The Hand Upon the Wall.

Mauch Chunk, Feb. 24.-Upon the visiting Miss Mazie Danley. wall of cell No. 7 in the Carbon Co., Mrs. W. M. Fulmer and daughter, jail in this city appears the imprint Eda, was visiting friends here Sunwall of cell No. 7 in the Carbon Co., of a hand. The strange story con- day. nected with its appearance is vouched for by many of the leading citizens of Mauch Chunk and the surrounding towns.

In 1877 Alex Campbell, one of the convicted Mollie Magnires was confined in this cell. He stoutly protested his innocence, but was convicted through the confessions of several of his comrades in crime. On the night before he expiated his crimes upon the gallows he stood upon his narrow cot, and placing his left hand upon the wall, is alleged to remark at the time, but it has been brought before the public in a vivid manner many times since that memorable night. Although nineteen but he was no match for his red-headed opponent, who proved himself one of the craftiest men that ever stepped into the ring.

Fitzsimmons is now, by Corbett's orable night. Although nineteen years have passed, the imprint still remains upon the wall just as clearly as though it was placed there yesterday, although many attempts have been made to obliterate the marks.

Fitzsimmons is now, by Corbect action in presenting the champion ship to Maher, the champion of the world, and after the fight was over the declared, through Julian, his willingness to defend the championship against any and all comers.

The walls have been whitewashed many times, but the lime is hardly Court Proceedings.

The regular February term and sessions opened in the court house, Laporte, on Monday, 21 inst., at 2 p. m. Present, Hon. E. M. Dunham, president judge, and Hons. John Yonkin and M. J. Phillips, associate judges, on the bench. Constables called and made their sworn returns in open court.

The cell is looked upon with awe by the balance of the prisoners in the jail, and if any of them become unruly the warden threatens to lock them up in cell 7, which instantly cowes them into submission. Although the dungeon is a very dreary cell, it is far preferable to law breakers than the mysterious cell, No. 7.

A recent decision of the Luzerne county courts is to the effect that constables are not entitled to pay for services on election day. To be on the safe side of that question our county commissioners refused to pay constables for their services at Tuesday's elections. This has caused much dissatisfaction, but the court only can settle the matter by a ruling either for or against the constables. The commissioners only wish to protect themselves in the patter.—Tunkhannock Rep.

Court adjourned on Wednesday afternoon.

Ira Cott, a good democrat of Lincoln Falls, was appointed tipstaff by the court, in place of Peter Hopfer, on Monday, Feb. 17th. Ira joined the court house officials Monday, Feb. 24, and makes a first class officer.

The people of Hemlock Grove near Judge Phillips' residence in Davidson twp., dedicated their new M. Echurch on Sunday, Feb. 4, 1896.
This neat little edifice cost $800, and is a credit to Rev. Remley who had the matter in charge. Two hundred and fifty dollars were raised on the day of the dedication which paid the debt on the church in full,
Griffith Phillips, father of Judge Phillips, was present at the dedication which was his first outing this winter.

Charles D. Eldred, one of the best known citizens of this county, was found dead in his bed in Muncy early Saturday morning. Mr. Eld-red had attended a meeting of the deformant of the costs heretofore existing and due, prior to this case be continued until bill in equity is divided between the plaintiff and defendant.

early Saturday morning. Mr. Eldred had attended a meeting of the Insurance company at Montgomery Friday evening, but returned and retired between 11 and 12 o'clock. A member of the family upon attempting to awaken him a short time after 7 o'clock the next morning found he was dead, the body still being warm. A physician pronounced death due to heart disease. -Gazette and Bulletin.
