The steamer, "Queen of Mokoma" should be looked after by the proper officials of the Lake Mokoma Land Company. The water should be emptied out of the boiler and she should be placed in winter quarters.

County Commissioners, Litzelman, Farrell and Webster and their clerk, John E. Ghalagher, took the early morning train on Tuesday en route to Pottsville, where they will attend the State Commissioners convention which convened at that place on Oct. 9th.

Powder, shot, shells, caps and primers and cartridges and all kinds of ammunition at B. & W., Sonestown, Pa.

Ham, shoulder and bacon and mackerel at Bodine & Warns, Sonestown, Pa.

For Shoes go to Bodine & Warns, Sonestown, Pa.

A certain young man living not a hundred miles from Rohrsburg is in the habit of taking a large dog with him when he visits his best girl. A friend inquired of him the reason for such a procedure when he replied: "So that he can stay behind me and let my girl's old man kick him down the steps instead of me, if the worst comes to words." A smart young man, that.—Etc.

Many Democrats think—David B. Hill the next thing to satan.

The Democratic papers are making a great deal of hubbub over Mr. Buckalew's, speech recently delivered in Sunbury. The people are tired of reading speeches. Speech-making was about the only thing the last Congress did. The people want a man in Congress who will attend to business and that man is Farmer Kulp.

Arbitrators were chosen in the case of Ambrose Farrell vs William McMahon—for slander, on Monday October 8th, 1894. The following persons were selected as arbitrators, viz: Joseph Litzelswope, J. W. Rogers and M. R. Black. The arbitration will take place at Hotel Carroll, Dushore, on Tuesday Oct. 23d at 10 a. m.

BELLEFONTE, Oct. 7.—Hon Andrew Gregg Curtin, the old War Governor of Pennsylvania, died this morning at 5 o'clock. His death was not only painless but calm, the last vital spark going out after a sleep of twelve hours, a peaceful ending to the long, useful and even turbulent public life of this great and distinguished man.

The heater for our new court house of which we have heard so much about, arrived on Monday and Frank Crossley transported the same from the depot to the building on Tuesday. Men are now at work erecting it, and hope to have it in working order by the first of next month. The court house, when completed, will be a handsome and a well constructed building and will be nicely and appropriately furnished.

To a man up a tree it would appear that the rank and file of the Democratic party of Sullivan county, are anxious to see the ring of their party snowed under this fall, and a good part of this rank and file are going to help do it, too. The ringsters will get it where the chicken got the axe, this fall and dont you forget it. The Democratic party of Sullivan county, will have a new head in 1895.

Will Vote the Republican Ticket.

Father O'Brein, the popular priest at Kellyville, a life long Democrat, has announced the fact that he will vote the Republican ticket in Nov. and never will vote the Democratic ticket again. He is thoroughly disgusted with the actions of the last Congress. The reverend Father is a strong admirer of His Honor, Judge Clayton, and will do all he can to aid in his election.—Chester Times.

John J. Low of near Sonestown has purchased a truck farm near Watsonstown, Pa., and took possession of the same the early part of this week. Mr. Low is a good neighbor and citizen and has a host of friends in little Sullivan. He has served our people as County Commissioner and in several township offices and was always found at his post doing the bidding of his appointment. He made an excellent officer. Mr. Low and family have the best wishes of the REPUBLICAN.

When your father is 72 years of age you will refuse to let him do even the chores about the house and barn. Well that's the way the people feel of Hon. Chas. R. Buckalew. He has been our father in Congress and the deal only knows where for the past half century, and we want him to take the old arm chair during the remainder of his life and enjoy his old age. Think of it. Over three score years and ten and ask to represent this district in Congress. Why, it is absurd.

When a man has held office for ten years and received a salary of between forty and fifty thousand dollars, we think the people have done enough for that individual and should share the good things at their hands and give another tax payer a chance. Judge Sittser is a gentleman, but we think as the Tunkhannock Democrat did ten years ago of Judge Ingham, that he has had a good big pull out of the district and should be content. We have been informed that Judge Sittser compliments Mr. Dunham very highly, as being an able atty., hence according to his own convictions Mr. Dunham must be competent to do the Judges bench honor. We have naught to say of Judge Sittser. He has been a good friend of the REPUBLICAN, but we feel as many others do in this matter. He has had a good thing at the hands of the people—a salary that will keep himself and family a life time and should not ask the people to continue the gift. Of course the tax payers are considering this question and on the 6th of November they will have made up their mind and will cast their ballot accordingly.

Strey in the Hole That Was Dug For Us.

The REPUBLICAN has been persistent in the belief that Mr. Buckalew was not unanimously nominated in the Democratic Conference recently held at Danville. The Dushore Gazette has called us a liar in our statements and said that Mr. Buckalew had the unanimous vote of the Conference. We have gone to a little trouble in the matter and have secured the following affidavit which denounces Mr. Strey a rotten debauched liar of the lowest stamp. He evidently thought we could not secure the necessary papers to prove our assertion, hence could make it appear to the public that we were making false statements in the matter, when we were sincere and only repeated, as we stated in our columns, that which came to us by mail. Strey occupies the hole that was dug for us, and we are more than glad to place him there, too.

HERE IS THE AFFIDAVIT.

STATE OF PENNSYLVANIA, } SS. COUNTY OF NORTHUMBERLAND. } T. J. SILVIUS, being duly sworn according to law, doth depose and say, that J. H. McDevitt, who was one of the Congressional Conferees in the conference that nominated Hon. C. R. Buckalew for Congress in the 17th Congressional District, stated to him, the said T. J. SILVIUS, on the eighth day of October, 1894, and at a previous time, that the nomination of Hon. C. R. Buckalew was not made unanimous in said Congressional Conference, and that he, the said J. H. McDevitt, voted against making said nomination unanimous.

Sworn and subscribed before me this 9th, T. J. SILVIUS, day of Oct. A. D. '94 J. SIMPSON KLINE, Notary Public.

The Forksville fair held last week was a success. The attendance on Friday was estimated at two thousand people. The Log Cabin was erected as advertised and we must say that it compares favorably with the other buildings on the ground. The Main building is a small concern and would hardly make a ticket office for some county fairs. The exhibits in this building were all in mass, and the articles did not show off to a good advantage owing to the clutter.

Judge Ingham gave a historical address of Sullivan county, on Friday at 2 p. m. and was listened to by a large concourse of people. The Judge occupied a stand erected for the occasion in front of the Old Log Cabin; with this over the excitement of the day was at hand. The lady contest of hitching up horses and driving around the ring. Miss Emily Pomeroy of Dushore and Mrs. Austin Brown of Shunk, were the contestants. The Judges evened up their horses, but it was some little time before the ladies could commence the contest owing to the crowd of people on the track. The big burly policemen of Elmira who were there to do the police work, were called upon to force the gathering back, but they proved useless and the track was not cleared until some of our home people took it upon themselves to force the anxious and excited gathering back and out of the way. Then one of the Judges counted three and the ladies with harness on their arms proceeded to their steeds and camly, but quickly buckled up the straps. Miss Emily won and a cheer went up that shook the earth. Mrs. Brown drove A. Kilmer's horse and Miss Emily D. Waddell's. With this to a close, it was getting late, and we started homeward bound.

The voters take to Farmer Kulp. Well, how can they help it. Farmer is a gentleman and a genial good fellow and always makes it pleasant for those about him regardless of their political complexion. We think he is one of the finest and brightest young men that ever came into our county and you will think so too, when you have met him. Farmer will be here next week and make a canvass of our county. When he comes to your house take him by the hand and talk to him as you would an old friend just returning from the battle field. No fogtysm or flys on Farmer Kulp.

Now that the season for lighting up the usual number of stoves for the winter is fast approaching, every household should give the dues a critical inspection and have them put in perfect condition before putting up their stoves. To neglect this precaution might result in a costly conflagration.

A number of our people are in attendance at the Bloom fair, this week.

For Sale. My well known family driving and riding horse "Bill," perfectly sound and gentle, single or double; can be handled, driven or ridden by a lady. Also, Top Buggy with pole and shafts complete; "Birdley" Cart; Syracuse Cutter; Buggy harness, Cart harness, Lamps, Whip, Blankets &c. Will sell altogether, or separately to suit purchaser. Everything in good and serviceable condition. Having no further use for above, being my reason of disposing of same, so no reasonable offer refused. Call on or write to M. T. Downs, Laporte, Pa.

EDWIN M. DUNHAM.

Edwin M. Dunham, the Republican candidate for President Judge of the 44th Judicial District, was born in Windham, Bradford county, August 31, 1844. He was the youngest son of John L. and Laura M. Dunham. His father was a farmer whose family formerly lived in Connecticut. His mothers maiden name was Laura M. Cheney, descending from the well known Vermont family of that name.

In July, 1856, John L. Dunham removed with his family to Laporte, Sullivan county, and was engaged in the lumber business until August, 1861, when he was accidentally drowned in attempting to start a jam of logs, which were so dangerously placed that Mr. Dunham preferred at attempting the perilous work himself rather than call upon those engaged with him to undertake it. Edwin M. attended country school at Windham and Laporte, and at the latter place enjoyed the advantages of four years in the high school under Rev. Hallock Armstrong, who then resided at Laporte.

After finishing his course at this school Edwin was employed as a school teacher, at first in Sullivan county and afterwards in Towanda, where he was principal of the graded school. From there he undertook a similar work in Orange county, N. Y. In the meantime he had registered as a law student in the office of Judge Ingham at Laporte, and pursued his legal studies during his vacations and at such times as his duties permitted while engaged as a teacher.

In his 22d year of age, May, 1866, Mr. Dunham was admitted to the bar in Sullivan county and entered into partnership with Judge Ingham continuing in this partnership until 1873, when Mr. Ingham went upon the bench. Since 1866 Mr. Dunham has been continuously and actively engaged in the practice of his profession for many years has been the leader of his bar. He has been engaged on every important case tried in the county, in which he has been markedly successful. His first case in the Supreme Court was the well known case of King vs Forks township, in which a reversal of the distinguished jurist, Judge Elwell, was secured, Mr Dunham alone representing the appealing litigant. Since the trial of that case Mr. Dunham has had a continued practice in the higher court of the State, and is known as one of the ablest and most successful lawyers at that bar from his section of the State.

Mr. Dunham has been emphatically a busy lawyer, and has devoted his time to his profession almost to the exclusion of politics. He is, however, and has always been, a consistent believer in the principles of the Republican party, and has often publicly advocated his principles. On various occasions he has been called upon to stand as the candidate of his party, and has several times filled elective offices in a county which is more than two-thirds Democratic. He was elected District Attorney in 1870, and to the Legislature in 1873. In 1882 and again in 1886 he was the choice of his county for Congress, failing of nomination in the district conference. In 1886 he lacked but one vote of the nomination.

The family of John L. Dunham consisted of three sons, Henry R., Benjamin M. and Edwin M. When the war broke out the two oldest boys enlisted in the volunteer service. Henry R. as a first lieutenant and Benjamin as a private in Co. K. 141st Regiment. Henry came out of the army as a captain, but with broken health, and died in Kansas a few years later. Benjamin was killed at the battle of Chancellorsville, Va. Too young to enter the army, Edwin remained at home with his widowed mother, who lived with him until her death last year. In 1872 Mr. Dunham was married to Miss Hannah M. Crocker, a niece of the late Michael Meylert. Several children were born to this union, but one surviving, an invalid and much loved daughter, Miss Ellen.

Mr. Dunham is an excellent example of sturdy American manhood. He has a fine physique, regular features, and a dignified presence, and although now past fifty years of age, one could easily mistake him for forty. His twenty-eight years of arduous legal work have left him with an easy and kindly disposition, companionable manners, and a frank and merry laugh. While his situation has been such that he could never hoard money, yet he has always enjoyed a moderate competence and has freely shared with public enterprises and charities. Though not actively connected with any particular religious denomination he has, in accord with his means, always been a supporter of and contributor to Christian churches. His habits are temperate in all things, and in all his life no one can truthfully point to a dishonorable or shady action. As a lawyer Mr. Dunham has been engaged in a general practice covering all the cases which can arise in an interior district. This practice covers criminal and common law cases, and proceedings in equity and the Orphans Court. Mr. Dunham is a hard worker with a quick and discerning mind, and in the trial of cases is noted for his careful preparation, his quickness to seize upon the weak spot in the other side, and for his logical and analytical arguments. If he should be chosen as Judge of this district he will be found to be an absolutely fair man, prompt in the discharge of his duty, prompt in the dispatch of business, unswayed by political or partisan motives, free from dangerous affiliations with corporations, kind yet just with unfortunates, with a full understanding of the law and the willingness and ability to execute it.
