'Twas the Ringdale sleigh-ride, with its merry glide,
In its enchantment bound her:
He kept one hand upon the reins,
But put an arm around her.
And in blisaful close embrace they sat
Like brother and like sister;
But the moon knew they lovers were
Because he up and kissed her.

-The newspaper that hasn't warned ts readers against the new and dangerous counterfeit $100 silver certificate isn't up to date. It doesn't matter if neither the editor nor any of his readers ever had such a thing in their lives; he must speak of them as though $100 silver certificates were as common as eggs.

-The Muncy Valley Bakery which is managed in an up-to-date manner by Mr. W. H. Rimsnyder, is making regular trips to this place and is steadily growing in popular favor as a public benefactor. He has recently secured the service of a firstclass baker of Williamsport to take charge of the ovens, and is now placing excellent food on the market.

-The spring election is drawing near and the voters of Laporte should be casing about for good men to nominate for he offices to be filled. Active, energetic, honest men who have the good of the whole town at heart should be selected for councilmen, and broad guaged intelligent men who have no personal axes to grind should be put on the school board. It is ship. of vast more importance to the taxpayers of this borough who shall be chosen to do the borough legislating, than who shall be elected governor next fall.

-Ulysses Bird of Estella had a runaway at this place on Monday. He was engaged in hauling lime and while his team were eating feed with their bridles off, near the Tannery station, became frightened and started down the hill by the dry loft at break-neck speed. At the foot of the hill one of the horses fell and the wagon went rolling over the team, injuring one of the steeds so badly that it will probably be valueless.

-Voters of both parties throughout the county should regard it a duty to attend the caucus and primaries of their respective parties. Here is the proper place to make certain of getting good honest competent men on the tickets. Don't allow a few men to dictate the nominees and force you to ratify their choice when you know they are not wisely selected. The government of the Township you live in is more directly important to you and your interests than the government of the Nation. Attend the primaries.

-Amid the merry jingle of sleigh bells, loving manner and honeyen words a num-ber of New Albany boys at this place and some of Laporte's best looking girls enjoyed another sleigh ride to Ringdale Friday night and spent the hours pleasantly with Mine Host Miller who allowed them the privilege of an old fashioned hop which was enjoyed 'mid merry converse and social jollity. At one time, one of Barnum's finest (?) was present and furnished much amusement filling the air with shoe leather, but the climax was only reached when it was learned that when discovering that both runners of his cutter was rough-locked with log chains. As we had not the foresight to send our sporting editor along the affair is never room in the Kraus building fixed up for a likely to be properly described in print who was said to have been enjoying love's blissful dream at the time when the driver obvious of time and surroundings save the fair one by his side, drove over an up that an introduction necessarily had to follow. "Podden" furnished the music and some special entertainment. On Sat- 15 1898. urday several bark teams did not go out.
