BLAINE'S PROPHECY.
The Prediction that Great Statesman Made Eight Years Ago and Its Remarkable Fulfillment.

Mr. Blaine was not only a brilliant and a forceful man, he had at times the gift of prophecy. Seven years ago, just after the delivery of Mr. Cleveland's famous tariff reform message, and while Mr. Mills, in his capacity as chairman of the committee of Ways and Means, was formulating the tariff bill of 1888, Mr. Blaine addressed a vast assemblage in Boston, apropos of what was then as it is now, the palpitating question of the hour. In the course of his remarks he said:

I love my country and my countrymen. I am an American and rejoice every day of my life that I am. I enjoy the general prosperity of my country and know that the workingmen of this land are the best fed and clothed of any laborers on the face of the earth. Many of them have homes of their own. They are surrounded by all the comforts and many of the luxuries of life. I shudder, however, at the thought that the time must come when all this will be changed, when the general prosperity of the country will be destroyed, when the great body of workingmen in this land who are now so prosperous will hear their wives and children cry for bread. That day must come when the great factories and manufactories of this land will shut down, and there will be the silence of the tomb. And the reason why it must be so is this: The great Southern wing of the Democratic party are determined to establish the doctrine of free trade in this land. They will be assisted by their northern allies. The fight is now on. There is a great body of visionary but educated men who are employed day by day in writing free trade essays and arguments in favor of that doctrine, which find their way into every Democratic newspaper in the land. The great body of our people have never experienced, themselves, the sufferings which always result when the protective principles are laid aside. Poisoned and excited by the wild statements of these writers and the demagogic appeals of Democratic speakers, the result will be that, in the very near future, these forces which are now working will be strong enough to defeat at the polls the party advocating the doctrine of protection. It must inevitably follow that uncertainty and doubt will ensue. The business men of the country, fearing the restriction, will decline to engage in business; consequently mills will shut down and the workingmen will be thrown out of employment. The people will then see, as we have never seen before, that they cannot be prosperous and have work while this principle is threatened. In the midst of this suffering they will learn that the only way that they can be prosperous and happy is to vote for the party that will build up the industries by which they have gained a livelihood—because they can see clearly that when a manufactory is shut down there is no demand for the thing which they have to sell, and that is their labor.

The picture drawn by Mr. Blaine in 1887, and accepted then as a mere burst of eloquence and a trick of metaphor, is now before us, a stern and chill reality. If he were alive today he could not draw it with a firmer hand in truer lines or with more startling color.

The Official Ballot.
HARRISBURG, Oct. 16.—In response to many inquiries the Deputy Secretary of the Commonwealth issued a circular letter to night regarding the probable size of the official ballot at the November election. He says the state tickets have been filed in certificates of nomination and by nomination papers the by Republican, Democratic, Prohibition, Peoples, Socialist-Labor and Independent Republican parties; making a ballot of seven columns, including one blank column required by law. He adds that the State Department will certify all candidates to County Commissioners and Sheriff soon as practicable. He closes as follows:

"The size of the certificates, which will be sent from this office to the County Commissioners and Sheriff, will be about 24 by 24 inches, except for the counties of Centre, Clearfield, Clinton, Dauphin, Delaware, Erie, Luzerne, Monroe, Potter and Philadelphia, for which counties nominations have been made by nomination papers representing parties not mentioned above."

A LICENSE DECISION.
A Case That Will Upset the General Practice.

A license case from this county has been decided by the Supreme Court that will make a great difference in the license courts all over the State, and is of great importance. December 16th, 1893, Bartley Kelmiski applied through his attorneys Lewis Dewart and Voris Auten, for a retail license in the Fourth ward of Mt. Carmel. The application was in due form and bond good. December 28th he files a supplementary petition, signed by eighty-five electors of Mt. Carmel, asking that his license be granted. January 29th the court refused the license. Some years ago the Supreme Court ruled that all the power to grant or refuse a license was centered in the lower courts. Since that time they have decided in Johnson's Appeal that the courts have no power to refuse a wholesale license where the application was properly made and there was no remonstrance. Exceptions were taken to Judge Savidge's ruling in this case and a paper book was printed at this office, and the case argued last May in the Supreme Court by Messrs. Dewart and Auten. The argument in their paper book stated their case as follows in the introduction:

The question involved in this case is whether or not the Supreme Court will reverse the action of the court below in refusing without reason, a retail liquor license, when the applicant has fully complied with all the requirements of the Act of Assembly. In other words, here is the appellant who came into court with a proper petition and bond, and a supplemental petition bearing the names of eighty-five citizens of his town, asking that he be granted a license. There was no remonstrance and no evidence against him. Now can the lower court arbitrarily say "refused" as it was in this case? The Judges all over the State seems to have taken the position that the retail license question is entirely a discretionary matter, and it must be admitted that they have some cause for this on account of the former decisions of this court, but since Johnson's appeal, judges and members of the bar are at sea, and we are here seeking a fuller explanation of the law, because our client desires a license, and with the hope that this court will let us know where we are at by an opinion that will not only settle this contention, but all others of a like character.

The Court has sustained the appeal and Mr. Kelmiski can have his license whenever he desires it by paying for it. Of course this case will be the criterion in future cases, and all licenses will in the future have to be granted by the court of the different counties where the applications are in proper form and there are no remonstrances. Up to this time the Judges took the matter entirely in their own hands and granted or refused a license as they saw proper—Item.

Of Interest to Pensioners.
General Mulholland, the U. S. Pension Agent at Philadelphia, calls attention to the Act of Congress, approved August 23, 1894, requiring fourth-class postmasters to administer oaths to pensioners and their witnesses to pension vouchers. This will be a great convenience to thousands of pensioners throughout the country, as, in many cases, they are obliged to travel several miles to reach a Justice of the Peace.
The Act reads as follows:
"That hereafter, in addition to the officers now authorized to administer oaths in such cases fourth class postmasters of the United States are hereby required, empowered, and authorized to administer any and all oaths required to be made by pensioners and their witnesses in the execution of their vouchers, with like effect and force as if administered by a Justice of the Peace, and such postmasters shall affix the stamp of his office to his signature to such vouchers, and he is authorized to charge and receive for each voucher not exceeding twenty-five cents, to be paid by the pensioner."
The Act does not give authority to the assistants of such postmasters to execute vouchers. The stamp of office referred to, is held to be an impression of the postmarking stamp of the office.

Every mother should know that croup can be prevented. The first symptom of true croup is looseness. This is followed by a peculiar rough cough. If Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is given freely as soon as the child becomes hoarse or even after the cough has developed it will prevent the attack. 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by Dr. Hill, Laporte, Pa.
L. S. BURCH & CO.
Dushore, Pa.
Manufacturers of Flour, Feed, Meal and Lumber. This Firm has one of the largest Grist Mills in the county and they make a specialty of manufacturing cool flour and feed. Give them your order. Prices vary down to suit the times. Oct. 9/94
There is no medicine so often needed in every home and so admirably adapted to the purposes for which it was intended, as Chamberlain's Pain Balm. Hardly a day passes but some member of the family has need of it. A toothache or headache may be cured by it. A touch of rheumatism or neuralgia quieted. The severe pain of a burn or scald promptly relieved and the so-called "itch" much less time than when medicine has to be used. A sprain may be promptly treated before inflammation sets in, which insures a cure in about one-third of the time otherwise required. Cuts and bruises should receive immediate treatment before the parts become swollen which can only be done when the Pain Balm is kept at hand. A sore throat may be cured by it. It becomes so sore. A troublesome corn may be removed by applying it twice a day for a week or two. A lame back may be cured and several days of valuable time saved or a pain in the side or chest relieved, with paying a doctor bill. Procure a 50 cent bottle at once and you will never regret it. For sale by Dr. Hill, Laporte, Pa.

"Farmer" Kulp, the people's candidate for Congress, circulated among our people at the county fair on Saturday last. His pleasing style of meeting every body regardless of political complexion pleased our people amazingly, and his clear cut, business like manner of discussing the questions that affect the farming community as well as the laboring man seems to satisfy all those who are dissatisfied with the present destruction of business and the low price of farm products. Every man who thinks more of his pocket-book than he does of the old party principles will make a special effort to elect this champion of protection over his free trade rival.
