Ignorance is the mother of scepticism. Ignorance does not abound to any great extent in Sullivan County. So that there is But Little Scepticism about the Value of The News Item As a Profitable Advertising Medium. Read it, Your neighbor does. Subscribe, Don't borrow.

The early bird wishes it hadn't. This weather is snow April fool joke. Thos. W. Beaten is on the sick list. Prof. M. Sweeney was a Sunday visitor in town. That cold wave was no Key-wester. it was real. Miss Mabel Spencer was a Sunday visitor at Dushore. L. R. Gumble has moved into the J. W. Ballard residence. Mrs. E. J. Mullen returned home Friday from a few days visit at Towanda. Save your steam until the President says War! Then be patriots, we will all join. Leo Wrede returned last week from Millersville where he has been attending the State Normal. J. P. Kennedy of Jamison City was shaking hands with Laporte friends on Monday. County Treasurer Ransom Thrasher was transacting business at his office on Saturday. The bigger the joke the larger the type seems to be the motto of the 'yellow journals these days. With a stat-man like McKinley in the chair this country could well dispose with the two houses. J. Harry Spencer has accepted a position as book keeper for C. B. Thall & Co. of Williamsport. There will be a social dance at the Kennedy Hall, Monday evening, April 11. All are cordially invited. It was learned after the goods saved from the fire had been sorted, that Thos. W. Feaen's loss would aggregate $250. Mr. Dan Grafius of Hillsbrove, while in town Wednesday on the mission of installing officers in the I.O.O.F., made this office a pleasant call. The plan to pay Spain $200,000.00 for Cuba is not so much because she deserves to receive it as because she needs the money. March got her first wind on the last day, and April came to us with her Sunday gave every one the bicycle hunt that ventured out. Send your job work to the printer that uses his head as well as his hands. The News Item leads them all in high class job printing, and cheap too. Laughter is the most contagious thing in the world. As a key to success remember that the world will laugh with the man who laughs, but you must weep alone. Don't always judge the angular woman as being old maidish in her sentiments. She may have a wonderful wealth of love under the forbidding exterior. The President might have cooled off the Congressional war strikers by announcing that he would draft a regiment of them for actual service as soon as hostilities began. Geo. Cooley moved his family to the Lake Makoma boarding house on Wednesday. Alvin Hill of Muncy Valley move into the house vacated by Mr. Ery, and conduct the farm of James Arlane. The man who did not move hasn't had a peaceable picnic before him as he thinks. His wife will break into the house clean epidemic in a few days hence, which is nearly as destructive and will necessitate him to eat his meals from the kitchen sink. It may have been this event which causes such a great amount of rapid-fire conversation in domestic circles that makes so many men anxious for war, who will willingly go. Services at the Baptist church next Sunday as follows. Sunday School at 11 a. m. Christian Endeavor at 7:00 p. m. Praying 8:00.

Whatever means of evasion Spain utilizes it can't well creep out of that hole in the side of the Maine. There is no European ruler who has not enough homeknitting on hand to prevent their having anytime to help Spain fight us. It was a little difficult to determine whether the proceedings of the Democratic Committee meeting should be placed under the head of sports or amusements. The spending of $50,000,000 for naval and army supplies has the entire approval of the nation, not because anybody wants or expects war, but merely as a sort of safety valve to let off the pressure of patriotic fervor. Ohio proposes to pass a law forbidding the marriage of crazy people. This is likely to lead to complications, since there are many good authorities who claim that marriage itself is an insane act. The superior court, in recent session at Harrisburg, handed down a decision that for executing a warrant and serving subpoenas a constable is entitled to charge mileage one way of the rate of ten cents a mile, and is also entitled to charge fifty cents for each witness actually served. Why should nations fight for their rights, any more than individuals should? The latter resort to the courts, and their differences are adjusted by reason and justice. Why not settle international differences in the same way, in an international court? The principal is precisely the same. Is it not as barbarous and illogical for a large number of men, as it would be for individuals, to settle their differences by brute force? The "finger of scorn" is being worked with old-time energy among those who claim a monopoly in directing the destinies of the nation. In both old party camps the "finger of scorn" is pointed until everybody but the owners of the finger is tired. If the efforts at reform took more definite form than pointing fingers something might be done. There is a fervent hope that Easter Sunday may dawn upon a settlement of the war trouble. Should it not, then it the professional war shouters will utilize the day to do a little praying for peace they will do themselves and mankind a genuine service. On this day when we commemorate the entrance of the God of Peace into Jerusalem the ministers of peace and good will will have one more chance to urge the people of two christian nations to refrain from killing each other. Men should be guided by reason and not by popular clamor. A Chicago woman has an opera gown valued at $150,000. And yet remarks an exchange, we warrant she doesn't look half as fair as Maud Muller who on a summer day raked the meadow sweet with hay, or Mag Murphy who, with smile delicious, toiled in the kitchen washing dishes, or Mammie Reily with tuburn locks darning her brother Patrick's socks, or Annie Rooney putting stitches in her little brother's breeches. It isn't the feathers that make fine birds. A zingham apron and a calico sun-bonnet make some women appear radiantly beautiful. The News Item and Gazette were and on upon last week by the Review. over the plan under consideration in connection with a stand taken to protect their legal advertising prices that are being cut and fixed up by officeholders to suit themselves. As party papers the News Item and Gazette sought to ask only what was justly due them. Relying upon the public confession of the Review, it stated, "Sheriff Swank and Treasurer Thrasher are men who have a careful regard for their word," and refused to be led but patronize the Review, the matter was laid aside. Now, why do candida make such promises to a "neutral" paper? Why does the Review reach out on both sides of the fence in a campaign, eager to grasp all in sight, which rightly belongs to the ones that have to face the storm? Why has the Review heretofore fared so much better at the hands of officeholders than did the other two party organ? What is his disposition towards the officers that are too stern to be bulldozed by the whipped organ? When these questions have been brought to light the awe-stricken public might well stand aghast at the transcendent genius of the Review editor, and the two party papers a means to properly adjust matters. Muncy Valley. A quiet wedding took place Thursday last at the home of Simon Dewald; his daughter Virginia and Henry Smith, of Engle-Mer. being the contracting parties. Rev. J. J. Rush tied the knot. A. P. Starr and wife left for Hughesville Saturday last. The snow flakes were flying here Wednesday. E. H. Croff and family have moved to Towanda. Hyman Herr left on a business trip to Williamsport Monday. Geo. Meyers will now be sole proprietor of the Muncy Valley hotel; Chas. Crawley having sold his interest to Mr. Meyers. Mrs. Wm. Bay who entered the hospital at Williamsport last week, for treatment, is improving, which is very good news to all. C. J. Secules has a cow that gave birth to twin calves.
