Politically, the Democrats and Republicans of Sullivan county were never more harmoniously than at the present time. Lets keep it in this channel.

Free wool is causing the farmers of the country to sell their sheep to butchers. Before long mutton will be a luxury beyond the reach of the average citizen.

A. A. Overholzer, proprietor of the Laporte Hotel, has a parrot that talks German as well as American. It is a good converser and entertains lots of people.

The Forksville Fair will be held October 3d, 4th, 5th and 6th. The management are making an extra effort to make this the best ever held on the grounds.

A large majority of the people in attendance at court, took a look at our new court house. They pronounced it a good looking and a first class building.

The hand bills announcing the Forksville Fair are very neatly gotten up. They are printed in colors and were done by an Ohio printing establishment.

Many democratic congressmen are ashamed to look a sheep in the face since by their vote for free wool they have ruined his usefulness and consigned him to the dogs.

Ex-County Commissioner, D. W. Scanlin of Cherry, was among the court guests in town, on Monday. He came over as a witness in a Commonwealth case. Dan is the same old boy that he used to be and enjoys a joke with the same good grace as of yore. He has a whole lot of friends over here who were more than pleased to see him.

The attendance at court is quite large.

Old settlers say we are going to have a wet spell of weather.

Can the farmers of Sullivan county remember when they were obliged to sell their lambs for $2 apiece, as they are compelled to do at the present time?

We have Peter Jackson with us. He is barn boss at the Laporte Hotel. He is a large colored man and can kick fifteen feet in the air. We would advise you to use Peter white.

Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Karns of Laporte, will leave for Philadelphia on Monday next where Bert will study law in the University. They have leased rooms and will keep house in the city.

The number of guests registered at our Hotels this week, are as follows: Commercial Hotel, 200; Laporte Hotel, 84; Mountain House, 76; Fairview Cottage, 40; Eagle Hotel, 14.

The sugar speeches of the democratic campaigner will not have the same seductive effect as in days gone by. The audiences will ask the questions and the speaker will be on the defensive.

The leaders of the Democratic party held a secret session in a room of the Laporte Hotel Monday evening. The rank and file of their party in attendance at court, were not invited to participate.

The supper given by our people in the new building of J. W. Ballard for the benefit of the M. E. church, on Tuesday evening, was a complete success, both socially and financially. The gross receipts were $25.

County Commissioners Litzelman, Webster and Farrell and their clerk John E. Gallagher, left last evening for Pottsville where they will attend the State Commissioners' Convention, which convenes in said place, today, Thursday.

Stewart Chase will take possession of the Tinklepugh boarding house on Cherry street, the 1st of October. With this done all of our hotels and boarding houses with the exception of the Mountain House, will have changed hands in a very short time.

General Hastings will speak at Williamsport on Tuesday evening Sept. 25th. A big time is anticipated and our Sullivan county people are respectively invited to attend. It will be a large night in Williamsport.

'How can we face the people after indulging in such outrageous discriminations and violations of principles?'—(President Cleveland in the Wilson letter.)

Nothing, Grover, but hard cheek and an unlimited quantity of concentrated gall which your party possesses could frame an excuse for the last Democratic Congress.

The Bituminous Record, published by R. A. Kinsloe at Phillipsburg, Pa., although a strong Democratic paper, has come out frankly for Gen. Hastings for Governor and gave a three column article in his behalf last week.

To Jail Till He Ate A Loaf. For stealing a loaf of bread from a bakery in Wilkes-Barre, Mayor Nichols sentenced 70 year old Jacob Ruffly to the lock-up till he ate the loaf. The old man ate his way to liberty in four hours.

The Maine election held on Monday of last week, was a corker. The Republicans carried the state by 37-000 majority, the largest ever known in the history of the party. This is the key note of what will take place on the 6th of November.

Pay Your Tax. Now that you have registered and have been assessed, the next thing to be attended to is the payment of your tax. Examine your receipts and see whether you have one dated since Nov. 6, '92. If not, and you are over twenty-two years old, you must pay a county or State tax before Oct. 6th.

The 3:02 train brought a large delegation of court guests, on Monday. They got off the train at the Tannery station and walked to the school house, in which court is being temporarily held. Atty. J. G. Scouten with his long tail linen duster, headed the procession up the hill. Scouten makes a good leader.

The Forksville Fair promises to be extra good this season. Several new and entertaining features will be introduced. A log cabin will be erected as in olden times. A department has been assigned for the reading of historical events. The fair will take place on Wednesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday, 3d, 4th, 5th and 6th of October, and you are cordially invited to join the long list of sight seers.

The Towanda Review gave a portrait of landlord Seely of Forksville last week, and in their biographical sketch of his life said that he was a show for the small boys when he lived in Towanda, meaning of course his avordupois. He tips the scales at 450 pounds. Mr. Seely will be a sort of a side show at the Forksville Fair.

Is a man in the liquor business a proper man to represent us in Harrisburg? Of course the answer of the temperance people is a foregone conclusion, but we refer the question especially to those of our tax payers who occasionally take a glass of beer. We make no comment, but simply ask you to give the question a thought.

The fact that Messrs. Auten and McDevitt, Democratic Congressional Conferees of Northumberland county, would not and did not vote to make Mr. Buckalew's nomination unanimous in their conference, is of much significance in Northumberland county. It may appear of no consequence to our people, but the result of the bolt on the part of the conferees will add much to the boom of our friend Kulp. If you want to be on the winning and the right side vote for Farmer Kulp.

On The Stump. Monroe H. Kulp, of Shamokin, the Republican candidate for congress in the district comprising Northumberland, Columbia, Montour and Sullivan counties, was a Sabbath visitor and spent the day with his friend, R. J. Mills. He will open his campaign at Shamokin to day and will speak on the same platform with General Hastings when the latter visits Mr. Kulp's district.—Pottsville Miners' Journal.

Our candidate for President Judge Hon. E. M. Dunham, is looked upon as one of our very best attorneys. He is competent in every respect to preside as President Judge of this district and the people will so sustain us in this remark, notwithstanding the little dirty slurs dung out in Grandmother, last week. Ed. as he is familiarly known has served our people in the Legislative Chambers, District Attorney and other prominent offices, and as an officer did his constituents honor.

Hon. F. H. Piatt of Tunkhannock who was nominated for Member by the Democratic party of Wyoming county in their convention at a recent date, has declined the nomination and at a meeting of the Wyoming county standing committee, held on Monday of last week, E. S. Wheeler was placed on the ticket in place of Piatt. Mr. Piatt is an old politician and evidently seen defeat staring him in the face. He possibly might have withdrawn however, in the interest of Judge Sittser. If this be true, Wheeler's throat will be cut from ear to ear, on the 6th of November.

Deputy Collector, Buckingham of this district, was in Laporte one day last week collecting 2 cents a pack on playing cards offered for sale by our several merchants. This is in accordance with the Wilson bill. We are told that he collected 12 cts. of our store keepers. As the charges for riding in the hack from the depot to the city is 15 cents, his collections fell short three cents of paying the bill. The Government pays Buckingham and we presume his bill will be not less than $75, for doing this county. He will perhaps collect for the people $10. A profitable investment for you and I, isn't it? This is a fair sample of the Democratic Wilson bill.

Jennings Bros. of Lopez give employment to one or two hundred men daily. One of this firm, B. W. Jennings is the peoples' candidate for Member. He is a progressive young man and one that is deserving of the support of the Sullivan county people. Their saw mill is one of the largest industries in the county. With this mill closed, how would it effect Lopez? Why, the business there would almost come to a standstill. All will admit this. Have you considered the fact too, that the Jennings Bros. pay out in wages, eight or ten thousand dollars, monthly? and that they pay fourteen hundred dollars county tax? Messrs. Jennings gave County Treasurer, A. L. Smith a check of this amount one day recently, which only settled that part of their tax due the county. In addition to this they pay a large school, road and poor tax. Are they not deserving? We think so and like many others feel that Worth should receive the support and vote of every good thinking tax payer in the county. When you have summed up the situation in this contest, you will admit that while both Mr. Farrell and Mr. Jennings are gentlemen, the latter is the deserving one.

KULP-BUCKALEW. With the nomination of Charles R. Buckalew by the Democratic conference at Danville the issue in this Congressional district is made up; and the voters from now on will be called upon to make their choice.

No one will dispute Mr. Buckalew's abilities as a lawyer nor deny his reputation as a diplomat. These are not issues in this campaign. The question is simply which of the two men will best serve the interests of the district and contribute most to the prosperity of the country.

The President has declared that the tariff war must go on. Not content with the fact that after having kept the country in a state of depression and anxiety for a year, at the end of which they were compelled, by the state of business, to pass a bill whose only commendatory feature is the measure of protection it affords, and whose odious income tax and differential duties in favor of the sugar trust no one defends. Not content with these things, they as a party demand a continuation of this struggle.

It certainly will be continued if the next Congress is Democratic. We are not calamity howlers but we feel and know that the only hope of that era of prosperity we all desire, lies in stopping the warfare on American industries. Hence we are for Kulp.

Mr. Buckalew's whole past record his stand during the war, his association in the Senate and House unmistakably indicate that his future alliances like those of the past, will be with the South.

The future of this country cannot be trusted to that section and their allies. Their whole policy is destructive of national wealth and national credit.

The mission of the Republican party is to put this country on a sound basis, to rescue the treasury from its present depleted condition, to so restore the confidence of the world that we may enter upon a prolonged period of prosperity and our factories and industries once more resound with the happy voices of thrifty people. Neither by past record, present association or personal temperament is Buckalew qualified to represent our people at this crisis.

In the past he preferred a divided confederacy to a nation preserved by the law. In the present he is the associate, and if elected would be the colleague, of the men who framed and passed the Wilson bill and whose inability to act was and is the cause of our present depression. In temperament he cannot sympathize or associate with the working people of this country.

Kulp on the contrary is a self made young man, who has toiled with the toilers, and who has felt the pangs of adversity and who will make a fighting soldier on the peoples side of the next Congress.

The sum and substance of the tariff question, as Abraham Lincoln viewed it, was given in his first speech on the tariff question, which was short and to the point. He said he did not pretend to be learned in political economy, but he thought that he knew enough to know that 'when an American paid twenty dollars for steel to an English manufacturer America had the twenty dollars. But when he paid twenty dollars for steel to an American manufacturer America had the steel and the twenty dollars.' It was certainly a great tariff speech in a very few words, simple and to the point.

There is a suspicion abroad that some of the honest sheep raisers in Lyeoncing county are playing a game upon the county that would do credit to a heathen Chinese. It is alleged that when a sheep is killed the auditors are informed. They see the sheep appraise it and go away, but while the auditors are turning out of the lane, the owner of another flock of sheep will take the dead animal to his home, summon the auditors, have it appraised and receive the money from the commissioners. Then one or two other men do likewise, until finally the county pays out about $20 dollars for that one sheep.

The Prohibition Senatorial Conferees of the 24th Senatorial District composed of Sullivan, Lyeoncing, Columbia and Montour counties, will meet at Hotel Updegraff, Williamsport, Pa., to day Thursday, at 2 o'clock p. m. Messrs B. W. Fawcett and W. J. Higley, are the Conferees from this county.

Edward Fallinger who was arrested some seven months ago for shooting and killing Harry Haas at Sayre was tried in the Towanda courts last week. The Jury found Fallinger not guilty of murder believing that he did the act in self defence. The verdict meets the approval of those who listened to the evidence.

Their Backbone Broken.

The side walks along West Meylert street are in a frightfully dilapidated condition and our Town Council should order them rebuilt at once, and if the owners of the lots refuse to build that part along their property in accordance with the Borough Ordinance, the council should take the matter in hand and do the work and collect the cost for the same of the lot owners, as was done by a former Board—of the Finch estate and of Mrs. Nancy Hill on Muncy and Cherry streets. The people owning lots on West Meylert street should receive the same treatment, one tax payer is no better in this respect than another and if our Town Council had a little backbone our town would possess a much better appearance and our walks much less dangerous to walk upon.

Mr. J. W. Flynn, superintendent of the Laporte Tannery and Miss Mollie Brieger of Laporte, are to be married on Tuesday September 25th. The fact that Mr. Flynn is superintendent for the Union Tanning Co., is sufficient endorsement that he is a good business man and is well liked by a host of friends. Miss Mollie is one of our young society ladies and enjoys the friendship of a large acquaintance. The REPUBLICAN may be a little premature, but nevertheless we extend congratulations.
