

Republican News Item.

THURSDAY, APRIL 14, 1898.

Ignorance is the mother of scepticism. Ignorance does not abound to any great extent in Sullivan County. So that there is but little scepticism about the value of the News Item as a profitable advertising medium.

County Seat Indices.

We've had the April showers already. Spring fever microbes are beginning their work. Atty. S. B. Karns of Benton was in town Friday. The trout fishermen are now getting ready for action.

—The week opened with debate; it will close with fishbait. —Hon. and Mrs. Russel Karns were in Williamsport Monday. —Constable A. E. Tripp was on legal business in Colley Monday.

—Fay Cooley and Saylor Lawrence enjoyed a walk to Dushore Sunday. —Denis Palmatrix of Muncy Valley was in town on business Tuesday. —Atty. A. J. Bradley was a business visitor in Williamsport Monday.

—Chas reeder of Hughesville was calling on friends in town Tuesday. —John W. Rogers of Forkville was a business visitor in town Tuesday. —M. W. Lewis of Hills Grove was transacting business in town Saturday.

It's likely to take longer to get this war started than to end it. —One day more and the trout armistice will cease. —Perhaps Spain thinks it is better to fight and be licked than never to have fought at all.

—The administration might as well take notice that the free-born American will not be restrained longer than until Friday. Then he will go-a-fishing, for the season opens. —The social dance at the Kennedy Hall Monday night was largely attended.

—The Benton Argus is authority for the following precepts which if more generally approved and adopted the wisdom of them could be more plainly seen. Live your life as quietly and as peacefully as possible.
