The funeral of Mrs. E. M. Dunham, on Friday last, was very largely attended. Nearly every precinct in the county, was represented by friends of the deceased.

Rev. Hallock Armstrong of Tioga county, formerly of Laporte, held services in the M. E. Church on Sunday. The Reverend has hosts of friends and old acquaintances in Sullivan county.

Hon. Russel Karns and wife, and F. M. Crossley and wife of Laporte, Sunday with friends in Benton, Columbia county. They went down in first class style. They drove J. W. Flynn's fancy turn out.

A little item in a newspaper or a little political act of the editor, will some times make an enemy to a paper for life, but it won't stop him from reading it. It merely changes him from a subscriber to a borrower.

Messrs. C. H. Jennings and Frank Kellogg of Lopez, Atty. J. H. Cronin, L. B. Wells and James Arey of Dushore, Mrs. P. E. Magargle of Sonestown, M. L. King, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Robbins Mr. and Mrs. Speary of Nordmont, were present at the funeral of Mrs. Dunham, Friday.

The printer is subject to more ups and downs than any other trade in the world, at least this has been our experience. Last week before going to press we attempted to warm one of our large rollers, and carelessly left it by the stove while we went to look after something else, when we returned, we found the roller roasted and spoiled. It was this fact that caused a few of our papers to be very poorly printed, last week.

IN MEMORIAM.

Mrs. Edward M. Dunham. Last week it was our sad duty to chronicle the death of Mrs. E. M. Dunham, wife of Judge Dunham, of Laporte. Mrs. Dunham has been a great sufferer for years and it was in hopes of speedy and permanent relief that she left Philadelphia about two weeks ago to submit to a surgical operation. She was accompanied by her husband who remained at her bedside till the end. The operation was performed on Monday the 11th inst., and notwithstanding the efforts of the most skillful medical aid, death followed in a few hours.

Mrs. Dunham's maiden name was Hannah M. Crocker. She was born in Montrose, Susquehanna county, Sept. 25th, 1847, and was a daughter of Daniel and Zephia Finch Crocker. Her early years were spent in Montrose, Lanesboro, and Deposit, N. Y. In 1871 she came to Laporte where she engaged in teaching. On June 19th 1872 she was united in marriage with Edwin M. Dunham. To them four children have been born only one of whom, Ellen L., is now living.

The telegram received at Laporte announcing her death produced a profound sensation and a sense of sorrow filled every heart. For several years her impaired health and the care of an invalid daughter have kept her closely confined to her home. Her devotion to her family was supreme. As wife, mother, and sister her constant thought was the comfort and happiness of those about her. In her home she will be sadly missed. Her greatest thought in seeking relief and restoration to health was that her life might be spared to her family. She was ever ready to render aid and assistance to those in need. Her help was never withheld from any good cause. She was a consistent member of the Presbyterian church and as long as health permitted was active in all religious work.

Besides a husband and daughter, Mrs. Dunham leaves two sisters, a brother and other relatives to mourn her loss. In their sad affliction they have the heartfelt sympathy of a large circle of friends.

The funeral was held on Friday, February 15th, and was very largely attended. Rev. Hallock Armstrong a former pastor at Laporte, preached a very impressive sermon. A large concourse of sorrowing friends followed the remains to their last resting place in Mountain Ash cemetery.

Mr. Henry Kohensparger, proprietor of the Eagle Hotel, about one mile from town, on the Sonestown road, will entertain court guests next week for the small sum of 50c a day. The table at the Eagle is always spread with the best. The deduction in price is given owing to the distance from town.

The person who made out the Union caucus papers for Cherry twp. failed to insert the name of Roland Martin on the same for Road Commissioner. This is an important office in Cherry twp., and Mr. Martin's friends were very much put out about it.

As we observed Auditor Grim going down the street Wednesday morning, it occurred to us that he was in the same position that our old friend Mr. Gouge was some time ago, when he wired his friends in Muncy Valley that, "I am elected auditor and every ding is loby."

Max Hirz, who was arrested by Constable Dyer, of Lopez, in Williamsport last week, for larceny, reposes in the Sullivan county jail. He is the first prisoner confined in the new cells. It is more than likely that he will be sentenced to Cherry Hill by our court next week.

Walter Spencer & Son, merchants of Laporte, made an assignment on Monday, and appointed E. A. Tripp of Laporte, receiver. Mr. Spencer is of the opinion, however, that he has sufficient resources to meet his liabilities and that each creditor will receive one hundred cents on the dollar.

The Denslow heaters are to be manufactured hereafter by the Throop Novelty Manufacturing Co. a corporation organized at Scranton. Geo. C. Jackson, formerly of Dushore, is interested in the new company.

There were 96 votes polled in the borough of Laporte, Tuesday. This is one of the largest votes ever polled in the borough.

The borough Democratic ticket, was elected by majorities ranging from 1 vote upwards, on Tuesday.

W. H. Allen of Leraysville, was visiting with friends in Laporte over Sunday.

Election passed off very quietly at Laporte. All was harmony.

And the next day the sun shown bright.

There wasn't much politics in it. The tickets were cut and slashed in every direction.

BLANCHE REEDE, Teacher. Pound Party at the M. E. Parsonage.

There will be a pound party at the M. E. parsonage, Friday evening. Everybody is cordially invited to be present and bring at least one pound of anything they may select. Let all take part in this act of benevolence, and make the pastor and family happy by giving them a generous pound.

States of the Commercial Hotel. My rates are $1.00 a day. Every body served alike at my house, no extras. I have recently remodelled the Commercial and made it convenient. My bar is the finest in the town and we sell the very best cigars manufactured. In fact the Commercial is the only hotel on earth.

H. W. McKIMMINS, Prop'r. Charles F. Warwick Wins Hands Down.

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 19.—Philadelphia to-day maintained its reputation for stalwart Republicanism and elected the candidates of the Republican party by a majority of from 45,000 to 55,000. The election to-day was for Mayor, Receiver of Taxes, Councilmen, Police Magistrates and School Directors. The Republicans made a clean sweep and elected their candidates for Mayor and Receiver of Taxes by a greater majority than ever given to similar officers upon local issues. The candidates of the Republican party for Mayor and Receiver of Taxes, were City Collector Charles F. Warwick and William J. Roney, respectively. Ex-Governor Robert E. Pattison and Colonel Sylvester Bonaffon, jr., were the candidates of the Democratic party for the same offices.

Farmers' Institute. Reported for the REPUBLICAN.

The fourth annual Farmers' Institute convened in the M. E. church at Forksville on Tuesday, February 12th at 2 o'clock. D. T. Huckell, resident member of state board presiding. Ulysses Bird elected secretary. The attendance was large and interest great throughout each session. The instructors present were Abner Fague, Picture Rocks, Leycoming county; J. A. Herr, Cedar Springs, Clinton county; M. S. Bond, Chulasky, Northumberland county and Dr. G. G. Groff, of Lewisburg Pa. J. A. Herr read a paper entitled "The Success of Farmers' Institutes" followed by remarks on this subject. The balance of the afternoon was spent by answering and discussing the many questions from the query box.

Tuesday evening session was opened by music. An article on tuberculosis was read by the chairman. Essay:—Farm Intercourse by J. A. Herr. Essay:—Rural Life, making Home Attractive, by Miss Sadie A. Huckell. These were all excellent papers and received the best of attention. The subject of teaching agriculture in the public schools was discussed by Prof. F. H. McGuire, J. A. Herr, M. R. Black, A. Fague and Rev. H. E. Hyde. Wednesday morning session was devoted to questions many of them very interesting. This was followed by an address by J. A. Herr, subject—The agricultural course at the state college. Followed by remarks on the education of farmers by chairman Huckell, M. R. Black and Rev. H. E. Hyde.

Afternoon session opened at 2 o'clock. The question box being again restored to with good result. The institute was then favored with an essay: Violation of Natures Laws by Abner Fague. Potato culture was fully explained by M. S. Bond, he having an experience of over seventeen years as an expert. Essay—Winter Feeding of Dairy Cows, by J. A. Herr.

The evening session was almost entirely devoted to the excellent address of Dr. G. G. Groff, on "The Germ Theory of Disease." This lecture was of great interest and profit to all who heard it. Adjourned.

The same instructors were taken to Dushore where the sessions were held in Geary's Hall, the first Wednesday afternoon. The evening session was taken up with Mr. Fague's essay and Dr. Groff's illustrated lecture on Diseased Germs. A session was also held Friday forenoon. The attendance at both institutes was large and interest the best. U. B.

Judge Dunham is holding argument court in Tunkhannock, to-day, Thursday.

The county commissioners have awarded the contract of placing the bars in the Prothonotary's, Treasurer's and Commissioners' offices in the new court house, to the Lawrence Bros., who expect to complete said contract this week. Each bar will extend across either office and will have a cashier's desk. This piece of furniture will be very convenient to the officers and will be appreciated by the general public.

James F. Haggerty of Schuylkill county, who was indicted and a true bill found before the grand jury at December term of court, for—"seduction under promise of marriage," was captured at Mauch Chunk on Monday, and now reposes in the Sullivan county jail. Guy Holland, the world renown detective of Towanda, arrested Haggerty and brought him to Laporte. Miss Anna Kennedy who brings the suit, has hosts of friends in the county who wish her justice in the matter.

Public Notice. The County Commissioners of Sullivan county will hold a General Triennial Appeal in the court house at Laporte, on March 11th, 12th and 13th, for the purpose of hearing those who feel aggrieved by their revised valuations. And also for those who desire to appeal from revised valuations of unseated lands. This appeal does not conflict with the local appeals in the respective townships and boroughs, which the Commissioners are now holding for convenience of parties interested in such localities.
