The big cut in price of clothing at Jacob Per's, Hughesville, Pa., will last until July 5, only. Come early and secure a bargain.

Remember that the big cut in prices at Jacob Per's, Hughesville Pa., closes on July 5.

The grand total of the deficit in the United States treasury, since the new tariff went into operation last August, is $56,000,000. When we compare this with the prosperity of this country under the McKinley tariff we are shocked at the showing of Democratic incapacity and stupidity.

Democratic politicians are finding fault with Senator Quay because the apportionment bills were killed. But it is amusing to see the squirming of these same men when confronted with the fact that Democratic members of the legislature voted to defeat these same apportionment measures.

A California clergyman proposes to abolish taxation by making national, State and local governments earn their own living by operating all lines of transportation, the telegraph and other forms of business now carried on by large corporations. Details of the plan are omitted, and no wonder.

Petitions are being circulated in Northeastern Pennsylvania favoring the appointment of Judge Rice of Luzerne county to the Appellate Court recently constituted by the Legislature. Judge Rice is an able man and our people who have had an opportunity to make his acquaintance since the judgeship contest, are more than pleased with his manner of procedure on the bench. So far as our people are concerned the Governor could make no wiser or more popular selection.

T. J. Keeler can fit you out with Boys, Youths and Mens ready made clothing at bottom prices.

For groceries and dry goods be sure to go to Bodine & Warn's, Sonestown Pa.

In the afternoon a picnic will be held at the lakeside where all may have an opportunity for semlar enjoyment. A full orchestra will furnish music and everything will be arranged for the comfort and enjoyment of guests. The proceeds will be applied towards the new church now in course of erection at Bernice.

Court Notes.

Mr. George H. Welles of Wyalusing, is among the interested parties at court this week.

Important:—Several parties in attendance at court dropped in and paid their subscription.

There is a very small attendance at court this week. The jurors, attorneys, and a very few witnesses constitute the number.

C. A. Brink, practical carpenter and builder of the 'Mere, was called to Laporte the early part of the week, as a witness in court.

M. D. Swartz, cashier of the Dushore First National Bank and F. B. Pomeroy, druggist of Dushore, are among the interested parties at court.

Judge Eldred of Muncy, Ulysses Bird of Estella and W. C. Mason of Laporte, all experienced surveyors of lands, were in attendance at court, this week.

Judge Peck of Towanda is holding court for Judge Dunham in Laporte, and Judge Dunham is holding court for Judge Peck in Towanda, this week. Both are able and competent judges.

Howard Lyon of Williamsport and chairman of the Republican Standing Committee of Lycoming county was transacting business in Laporte Tuesday. Howard is the same jolly good fellow that he used to be, and is a popular young business man.

The weather has been exceedingly pleasant this week and those in attendance at court have enjoyed a promenade along our shady walks. The beautiful grounds on either side of our new Catholic church, were complimented in the highest.

There is quite an array of able attorneys from a distance, in town this week. Among the list are: LaRue Munson, Esq., John J. Reardon, Esq., and H. T. Ames, Esq., of Williamsport, James W. Piatt, Esq., of Tunkhannock and D. C. DeWitt, Esq., of Towanda.

Mr. William Faries of Sunbury is doing the shorthand in court this week. Mr. Burrows whom Mr. Coston had engaged for the occasion unfortunately broke his leg in Harrisburg one day last week and of course was unable to be present. Mr. Faries is an able young man and fills the bill most satisfactory.

The case of Karns vs Kirk occupied the attention of the court from Monday until Wednesday forenoon. This case involved a lot in Eagles Mere, perhaps worth one thousand dollars. Mr. Karns purchased it at Treasurer's sale in '88. The amount of the tax was $1.40, and was for the year '86. Mr. Kirk claims that there was lumber sufficient on the ground to amply pay the amount of the taxes.

This lumber was placed on the ground sometime in April or May '86. The assessment was made in early winter, and the attorneys for Karns advocate that personal property placed on the land after the assessment could not be taken for the taxes. The attorneys in the case are: LaRue Munson Esq. of Williamsport and H. T. Downs, Esq. of Laporte, for plaintiff, Mr. Karns, and John J. Reardon, Esq., and H. T. Ames Esq., of Williamsport and Judge Ingham for the defendant, Mr. Kirk.

The court completed his charge to the Jury at 10 a. m. Wednesday when the Jury was ushered into their respective room by tipstaff Hopper, and were absent just one hour to the minute. Their verdict was for the plaintiff, Mr. Karns.

With the Karns vs Kirk case disposed of the court took up the case of First National Bank of Dushore vs A. H. Zaner. This case is of much more importance than was the former. It involves $2,500 and recalls the Jacob Lorah matter as Treasurer of Sullivan county. In 1892 Mr. Zaner with his associates on Jacob Lorah's bond as County Treasurer, borrowed of the Dushore bank the above mentioned amount for use of Mr. Lorah. It is alleged by the plaintiff that some time after completing this transaction with the bank he (Mr. Zaner) assigned his property to his son, Lewis, and daughter Amanda, hence the litigation.

The attorneys in this case are: For the plaintiff—Judge Ingham, D. C. DeWitt and J. H. Cronin. For the defendant—James W. Piatt and J. G. Scouten.

An exchange says that the Lehigh Valley Railroad Company will endeavor to bring the shops along the line to such a system as to build all the engines and cars needed on the system. Attention is now being given the work and it is expected that order will be evolved and the shops ran at a profit or at least pay expenses. This will be of value to all the towns where the shops are located.

Appellate Court Judge Campaign.

The Bar of Luzerne county, at a full meeting called for the purpose on June 4th, 1895, unanimously adopted the following address to the Governor:

To the Hon. Daniel H. Hastings, Governor of Pennsylvania:—

The members of the Bar of Luzerne county respectfully commend the Hon. Charles E. Rice for appointment as one of the Judges of the Appellate Court, and herein set forth the reasons that seem to them sufficient to justify their action.

Judge Rice has served as President Judge of Luzerne county, continuously since January 1, 1880, and the record of his conduct and judgment affords the best and most conclusive evidence of his fitness for a higher place. He has shown himself to be a wise and upright judge, filling the scriptural standard, "quick to hear, slow to speak, and slow to wrath." He has known no creed, party, rank, station, influences nor prejudice, but has judged the people righteously without fear or favor. He is in the prime of vigorous manhood, has great capacity and disposition to work, is possessed of a judicial temper that enables him to hear and consider before deciding, and of rare ability to justify his judgment in opinions remarkable for clearness and strength. Of Judge Rice there is but one opinion where he is known. Other judges, lawyers and his fellow citizens regard him as a conspicuously able, impartial and upright judge. He is a Republican, twice elected in a Democratic county, but no one has ever had reason to know from any judicial action to what party he belongs. We suggest that the great anthracite counties, in which a peculiar business is carried on, that furnishes much and important litigation not understandable by judges unlearned in its technicalities, but in which Judge Rice has had large experience, ought to have representation on the bench of the new court and that he is peculiarly fitted for the place. The Appellate Court will, as we believe, be useful to the State just to the extent that it commands the respect and confidence of the bar and people, therefore no consideration save that of fitness for the place should properly be entertained in selecting the first judges.

Upon this basis we present with confidence the name of the Hon. Charles E. Rice, believing that he is without a superior among the Common Pleas Judges of the State, and that his appointment will meet the approval of the bench, bar and people, and add dignity, learning and strength to the Appellate Court.

LAPORTE, PA., June 5, '95.—The Laporte Boro. School Board met at the office of Hon. E. M. Dunham. Roll called; present, Messrs. McFarlane, Dunham, Beahan, Walsh, Flynn and Spencer. Minutes of last meeting read and approved. The board then proceeded to the election of permanent officers. J. H. Spencer nominated James McFarlane for President, there being no further nominations and Mr. McFarlane receiving a majority of the votes was declared elected. Mr. McFarlane having taken his seat as president of the board, proceeded to the election of a Secretary. Hon. E. M. Dunham nominated J. Harry Spencer, no other nomination being made the vote was taken and Mr. Spencer declared elected, and took his seat. The President declared the election of a Treasurer next in order. Jas. McFarlane nominated Jno. W. Flynn no other nomination being made the vote was taken and Mr. Flynn unanimously elected. The President then declared the board duly organized for the transaction of business. Hon. E. M. Dunham moved that a tax of 8 mills for building purposes for the ensuing year, upon the last adjusted valuation; seconded by Jas. McFarlane, and carried unanimously. Ayes McFarlane, Dunham, Beahan, Walsh, Flynn and Spencer, on motion, the time and place of regular meetings be 1st Tuesday of each calendar month, 4 p. m., at Secretary's office, and further that the hiring of teachers be at next regular meeting, July 2d, and that notice of same be inserted in Sullivan REPUBLICAN as a local item; further, that notice be given that three of the school bonds will be redeemed by school treasurer the three being the first issued according to number of bond having the preference publication of proceedings being the notice referred to; carried by unanimous vote of full board. Adjourned.

J. HARRY SPENCER, Sec'y.

Life of Abe Lincoln by Judge Douglass.

We extract the following brief recital of the career of Mr. Lincoln from one of the speeches made by Stephen A. Douglass during the canvass in Illinois, in 1858:

"I have known Mr. Lincoln for nearly twenty-five years. We had many points of sympathy when I first got acquainted with him. We were both comparatively boys; both struggling with poverty in a strange town for our support—I an humble school teacher in the town of Winchester, and he a flourishing grocery keeper in the town of Salem. He was more successful in occupation than I, and hence became more fortunate in this world's goods. I made as good a school teacher as I could, and when a cabinetmaker I made the best bedsteads and tables, but my old boss said I succeeded better in bureaus and secretaries than in anything else. But I believe that Mr. Lincoln was more successful than I, for his business soon carried him directly into the Legislature. There I met him in a little time and I had sympathy for him because of the up-hill struggle we had in life. He was then as good at telling an anecdote as now. He could beat any of the boys at wrestling, could outrun them at a foot race, beat them at pitching quoits and tossing a copper, and could win more liquor than all the boys put together, and the dignity and impartiality with which he presided at a horse race or a fist fight were the praise of everybody that was present and participated. Hence I had sympathy for him, because he was struggling with misfortune, and so was I. Mr. Lincoln served with me or I with him, in the Legislature of 1835, when we parted.—He subsided or submerged for some years and, I lost sight of him. In 1840, when Wilmot raised the Wilmot proviso tornado Mr. Lincoln again turned up as a member of Congress from Sangamon district.—I, being in the Senate of the United States was called to welcome him, then without friend and companion. He then distinguished himself by his opposition to the Mexican War, taking the side of the common enemy, in time of war against his own country. When he returned home from that congress he found that the indignation of the people followed him everywhere, until he again retired to private life, and was submerged until he was again forgotten by his friends. He came up again in 1854, in time to make the abolition black republican platform, in company with Lovejoy, Giddings, Chase and Fred Douglass for the republican party to stand up."

The above clipping is taken from the Sullivan Democrat of the campaign of 1860 and doubtless will recall to memory from some of our readers, the three-sided fight that resulted in the success of the Republican party and practically united the entire North against the Dread Scott decision. It will be remembered that Governor Packer and Forney of the Press were among the leading supporters of Douglass in Pennsylvania.

The writer now recalls a telling speech made by Hon. Ulysses Mercur at Laporte, when he gave these friends of Douglass' full credit for honesty of purpose in their endeavor to accomplish the saving of the Union with Douglass as their standard bearer.

Recalling the events on the first inauguration of Lincoln. It should be remembered that there was no man more ready to aid in sustaining the president than his defeated opponent. Every true patriot rejoiced to see the noble stand taken by Douglass in his vindicating the importance of a united and immediate rally to save the Union.
