The N. Y. Weekly Tribune and Sullivan Republican for $1.25 One Year $1.25.

A band of gypsies passed through town, Friday.

The potatoe crop in this section is not up to the average.

A large number of people visited the court house, Sunday.

Mrs. Ann F. Meylert of Laporte, is visiting friends in Muncy.

Mrs. R. M. Stormont is having her Lake Mokoma lot cleared.

Seven hundred people get their mail at the Laporte post office.

W. C. Mason is cleaning the brush and stones off his Lake Mokoma lot.

The Elmira Evening News says that when Elmira's woolen Mills resume they will do so under a cut of wages.

Mr. Harry Karns accompanied by Master Raymond Eilenberger, of Towanda, spent Sunday with friends in Laporte.

There is considerable improvement going on down to Lake Mokoma in the way of brushing up lots &c.

The horse races at the Hughesville fair this week, will be interesting. A large number of our people are going down, Saturday.

Some candidates run before their ticket. Some candidates run behind their ticket and some run away altogether, as Mr. Singlerly has, for instance.

If you desire to vote you must pay a county or state tax before the 6th of October. Don't neglect it longer. Go at once and settle with the tax collector.

Will you have a little sugar in your'n? What kind, Republican sugar, 5 cents or Democratic sugar 6 cents? You cast your vote and take your choice.

W. A. Kennedy of Laporte, has his horse "Moon Shine" on the Bloomsburg race course, where he will receive proper training for doing a race up quick.

A young man who furnished libelous news to a Wilkes-Barre newspaper is in jail in consequence. This may serve as a local warning, for the law is very strict.

They say that after this week the officials of the W. & N. B. R. R. will discontinue the through train to Towanda. This will reduce our passenger train service to four trains daily.

When our Democratic exchanges mention the resumption of business, they forget to mention that the men go to work under a reduction of wages. The men don't forget it, however.

Several parties in town expect to deal in coal this winter. They should drop an ad. in the REPUBLICAN and quote their prices. A couple of dollars spent in this way would be a paying investment.

The Wilkes-Barre Record says that one of Rockefeller's bondsmen has made overtures to the city to settle for fifty cents on the dollar. There is nothing against a man trying to effect as favorable a settlement as he can.

John Pursell who recently purchased the stone house on Thorne street of Judge Ingham, has beautified the interior of the same very much. One would hardly recognize it to be the old structure of a year ago. Mr. Pursell says he has only begun repairing the building and that when he has completed his work it will compare favorably with the average home in Laporte.

THE THREE 'R'S.' In 1884 the Reverend Burchard made himself famous by his celebrated phrase: "Rum, Romanism and Rebellion."

In 1894 Candidate Singlerly has added a new zest to the campaign by his phrase: "Ringsters, Roosters and Ruffins."

The three R's seem to play a conspicuous part in American politics.

E. S. LATSHAW, Pastor, Laporte, Pa.

A Columbia county Democrat made Laporte a visit the other day. We met him on the walk and enjoyed a half hour's talk with him regarding the Congressional contest. The gentleman frankly confessed that Mr. Buckalew would not receive his party vote in Columbia county. The principal objection being his advanced age and inability of looking after the wants of his constituents. In short, they think down there that Mr. Buckalew has spun his political aspirations and should be content.

No one disputes but that Mr. Buckalew has been an able man, but old age turns the tide of all men.

The fact that Messrs. Auten and McDavitt, Democratic Congressional Conferees of Northumberland county, would not vote to make Mr. Buckalew's nomination unanimous in their conference, is of much significance in Northumberland county. It may appear of no consequence to our people, but the result of the bolt on the part of the conferees will add much to the boom of our friend Kulp. If you want to be on the winning side vote for Farmer Kulp.—From Laporte REPUBLICAN of Sept. 21.

The substance of the above came to us by mail.

The Laporte REPUBLICAN stated last week that the conferees from Northumberland county refused to make the nomination of Mr. Buckalew for Congress unanimous at the Danville conference recently. This statement is denied by the conferees from Sullivan. We would respectfully ask the editor of the REPUBLICAN how many converts he expects to make by his method of lying.—Dushore GAZETTE.

To sustain our remarks we take the following from the Danville American. The conference was held at Danville and the papers there must know what they are talking about. Guess Mr. Streby must have misunderstood the Sullivan county conferees. We wouldn't call George a liar for the world.

So it was not a surprise on Wednesday morning that after a few ballots taken Mr. Buckalew was nominated. His nomination was secured upon the 70th ballot. Upon the final ballot the vote stood 6 for Buckalew and 2 for Steck. The Montour county conferees changing their votes to Buckalew and the Northumberland men voting for Mr. Steck. Upon a motion to have the nomination unanimous, Mr. Auten did not vote and Mr. McDavitt voted no.—Danville AMERICAN.

MORE EVIDENCE. It came in last evening's mail. We think we are on the winning side of this libel. We take the following from the Shamokin News, of Sept. 25.

"C. R. Buckalew, the aged democratic candidate, realizes that he now has the right of his life on his hands and his friends are bewailing the fact that he is too aged to make a vigorous contest. Besides being 73 years old, which is twice the age of his Republican opponent, Mr. Buckalew is unpopular in his own party as was evidenced in the convention when the NORTHUMBERLAND COUNTY Democratic CONFERENCE positively refused to have him by making his nomination unanimous." Shamokin NEWS.

A PRETTY WEDDING.

On Tuesday Sept. 25th Mr. J. W. Flynn and Miss Mary Breiger, both of this place were united in holy wedlock by Rev. J. A. Burright.

A nuptial mass was celebrated at 9 a. m., at which assisted many friends of the bride and groom. The "best man" was M. J. Flynn and the bridesmaid Miss Bessie Flynn, brother and sister of the groom.

The bride was attired in ecru bengaline silk and bonnet to match. The groom was attired in black. The floral decorations were of an elaborate nature. Delegations from DeBurre, N. Y., Dushore, Jamison City and Laporte were in attendance.

The ceremony over, Rev. Father Enright paid a well merited compliment to the contracting parties, laying particular stress on their christian fidelity. May their matrimonial bark, so auspiciously launched, pass happily and peacefully and gloriously on and may each succeeding anniversary be rich in the fulfillment of the many fond wishes of their many friends.

Woodruff—Ball. Last Wednesday evening, the 19th instant, W. B. Woodruff, of this city, and Miss Viola Ball, of Laporte, Sullivan county, were quietly married by Rev. E. C. Armstrong, at the Third Presbyterian manse. The bride is the young lady who is said to be heiress to $1,000,000 worth of property in California.—Gazette and Bulletin.

The Ladies Aid Society of Laporte will meet at the residence of Mrs. R. Karns, Wednesday, Oct. 3d, 1894. Mrs. J. H. SPENCER, Sec.

MINNEAPOLIS, Sept. 23.—Reports of the destruction wrought by Friday night's cyclone indicate that the loss of life will be in the neighborhood of seventy-five, while the injured will number several times as many. Some of those hurt are expected to die and it is not unlikely that fully 100 persons will be numbered in the list of the cyclone's fury. The property loss is very heavy and it is almost impossible at this time to obtain anything more than a rough estimate of the damage.

As indicated in last night's dispatches, the storm originated near Emmetsburg, Iowa, and passed east and north to northern Iowa and southern Minnesota, finally passing over into Wisconsin. No reports of serious damage have been received from this section and the fury of the elements seems to have been spent with the destruction of Spring Valley. Here four persons are dead; some severely hurt, while the property loss is estimated at $85,000, the residence portion of the town lying directly in the path of the cyclone. At Leroy, lying southwest four are dead and several fatally injured. The destruction of property amounts to about $75,000. This is a heavy blow to the village for its chief business houses lie in ruins.

SINGERLY WON'T PLAY.

Advice to His Fellow Democrats Not to Vote for Him.

From the Philadelphia Record. TO THE STATE DEMOCRACY.

The action of the Democrats who controlled the convention in the Third Congress District yesterday, it may as well be confessed now as sixty days hence, will thoroughly demoralize, dishearten and defeat Democratic effort to poll a full vote in this city in November. That district was the key to the situation in Philadelphia and Democrats throughout the State are entitled to a candid admission of the failure of the organization here to bring about harmonious action, and the necessary consequences of failure.

From this time forth the canvass should be waged throughout the State with a view to the election of as many Congressmen, Senators, Representatives and county officials as possible, without special effort for the State ticket. Effort should be at those points where it may prove effectual. The State ticket has been doomed by the practical abandonment of organized action in Philadelphia, where 100,000 Democrats have allowed themselves to be handcuffed and delivered into the control of a few contemptible ringsters, roosters and ruffins.

THE BEGINNING OF THE END. The failure of the Democratic Convention in the Third Congress District yesterday to nominate Congressman McAleer for re-election was the most stupid and brutal political blunder that has been perpetrated in Philadelphia politics for many a day. No reason can be assigned for the disgraceful procedure except the gratification of malignant personal pique and spite on the part of a few ward leaders, who are in politics for what they can make out of it, indifferent to the consequences of their action. Mr. McAleer's defeat is made the more grievous because he is the choice of three-fourths of the Democratic voters in his district. His renomination could not have been prevented except under the operation of the infamous rules still governing the primary action of the Democratic party in Philadelphia, by which it is made possible to pack conventions by barring out rightfully elected delegates and thus defeat the rule of the majority.

The Record has confidently anticipated the renomination of Mr. McAleer, not because it had any confidence in the political integrity of the intermediaries who have compassed his defeat, but who are really responsible for the mischievous rules governing party movement could control their creatures, and because the apparent restoration of harmonious action in Philadelphia was of such vital importance to the approaching canvass throughout the State.

But as Gen. Grant once observed, the best way to get rid of an obnoxious law is to enforce it; so, perhaps this culminating atrocity of boomerang management will be a finality. There will never be another Democratic convention in Philadelphia in which the will of the majority will be set aside by marionettes provided for the purpose.

HOW IS IT? The well intended citizen who has not yet decided how to vote at the coming election may as well consider his ground. I hope he will inquire of himself how he likes the conditions since the Republican party has gone out of power. Has it been with him individually? Has he had steady employment? Is he paid the old Republican wage rate? Does he find the cost of living any cheaper and the ability to meet that cost better? Is his business prosperous? Is he contented and confident of the future as before? When he has answered to himself these vital questions let him, on his way to the polls, pass the silent mill, the cold furnace, the broken bank, the deserted forge; let him pass by poverty and want, business paralyzed and confidence vanished, and then record his judgment of the responsibility for those conditions and his hope for the future in the ballot which he places in the box.—From speech of Gen. Hastings at the League of Clubs convention.

Miss Mamie, a little daughter of F. W. Gallagher of Laporte, while playing with associates on the truck cars at the Laporte Tannery, Friday afternoon, was quite seriously hurt. Her face is badly bruised and she was rendered unconscious for a half hour or more. Her little playmates were running the car from the tannery to the dry loft building where she attempted to get on and was caught between the car and the building.

What a Boy Saw in the Army.

The above comprehensive title is the name given to a new book by Dr. JESSE BOWMAN YOUNG, well known all over Pennsylvania, his native State, as a brave and gallant soldier of the war for the Union, as also a preacher, lecturer, and writer of the highest rank.

The story is one of fascinating interest. Among the many books touching upon the events of the civil war, few that we have read are so graphic in description, so comprehensive and accurate in detail, so varied in incident, and so elegantly written as is this book from the pen of Dr. Young. To read it is to live over again the scenes and incidents of that tremendous struggle.

Dr. Young is master of a style as vigorous as it is picturesque, and his description of the battles, the sieges the march and indeed the whole paraphernalia of war gives him high rank as a writer of war literature.

His descriptions of the battles of Pittsburg Landing, Fort Donelson, Fredericksburg, Chancellorsville, and above all, Gettysburg, are worthy of a place alongside of the "sea fight" and "chariot race" in Ben-Hur.

Every old soldier should have a copy of this remarkable book, and every family should secure it, and above all, every boy who loves his country and his country's flag, and wants to learn of the sacrifices that were endured in order to preserve the integrity of the Union, should not fail to read this book.

We invite the attention of our readers to the advertisement in another column.

Mr. John Rosencrans of Laporte twp., who has been on the sick list for sometime, is able to be around again.

There is no medicine so often needed in every home and so admirably adapted to the purposes for which it was intended, as Chamberlain's Pain Balm. Hardly a day passes but some member of the family has need of it. A toothache or headache may be cured by it. A touch of rheumatism or neuralgia quieted. The severe pain of a burn or scald promptly relieved and the sore healed in much less time than when medicine has to be sent for. A sprain may be promptly treated before inflammation sets in, which insures a cure in about one-third of the time otherwise required. Cuts and bruises promptly receive immediate treatment before the parts become swollen which can only be done when the Pain Balm is kept at hand. A sore throat may be cured before it becomes serious. A troublesome corn may be removed by applying it twice a day for a week or two. A lame back may be cured and several days of valuable time saved or a pain in the side or chest relieved with paying a doctor bill. Procure a 50 cent bottle at once and you will never regret it. For sale by Dr. Hill, Laporte, Pa.
