

THE REPUBLICAN.

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 19, 1894.

The N. Y. Weekly Tribune and Sullivan Republican for $1.25 One Year $1.25.

The leaves are falling fast. These are pretty cool days. Squirrel hunting is all the go.

Election only two weeks from next Tuesday.

There were a few sprinkles of snow in the air, Sunday.

There is but little said of politics in this section of the county.

The Danville fair is being held this week. "Farmer" Kulp is there.

Wm. Haupt, of Milton, is doing the stone steps for our new court house.

Born: To Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Chase, of Eagles Mere, on Oct. 12th a daughter.

Thos. Kohensparger shot a catamount along the Thorndale road, one day last week.

Mrs. Thomas Beahan of Laporte, was visiting friends in Susquehanna county, last week.

The W. C. T. A. will meet at the residence of Mrs. Wm. A. Mason, Thursday, Oct. 18th at 3 p. m.

The new court house at Troy, Bradford county, is nearly completed. Court will convene in the same on October 22d.

It is rumored that the Eagles Mere narrow gage railroad will be constructed into a standard gage, in the near future.

Mrs. Chas. Wrede and daughter, Miss Agnes, of Laporte, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Dr. Murrelle, of Athens, last week.

N. C. Maben moved his barber shop into the meat market building, on Centre Main street, Monday. Please note the change.

Messrs. Wm. Fulmer of lower Shrewsbury, and Richard Lison of Eagles Mere, were doing business at the county seat, Tuesday.

MARRIED: On Oct. 15th, 1894, by Robert Stormont, J. P. Harry W. Smith of Trivoli, Pa., and Miss Bertha A. Gower, of Davidson, Pa.

They say, that Henry and Milo Tripp will vote the Republican ticket this fall. The boys are to be congratulated upon their good judgment.

Mrs. J. P. Little of Nordmont, with her five little children, left for California, where she will join her husband, on Monday. She took the train at the Dushore station.

Chas. L. Wing is foreman of the REPUBLICAN office. Chas. has served an apprenticeship in a New York city job office and can do a first-class job. Send in your order. Satisfaction guaranteed.

There are two democratic tickets afloat in New York state. Wheeler heads one and Hill the other. It would appear that this dissatisfied in the democratic ranks will make republican success easy.

W. B. Ritter, our general station agent, and wife and little son, were visiting friends in New Columbia, Pa., last week. F. S. Eddy of Sonestown, looked after the business of the station during Mr. Ritter's absence.

The grand opening ball given by the Commercial Hotel, H. W. McKibbons proprietor, on Thursday evening last, was a grand success. There was a large attendance and all enjoyed a good time.

Jury Commissioners, Geo. W. Simmons and C. Caseman, assisted by Sheriff Mahaffey and their clerk, Robt. Stormont, drew the jury for December term, on Monday. We give it elsewhere in this issue of the REPUBLICAN.

Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Chase, proprietors of Fairview Cottage, on Cherry street, will give a pretty little party on the evening of Thanksgiving, to which our townspeople and friends of a distance, are cordially invited. An oyster supper with all the delicacies of the season will be served.

Playing card manufacturers have increased the number of cards in a deck to fifty-four, in order to escape paying revenue, as must be done on decks of fifty-two cards, but Uncle Sam is not so easily hood-winked as that. Instructions have been issued providing that any number of cards above fifty-two placed in a deck must go in as another deck, for which an additional two cents must be paid.

Vote for C. E. Geyer for Senator.

Vote for Hon. E. M. Dunham for President Judge.

Ex-Representative Tewksbury's reference to Hon. C. R. Buckalew as the "Hero of Fishingcreek" seems to have been most uncomfortable for Mr. Buckalew.

A Democratic mass meeting will be held at Dushore, on Saturday afternoon, Oct. 20th. The meeting will take place during the afternoon and the Hon. C. R. Buckalew will be the principal orator.

Vote for Z. T. Kilmer for Jury Commissioner.

Ohio wool which sold at one time for 34 1/2 cents a pound under the McKinley act now brings only 17 1/2 cents, a decline of 50 per cent. That is the way tariff reform increases the price of the farmers' wool.

Vote for Monroe H. Kulp for Congress.

President Cleveland said in one of his messages that reduced duty on foreign product, or free trade, would cause lower wages in this country. The truth of his declaration is being carried out all along the line.

Who threatens that the tariff disturbance is to be continued at the expense of business? Cleveland and Wilson.

What must we do to stop it? Elect Republican Congressmen.

The REPUBLICAN will not make any great adieu by displaying roosters and the like, should the Republican county ticket be successful. We will thank the Democrats for their kind assistance.

Vote for Hon. E. M. Dunham for President Judge.

Our Light Street correspondent writes us that the effort of a democratic mass (?) meeting in that town on Monday evening resulted in calling out fourteen Republicans and nine Democrats.—Bloomsburg Rep.

Vote for B. W. Jennings for Assembly.

In this district a vote for Monroe H. Kulp will be a vote against one of the most able and distinguished advocates and exponents of President Cleveland's policy of surrendering the American markets to the foreign manufacturer.

Vote for B. W. Jennings for Assembly.

Hoke Smith intended to have notices sent to fifty thousand old soldiers asking them to show cause why they should not be dropped from the pension rolls, but the Democratic Congressional Committee hearing of the movement frantically begged him to desist until after the election. When the election is over the lopping off of pensions will begin.

Vote for Monroe H. Kulp for Congress.

A large number of our farmers have a good big supply of wool on hand, but refuse to sell it for the price offered for the same per pound. Wonder if these farmers will vote for Mr. Buckalew, who advocates free wool, for Congressman? It would be a suicidal act. No, our people will vote for Monroe H. Kulp who will, in Congress, vote to restore the duty on wool and give our farmers a chance.

A class of eight, composed of the following: Misses Maurice, Schrier and VanDemark, Mr. and Mrs. Chrispell, Mr. J. Harlan Murrelle, and Master Seacord, of Athens, and Miss Wrede of Laporte, was presented to Bishop Rulison for confirmation at Trinity church Athens, Saturday afternoon. The reverend gentleman delivered a forcible address at the close of the service.—Waverly Democrat.

Centennial Celebration.

The centennial celebration of the Pennsylvania Sabbath Law of 1794, will be held in Pine street M. E. church, Williamsport, on October 30 and 31, 1894.

Let a meeting be held in every church and school house throughout the state. Let speeches in defence of the Sabbath be made and delegates appointed to attend the celebration and their expenses provided for, and let us once more rally on the "Little Round Top" of the Sabbath and save the Gettysburg of civil and religious liberty against the rebel hosts of the "Sunday Train," the "Sunday Excursion," the "Sunday Shop," the "Sunday Saloon," and their ally the "Sunday Newspaper!"

All requests for excursion tickets to be presented at your home ticket office, when you buy your ticket it must be addressed not later than October 25th to the undersigned. Mention the number desired and give address plainly.

J. H. LEIPER, Field Secretary, 164 Pine St., Williamsport, Pa.

The miners in the Shamokin Valley hold demonstrations almost daily in honor of "Farmer" Kulp the people's candidate for Congress. The boys over at Bernice are not making any great adieu over the election, but we have every reason to believe that they will give "Farmer" Kulp their support on election day and continue the duty on coal. Our boys realize the fact that should coal come in free, Superintendent Biight of the Bernice mines will reduce their wages on a level with the foreign scale of wages.

Pennsylvania Game Law.

Pennsylvania sportsmen frequently forget which is the open season for fish and game and lay themselves open to a penalty for hunting and fishing out of season. Below we give the open dates when sportsmen may legally indulge their tastes:

Woodcock, July 4 to January 1.

Upland or Grass Plover, July 15 to January 1.

Grey, black or fox squirrel, Sep. 1 to January 1.

Wild fowl (web footed), September 1 to May 1.

Rail or reed bird, September 1 to January 1.

Pheasant, October 1 to January 1.

Wild turkey, October 1 to Jan. 1.

Quail November 1 to December 1.

Deer, October 1 to December 1.

Rabbits, November 1 to January 1.

B book trout, April 15 to July 15.

In Its Thirteenth Year.

The Laporte Republican has just completed its twelfth year, and is one of the cleanest and best edited papers sent out from any town of the size of Sullivan's county seat. Brother Chery is to be congratulated upon the success of his enterprise.—Towanda Review.

Not in His Line.

A short time ago, says the Louisville Courier-Journal, a young lady was troubled with a boil on her knee which grew so bad that she thought it necessary to call in a physician. She had formed a dislike for the family physician, so her father suggested several others, and finally said that he would call in the physician with the homoeopathic case, who passed the house every day. They kept a sharp lookout for him, and when he came along he was called in. The young lady modestly showed him the disabled member. The little man looked at it and said: "Why that's pretty bad." "Well," she said, "what must I do?" "If I were you," he answered, "I would send for a physician. I am a pianotuner."

Our readers will notice elsewhere in the REPUBLICAN "A License Decision," by the Supreme Court. This case was carried to the higher courts by parties of Northumberland county and is proof beyond doubt that no matter who our President Judge is, or whether he be a temperance man or not, he must grant licenses to all applicants providing the person asking the same, has the required number of signers to his petition and the necessary bond. We call the attention of our readers to this decision of the Supreme Court in defence of Mr. Dunham our candidate for Judge, whom we all know to be a temperance man, but notwithstanding this, should he be elected, he must comply with the law and grant licenses when the necessary papers are presented the court.

A Pretty Wedding.

Married at the home of the bride's parents in Elkland, Oct. 9th, 1894. Mr. J. W. Tomkins to Miss A. G. Boyle; Rev. P. R. Pittman of Monroeton, Pa., officiating.

The above occasion was one of unusual interest and pleasure to the assembled friends. A large pyramid of evergreen was built in one corner of the room out of which shone varied colored geraniums, fuschias, and bridal daisies and festooned from the ceiling was a gorgeous wreath, and as the happy pair stood before this with their attendants, it looked like a depicted scene from "Fairyland." The ceremony over and congratulations offered, the company sat down to a beautiful repast, after doing ample justice to which the wedding party prepared to start for the train. They were made the recipients of many valuable presents, and as they stepped into the carriage a shower of rice fell thick and fast around them, and amid the shouts of laughter and ringing of wedding bells, they took their departure.

The bridal pair will spend some time visiting friends in Northern Pennsylvania and central New York and will arrive in Auburn, N. Y. by special invitation to attend the wedding of Hon. Fred C. Whipple to Miss E. C. Ridgeway, eldest daughter of Chief Engineer Ridgeway, and will visit various points of interest including Watkins Glen, Seward Park, Logan's monument, etc.

A Guest.

CONSIDER, MEN.

How Can You Vote Against Your Own Interests.

There are doubtless men in this district who prefer Chas. R. Buckalew as a congressman to Monroe H. Kulp, but who are they? Certainly not the soldiers who fought the fight to preserve the Union, while Buckalew was in hearty sympathy with the treason then abounding on every hand. Certainly not the working man who has had his wages reduced forty per cent. by the free trade lunacy of the men who forced the war on the north in which countless thousands were slain and maimed and thousands of millions of money spent, and with whom Chas. R. Buckalew to-day trains. Certainly not the farmers who have seen wheat go down in price never so cheap under Republican administrations, with the market at our doors thrown wide open for Canadian competition without a single restraint.

Certainly not the manufacturer who has been legislated against with a bitterness never heretofore equalled, by those, of whom Buckalew is one, who denominated them as "robber barons" and who have suffered the past two years only second to their workmen. Certainly not the lumbermen of Sullivan county, whose wealth consists entirely in the timber growth of our county and whose business will soon be destroyed because of the free admission of lumber. Certainly not the poor hill farmer who depended upon his wool clip for clothes for his children and who has recently witnessed a drop in the price of wool from 27 to 12 cents.

Certainly not the coal miner, when he reads that only by a lucky chance coal was excluded from the free list, and renewed effort to have it free will again be made should the next Congress be democratic. All these, and many others will certainly prefer an honest, hard working self made man like "Farmer Kulp" whose sympathies are with the laborer and whose ideas are strictly in keeping with the American plan of prosperity for this country and its people first and other countries and their people later, to a professional politician grown gray in office with nothing ever accomplished.

Only four out of twelve foreigners who presented themselves to the court of this county on Thursday night of last week as applicants of citizenship, passed the examination and were sworn. Judge Metzger examined them closely in regard to our country and customs, and as eight out of the twelve could not stand the examination they were refused their final papers. Judge Metzger has acted very wisely in matters of this kind and it is to be hoped that more judges throughout the state will follow his example.—Muncy Luminary.

Upwards of sixty years ago, when Judge Charles D. Eldred was a boy of sixteen, wolves still prowled about the settlements of Sullivan county—a territory that then yet constituted a part of the extensive back-woods of old Lycoming—seeking whatever they could kill and devour. One night a neighbor of the Eldred's had thirteen sheep slaughtered by these hungry pests of the canine tribe. Our now venerable Judge then with boyish eagerness set his trap in the path frequented by the prowlers, and covered it carefully with leaves and moss. When he went to secure the expected captive, his trap was gone. The tracks in the mud indicated that a large wolf had dragged it off, and the great quantity of loose hair and other signs showed that the animal had made a tremendous struggle for freedom. But neither wolf nor trap could be found, though several days were spent in the fruitless hunt.

Some years ago, and about forty-seven years after the young hunter had lost his trap, he—the Judge—made a visit to his old hunting grounds of Sullivan and enjoyed looking upon the scenes of his boy-dog exploits. Referring to the incident of his trapping the wolf and losing his trap, an old friend remarked that Mr. Toland, who now resides near the spot where it occurred, had found a trap on his place a few years ago. The diligent Judge at once went with his friend to Mr. Toland's place, and before seeing the trap gave that gentleman a minute description of it, stating how he had fastened the chain to the trap with copper wire, etc. Mr. Toland at once declared, "It's your trap, Judge," and cheerfully restored the long lost and valued relic to its original owner. It was found but a few hundred yards from where it had been set, and although exposed to the sunmers and winters of forty years it was as perfect as over. It has recently been added to the historical collections of Mr. J. M. M. Gerner, who values it as a relic and reminder of a time that but comparatively few now living are old enough to remember.—E.

To the farmer—Hon. C. R. Buckalew, favors free wool. A vote for him means a loss of dollars and cents to you. Elect Kulp and he will vote to restore the duty on wool and the good old prices of 28 and 32 cents per pound will come back. Here is an opportunity for you to favor your own pocket-book or the individual office seeker's. Which will it be?

SHERIFF'S SALE.—By virtue of a writ of Exec. Sale, Ex. Ret. issued out of the Court of Common Pleas of Sullivan county, and to me directed and delivered, there will be exposed to public sale at the Hotel Carroll, in Dushore, Sullivan Co. Pa., on
