

THE REPUBLICAN.

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 8, 1895.

The N. Y. Weekly Tribune and Sullivan Republican for $1.25 One Year $1.25.

The cuckoos, are visible in small as well as large towns.

A man with no independence in this world, is simply nobody.

Mrs. E. V. Ingham of Eagles Mere, is visiting friends in Philadelphia.

Wm. Warren's residence in Elkland twp., burned on Tuesday night. Loss, about $3,000. Insurance $7,000.

The man with a good opinion of himself, is most apt to appear flat in the eyes of his neighbor.

Judge Dunham the newly elected judge of the Sullivan and Wyoming district seems to give satisfaction. —Montour American.

A dwelling owned by the Jennings Bros., Lopez and occupied by one of their mill hands, burned on Sunday, January 27th. No insurance.

Miss Maud Crossley, of Laporte, took the 12 o'clock train, Monday, for Los Angeles, California. We wish Maud a safe journey and a pleasant visit.

Physicians are puzzled over the case of Anna Fraffon, Crabtree, near Greensburg, whose eyesight suddenly left her when she struck a match to light a lamp.

The man who refuses to keep his pavements free from snow and ice, thereby causing pedestrians to fall is responsible for the breaking of many New Year resolutions.

The school teachers of Benton, Columbia county, gave their pupils a sleigh ride the other evening. There were five sled loads of them, and they enjoyed a right royal good time.

The county commissioners and their clerk, started on their Triennial Appeal visit, around the county, Monday. The weather is pleasant which will be appreciated by our officials.

A young man down east hung himself because the people found fault with him. If the practice should become general the trees would be full of preachers, school teachers, doctors, lawyers and editors.

We are informed that the road commissioners of Forks twp., have extended the contract for the completion of the new road down Loyalsock, to June 1st, 1895. This thoroughfare will be appreciated when completed.

Miss Alma Lauer of Laporte, who has been visiting friends in Philadelphia for the past few weeks, returned home on Friday. Mrs. Barrows who accompanied her to the city, is spending a fortnight with friends in Washington, D. C.

Senator Camden, of West Virginia says that the Lords' Prayer could not pass the United States Senate without amendment. So far as the Democrats in the Senate are concerned it could pass without any one of the members recognizing it.

Saturday Feb. 2, was ground hog day and the sun shone bright during the middle of the day. This, so the old residents say, is a sure indication of six weeks continuous cold weather. A good many people do not take any stock in this saying, and we are one of them.

Mr. John F. Maginnis, the veteran newspaper editor and historian of the West Branch valley, is preparing a condensed history of Lycoming county in connection with the proposed centennial celebration of the hundredth anniversary of the county.

Two handsome ladies were with several others having an animated conversation, when one exclaimed: "I have now twenty-eight children!" "Oh, that's nothing. I expect to have forty-five myself next week!" A gentleman passing, turned astonished, but recognized them as school teachers, all was explained. This did not happen in Laporte.

A Union caucus of the voters of Laporte boro., was held in the court room on a Saturday evening and the following ticket was placed in nomination, viz: Judge of Election—A. E. Tripp; Inspector—A. J. Hackley; Council—F. W. Gallagher, and J. W. Ballard; School Directors—W. B. Hill and A. J. Jordan; Assessor—A. H. Buschhausen; Overseers—W. D. Finkle and Michael Flynn; High Constable—Lewis Mahaffey; Treasurer—Walter Spencer; Auditor—W. J. Higley, Justice of the Peace—Robt. Stormont.

The Wyoming Democrat took exception to what we said in our issue of January 25th regarding complaints made by Mr. Day relative to the change of court crier and tipstaves of said county, by Judge Dunham and his associates. Mr. Day is apt to take exceptions at most anything that reflects upon his politics and we do not blame him for this, either. If we were of his belief regarding the pensioning of Union soldiers, free trade and the ruining of industries and labor in this country, we should awfully dislike to have it, even whispered in public. The Democrat says we are black with Republicanism—a credit to us, and all who have read the doings of this administration and the pugilistic encounters in the House of Congress will agree with us. Brother Day says: "We did not know before that the spoils system was enforced in our courts of justice." Had Mr. Day been a resident of Sullivan county for the past few years he could not have truthfully made this assertion. The court crier here is John K. Farrell, a solid Democrat and the tipstaves are—Lawrence Lowry and Peter Hopper, both Democrats, and our Republicans did not complain of these appointments, either. They felt that they were all right and that the friends of the party in power should be first served. It is now our turn to be served first in Wyoming county and we glory in the change and appreciate the good material in the associate judges of Wyoming county. Mr. Day says that one of the three men removed was a Republican. What right has he to complain of this removal? Had he been of service to the Democrat? He speaks of the other two as cripples and does not refer to their politics, hence we infer that they were Democrats. Well, we have cripples in the Republican party, in fact nearly all of the old soldiers who returned home from the army with a leg, arm or some other member of his body amputated by bullets, are Republicans. They don't vote the ticket that the Johnny Rebs do. Mr. Day concludes thus, which is a fair example of the points made in his quarter column article. Here it is: "Besides the partisan malice in the foregoing paragraph, there is scarcely a particle of truth in it. If the readers of the Democrat for thirteen years, will find any advocacy of secession doctrine in its columns while under its present management we will make him a donation of a hundred dollars; or we will wage five hundred dollars with him that he cannot find it. Now put up or shut up."

Is the man crazy? Ask a Sullivan county editor to put up five hundred dollars. The Republican Congressional Conference, held in Tunkhannock last week nominated James H. Codding of Bradford county, for the long term—54 Congress, and E. J. Jorden, of Wyoming county, for the short term—53 Congress, which expires on the 4th of next March. Mr. Jorden will have just eleven days to serve after the election on the 19th inst.—Wyoming Dem.

To Attract Fishermen. The Lehigh Valley intends stocking all of the trout streams of Bradford, Sullivan and Wyoming counties, of which there are many, also all streams emptying into the Susquehanna, with black bass and other fish. This will attract sportsmen from the larger cities and will in this way benefit the Lehigh.

Public Notice. The County Commissioners of Sullivan county will hold a General Triennial Appeal in the court house at Laporte, on March 11th, 12th and 13th, for the purpose of hearing those who feel aggrieved by their revised valuations. And also for those who desire to appeal from revised valuations of unseated lands. This appeal does not conflict with the local appeals in the respective townships and boroughs, which the Commissioners are now holding for convenience of parties interested in such localities.

JNO. H. FARRELL, }
JNO. J. WEBSTER, } Com.
GABRIEL LITZELMAN. }
Attest: JNO. E. GALLAGHER, Clerk.

In New Jersey a dog can ride on railroad passenger trains if he has the money. A Great Dane living in Plainfield, has an assured income from the estate of his late master, and once a week in summer time he goes to visit the children in the country near Elizabeth. He walks to the ticket office, puts his paw on the name of the town and dropping his money, barks for a ticket. Sometimes when he has spent most of his weekly allowance in tidbits at the butcher's, he buys a ticket for only part of the way and walks the rest.

The County Statement published elsewhere in the REPUBLICAN, presents a very favorable showing for our Board of Commissioners. The reader will notice that in the columns of the "financial condition of Sullivan county for the year ending Dec. 31, 1894," that the resources in excess of liabilities is $1,945.71. 'Tis true however, that the ex-board of commissioners made a payment to Lawrence Bros. of $1,000 and to Wagner & Reitmeyer $732.00, as you will notice in the column headed, "new court house and jail-statement" showing total cost of same to Dec. 31, '94," making a total of $1,732.00. This of course reduced the resources of the county for the year 1894 the total amount of these two items. The statement in speaking of "new county bridges," referring to the World's End bridge says: "Paid Horseheads Bridge Co. last payment on contract, (should have been paid in 1893.)" The statement enclosed in parenthesis is not correct, in as much as the bridge was not completed at the expiration of the term of the old board of commissioners, hence, how could they consistently make the last payment? Were they to pay for a cat in the bag? The present board of commissioners examined the structure and approved of the same. We think this statement on the part of the auditors, unjust to the ex-board of commissioners. Auditors should not be led in these little statements. They should learn the correctness of them before inserting them in their report, as every letter and figure placed therein by these officials are looked upon as correct in every detail.

The bonded indebtedness of the county is $33,000.00. The court house cost $24,400.00 and the architect 5 per cent of the total cost of building making $1,220. plus the cost of court house is $25,620. hence this leaves a balance of $7,380.00 which is the difference between the bonded indebtedness of the county and the total cost of the court house.

The showing of the several accounts of A. L. Smith, county treasurer, with the county and townships, will be most satisfactory to the taxpayers as you will notice that each column balances to a figure. There is a balance of $5,743.26 in his hands. All can rest assured that this will be forthcoming, if not judicially expended in the purchasing of county orders, at the expiration of his term.

Lycoming county is making arrangements to celebrate its centennial at Williamsport on the 2nd, 3rd and 4th of July next. As Sullivan county was clipped from Lycoming our people will take more than ordinary interest in this centennial and it is presumed that a large number of our people will attend the celebration.

Our readers will find in this issue of the REPUBLICAN, a list of applicants applying for license at this term of court. There are four new applicants in the list, viz: William Collins, Cherry; Warren N. and C. B. Pennington, Muncy Valley; J. H. Stackhouse, Shrewsbury; and C. E. Jackson, Cherry. There are a large number of people in the county who advocate that all who ask for license should receive it, providing the applicant is a suitable man and his petition properly signed and his bondsman good. In our mind there should be exceptions. For instance were you engaged in the lumber business or any other business, having in your employ a large force of men; would it be right for the court to grant you a license? Would it not be a temptation to the men in your employ to indulge more in drink than they otherwise would if they were to open their pocket book on each occasion? We think yes; and for this reason we are sincere in our belief that no man in business, employing a force of men should be granted a license by any court.

The new Catholic church at this place, was completed last week, and is a very pretty edifice. As yet, the altar has not been placed. This piece of furniture will be purchased at a distance and will, no doubt, compare favorably with the architect and construction of the church. Laporte now boasts of having the prettiest church in the county, admitting however, that there are more costly ones. The Dushore Catholic church cost more money than did the Laporte. We also concede the fact that the Eagles Mere Episcopalian, was more expensive, but they can't compare in beauty with the Laporte church. Fr. Enright's eye in the way of architecture, was superior to the other "fellows."

The Y. W. C. T. U. will meet at the home of Miss Fannie Meylert, Friday evening, February 8. All are cordially invited to attend.

Said to Be A Fake. A number in Laporte and vicinity have recently received letters in regard to a certain medical institute offering to treat one, Edna R. Brown a cripple of Kanesville, Ill., if she could procure a million cancelled stamps. Those who receive the letters are requested to write once to each of three friends and they are to do the same and so on, thus forming a "chain," each letter to be sent to the girl at Kanesville, Ill., with ten cancelled stamps. The "chain" has extended over a large territory and it is said that the girl has received over 3,000,000 already and the post office at Kanesville is being flooded day after day with letters, some containing sheets of stamps with an ink line drawn across them. Some newspapers denounce the thing as a fake. The postmaster at Kanesville says that no medical institute has offered to treat the girl, but it is simply a scheme to procure stamps to make designs, which is now a great deal all over the country.

The teachers of Laporte borough, Laporte township, Davidson and Shrewsbury hold a local institute at Sonestown this (Friday) evening and Saturday. Supt. Becht of Lycoming county is expected to lecture at the evening session. A full attendance of teachers is expected.

A little son of John Innes' of Laporte, aged about 9 years, met with a very sad accident on Wednesday afternoon. He was playing with a dynamite cap and was holding it on a heated stove, when it exploded, severing three of his fingers at the first joint. Fortunately the members are taken from his left hand.

Thinking Aloud. Talking to one's self is generally considered a sign of a weak brain, said a medical authority recently, but nothing could be a greater mistake. It is a sign of an extremely active brain. It may be a strong or a weak intellect, but the activity must be there to cause this peculiarity. If you will observe you will be astonished how many people you will meet on the street who are thinking aloud. The talking is done unconsciously. Often the people addicted to the habit, if you call their attention to it, would aver that they never were guilty of such a thing. Some of the brightest men I have ever known do their thinking aloud without knowing it, and on the other hand, some of the weakest individuals, mentally, whom I have met in my practice keep up a continuous conversation with themselves. So it would seem that a man who talks to himself must be one of two extremes, a wise man or a fool.—Ez.
