MUST REDUCE WAGES.

BROOKLYN, Sept. 17.—The employees of the American Cordage Manufacturing Company, at the foot of Noble Street, Greenpoint, have received the following notice:—
The Government of the United States having removed the duty on bagging, it can now be imported free. Bagging is manufactured in India, Germany and Scotland. Wages in these countries are as follows: For weavers, spinners and men laborers, ten cents per day in India; thirty cents per day in Germany; forty-five cents per day in Scotland; and other classes in proportion.
In spite of these very low wages paid in other countries, the company hopes that it may be found possible to continue the business here. Inquiry is now being made as to the cost of landing bagging here from other countries and on the information obtained the management will determine what course to pursue. It is with much sorrow that the employees are notified that under the best conditions that are hoped for it will not be possible to continue to pay the present scale of wages.
By about November 1 it will be decided whether the mill can be run at all and if so at what rate of pay for each class of employees. Meanwhile the present rate of wages will continue to be paid. The managers of the company appreciate the good work lately given by all the employees and while thanking each one now wish to remind them that it is only by extra effort and increased production that the mill can possibly be kept going. The mill employs about 700 hands.

The sugar planters in Louisiana are a little late in declaring for a protective tariff. But better late than never. If their representatives in Congress had not been willing to vote for free trade for every other industry while expecting the Democrats to protect sugar the tariff bill would never have passed the Senate and the sugar industry would not be threatened with extinguishment, to say nothing of the loss this year of bounty already earned. The sugar planters got a dose of the medicine they were willing to force down the throats of the farmers and manufacturers of the North. If they have at last come to realize the folly of their selfish course the Republican party welcome their aid.

Congressional Conference.
The Democratic Congressional Conference of this district re-assembled at Danville on Sept. 10th pursuant to adjournment president G. W. Miles of Montour presiding, all the conferees present as follows—Columbia, Robert McHenry and J. G. Freeze; Montour—G. W. Miles and Alex Billmeyer; Northumberland—Yoris Auten and J. N. McDevitt; Sullivan—A. L. Smith and J. W. Flynn.

After the 37th ballot Mr. McDevitt presented some petitions from Citizens of Northumberland county asking for the nomination of Chas. T. Steck, and on the next three ballots Mr. Steck received the votes of Messrs McDevitt and Auten, after the 41st ballot the Conference adjourned until Tuesday at 9 o'clock a. m. At which time it reconvened and during the day the 60th ballot was reached. Mr. Buckalew receiving the votes of Columbia and Sullivan constantly. Steinbach the Montour vote. And Dewart the Northumberland vote, with occasional variations on the last two. After the 60th ballot they adjourned until 8 o'clock in the evening, at which time the candidates appeared before the conference and severally formally released their conferees from their instructions. The conference then adjourned until 8 o'clock Wednesday morning, on re-assembling at that hour balloting was resumed with varying results until the 70th ballot, when Mr. Buckalew received the votes of Columbia, Montour and Sullivan counties and was declared by the President to be the Nominee. After tendering their thanks to the Pattison Club for the use of the rooms the conference adjourned. X

SONESTOWN ITEMS.

Our people in town are pretty well now. We have had a very dry spell of weather, but have plenty of rain now and some people will no doubt soon begin to wish for less rain.

The revival services in this town are being largely attended and great interest is being taken in the meeting by all.

Rev. J. H. Maice the blind Evangelist is a deservedly popular, eloquent and earnest speaker and is very much liked.

The Lyon Lumber Co. have purchased the stock of lumber belonging to Bennett & Peale and the E. M. R. Co. are hauling it to this place, where it will be piled and shipped as fast as possible. It is supposed to take thirty days to haul the lumber down.

T. A. Richart was badly stung by bees yesterday afternoon and was very sick last night, but is better today we are glad to hear.

Magargel Bros. have had put down a fine flag stone walk in front of their store which makes a fine improvement. Mr. Billingboz laid the walk of stone from the Sonestown quarry. Mr. B. is getting out some fine stone.

JERE KELLY'S Column.

Sept. 26, 27, 28 and 29th will be very interesting days at our Fair. We will make our store just as interesting. You can leave your baggage at our baggage room while visiting the Fair, no charge. See all our bargains. You need not buy anything here to make yourself comfortable. We only want to show you what we have. OUR STORE ROOM is now in prime shape.

Breckinridge Turned Down.
LEXINGTON, Sept. 15.—Colonel Breckinridge, of scandal fame, has been turned down by the people of his district, and will not go back to Congress. His defeat was accomplished after the hottest political contest that ever occurred in Kentucky, resulting in a complete victory for Owens.

Colonel Breckinridge expresses himself as being willing to submit to the decision of his party. He says he will support the nominee and will advise all his friends to do the same. He says he has always been a Democrat and says he intends to remain one. He says he will stay here in Kentucky and make this his home if defeated. A close friend of Colonel Breckinridge said that he would take a trip to Europe.

Prayer meetings and fights were prominent features of an exciting day. In this city several of the former were held and in several places riots between the factions injuring several of the participants.
