STOP YER KICKIN'.

Stop yer kickin' 'bout the times—
Git a hustle on you;
Skirmish 'round and grab the dime—
Ef the dollars shun you.
Croakin' never bought a dress,
Growlin' isn't in it.
Fix your peepers on success,
Then go in to win it.
Times is gittin' good agin—
Try to help them all you kin.

Stop yer kickin', git a hold
Of the wheel and turn it.
You kin never handle gold—
'Less you try to earn it.
Brush the cobwebs from your eyes
Stop your blam'd repinin'
An' you'll notice that yer skies
Allus'll be shinin'.
If you hain't the nerve to try
Sneak away somewhere and die.

Don't sit 'round with hangin' lip;
That is sure to floor you.
Try to git a better grip
On the work before you;
Put some ginger in yer words
When you greet a neighbor;
Throw your troubles to the birds,
Git right down to labor,
An' you'll notice ev'ry day
Things is comin' right yourway.

YES, STOP YER KICKIN'. THIS EVERLASTING KICKIN' HAS GOT TO BE AN INTOLERABLE NUISANCE.

HON. WILLIAM W. WADDELL DEAD.

After a Long Illness, the Well Known Physician Succumbs to Death's Cold Clasp. Socially and Politically Popular.

Dr. W. W. Waddell, an eminent physician of Dushore, known to every man, woman and child in Sullivan county and for a number of years a prominent figure in Republican politics, died on Monday at 6 p. m. in Philadelphia where he had been taken last week to undergo an operation. The operation was successfully performed but heart failure, was the immediate cause of his death.

The remains arrived at Dushore on Tuesday morning one-half hour in advance of the telegram announcing his death. The deceased had been suffering with an abscess in his side since last summer and after an operation last fall was compelled to remain in bed until within the past few weeks when he had rallied sufficient to be up and around in his room. It was in the hopes of a more rapid recovery that he was taken to Philadelphia to have another necessary operation performed. The Doctor was about fifty years of age and leaves a bride of but a few months to sorrowfully mourn his death.

Personally, professionally and politically Dr. Waddell was rigidly honest. His standard of integrity was high and he endeavored strictly to live up to it. He was warm-hearted, generous, faithful to his friends and magnanimous in his treatment of political opponents, as to his enemies, he had none; he was a man. That Dr. Waddell was well in advance among Republican leaders in the matter of party policy and strength was attested in 1888, when he defeated the strongest party man in the Democratic ranks, the late Hon. Josh Lull, for the office of Representative. He served the county faithfully in the Legislature during the years 1889-90 and could have returned had he desired.

The funeral took place on Thursday. Interment in Dushore cemetery.

WAR CLOUDS ARE RAISING.

Excitement is on the Wane and the Belief Gaining Ground That the Outlook for Peace is Much Better.

The belief has steadily gained ground that the outlook for peace has increased in ratio with the vast preparation for war. The two Brazilian cruisers have been added to our navy. McKinley does not expect war. He thinks the whole matter can be settled diplomatically. So do the people.
