music was in the air. The orchestra was from Dushore and was complimented. The several peanut and ice cream stands did a large trade.

In the afternoon a thunder shower came up and it rained hard for several minutes. During the shower lightning struck J. A. Jordan's barn on East Meyler street and burned it to the ground. In the barn were several tons of hay and a quantity of lumber and farming implements owned by Mr. Jordan and a pair of bob sleds owned by Mr. Hassen and two wagons owned by the Wheeler Bros. show company, one of these wagons was saved the other things went up in smoke. There was no insurance on the building and the loss is estimated at about four hundred dollars. The excitement of the fire had hardly been quieted when word was circulated that a young man had been drowned in the lake. This was false, however. There was not one word of truth in the rumor. During the gale a boy lost his hat in the water and thus the story originated.

The excursion left at 7:30 p. m. and all expressed a good time. It was estimated that there were 2,000 people present and we guess the figures were none too high. The doings were both socially and financially a success and Father Enright was more than pleased with the large gathering. It is too early to give the receipts of the day, but they were large, very large. We will give the exact amount in our next issue. We assure you that Father Enright, the people of Laporte and the committees in charge, did all in their power to give the visiting guests a good time and are glad to know that everybody enjoyed themselves and a good dinner and returned to their homes well pleased with the pleasures of the day.

The Democratic County Convention on Monday was a decidedly quiet affair. During the forenoon of that day there was no appearance on the streets of anything unusual going on, as is generally evidenced by the crowd gathering on convention days. The convention was called to order by county chairman A. S. Keeler, at 2 o'clock and at once proceeded to business. W. E. Little, Esq., was chosen chairman, Alvin Day and Frank Herman, secretaries, and J. Wood Piatt, Esq., reading clerk. The roll of delegates showed all the districts represented except Overfield. On the call for nomination for Congressman there was no candidate placed in the field, therefore C. A. Little, Esq., and ex-sheriff, C. S. Knapp were elected conferees to represent this county in the district conference. Hon. John A. Sittler was nominated for the office of President Judge, and Hon. F. H. Piatt for Representative, both by acclamation. When the nominations for Jury Commissioner were opened there was a great "scramble" to see who would "get there" first, as all apparently, realized that this was the only office upon which the Democratic party could feel any assurance of coming their way this year. There were six nominations—Horace Fasset, M. L. McMillen, F. C. Decker, Solomon Walter, T. R. Stark, and George Nye. Upon the sixth ballot Mr. Fasset received the nomination. J. G. Fasset and Theron Stark were elected delegates to the next State Convention. A resolution was passed providing that a vacancy on the ticket, the County Committee would fill the same. The resolutions came in at last and they touched the question of national affairs very tenderly, and with very few words. There were very few in the Court room outside of the delegates, and many of the spectators were Republicans.—Tunkhannock Republican.
