

Republican News Item.

THURSDAY, AUG. 25, 1898.

Ignorance is the mother of scepticism. Ignorance does not abound to any great extent in Sullivan County. So that there is But Little Scepticism about the Value of The News Item As a Profitable Advertising Medium. Read it, Your neighbor does. Subscribe. Don't borrow.

County Seat Indices. AND GLANCES AT THE TIMES.

The cool wave has evidently secured a transport. As the war clouds recedes politicians begin to chirp. Soon the county Republicans will approach the firing line. The dog days are beginning a series of farewell performances. Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Collins, Thursday, August 18, a boy. Mrs. E. R. Powell is entertaining her mother this week. Miss Katie Fries is visiting with Dushore friends this week. Mrs. Milton Reeder is convalescing after her illness, last week. Atty. S. B. Karns of Benton, was a business man in town Tuesday. Atty. Wm. Shoemaker made a business trip to Sunbury on Saturday. Little Addie Ritter is seriously ill, but some better at this writing. Joe Cooper, the clothier, made a flying trip to Eagles Mere Monday. Mrs. Erwin of Watons town, is visiting her daughter Mrs. M. E. Reeder. It is likely to be a considerable time before the taxes get on a peace footing. Sheriff and Mrs. Swank attended camp meeting at Unityville on Sunday. Miss Jessie Wrede will leave to resume her study at Millersville State Normal on Monday next. Mr. and Mrs. Peter Gilmore of Dushore visited with Thos. E. Kennedy and family on Sunday. B. F. Crossley, the popular teller of Dushore National Bank, visited with his parents at this place Sunday. Prothonotary Lawrence took a trip to New York Friday to view the naval parade on Saturday. Atty. and Mrs. E. J. Mallen were called to Dushore Sunday by the sad accident of Miles Burns. Atty. and Mrs. H. T. Downs left on Monday for a few weeks sojourn in various parts of New York State and Canada. Our Lopez correspondent should send copy one day earlier than was sent last week. The teachers' armistices is nearly over. Many of the schools will open next week. Ernest Hagel made a business trip to Hughesville this morning, (Thursday.) The increased freight traffic over the W. & N. B. necessitated an extra run on Sunday. To love once is surely to love always—but not necessarily the same person, for some. Joseph Morrison of Towanda, a typo on the Reporter Journal, visited with Laporte friends over Sunday. Mrs. Thos. J. Ingham and Mrs. Ellery Ingham returned on Friday from a few days sojourn at Eagles Mere. Alvin Hill shot and killed a large hawk last week, and has sent it to Otto Bahr to have the bird mounted. C. R. Darling, Lyman Harvey and Lew Lovelace of Sonestown, were registered at the Commercial, Sunday. Rev. Colclesser of Conshohocken, Pa., is the guest of T. J. Keeler this week. He will preach in the Baptist church next Sunday evening at 8:00 o'clock.

All the Democratic aspirants for Sheriff kept it up until the end of the last inning. "The noblest study of mankind is man." It's equally true that his favorite study is woman. There doesn't seem to be any particular reason why that German fleet should loaf around Manila any longer. All politicians have their ups and downs, and the idea seems to particularly apply to a Hill whether in New York or here in Sullivan. Messrs. T. W. Persun and Mr. McCline, and the Misses Patton, of Picture Rocks, visited with Rev. Patton and family on Sunday. Mrs. W. L. Stormont of New York, left for her home Monday, having spent several weeks pleasantly with friends at this place. Mrs. Kester, wife of a brother to John Kester of this place, died of heart trouble while at camp meeting in Unityville on Sunday. Some of the fathers in town would be very wise if they only could learn as much as their boys think they could teach them. By casual observation you can plainly see that by the time a woman thoroughly understands the ins and outs of love she is usually too old to care anything about it. Now that the war is over there is nothing to attract attention from the country fair, which is about ripe on the bough. There is more money to be made by humoring people than by instructing them. Particularly so, with a newspaper. Don't forget that an ounce of silence is better than a pound of explanation, when boss politicians refuse to recognize qualifications and ability. By this time the Spaniard who blew up the Maine is no doubt thoroughly convinced that he made a very bad job of it. Photographer Chapman of Camden, is doing a large business in his line at this place. He keeps on his feet well for a man that's continually "taking something." Unless apples tumble in price from $3 a barrel, apple butter this year will have to be made of pumpkins, as is too often the case. If the insurgents are unruly now what will they be when American enterprises begins to work off coffin varnish for whisky among them. H. A. Karns left on Monday for York, Pa., where he attends the P. O. S. of A. State Convention as a delegate. He was accompanied by his sister Mrs. Cora Stormont, and on their return will visit Gettysburg. Voters will please keep in mind that September 6 and 7th are the last two days for registering. Intelligent voters should see that this important requisition of citizenship is not a matter of neglect. We are anxiously waiting to know whether Jenks proposes to save the country on a 16 to 1 basis, or by viewing with alarm the prediction of the administration for making a collection of islands. Contractor Tripp has broken ground for the Item Lodge cottage on South Muncy street, to be the property of the Editor as soon as he has succeeded in running the mortgage blockade. In his speech before the Democratic convention, Hon. Russel Karns' many assertions of "harmony" was not calculated to increase his list of friends, of course not; nor were they justified by any facts known to the public. John Havily, the lad who was recently released from jail, having served his sentence for larceny, was returned on Saturday to the custody of Sheriff Swank to answer another charge of theft made at Jennings' Bros. store in Lopez. Mrs. B. F. Hill, of William sport who is visiting her sister Mrs. I. T. Brewster at this place received a letter from her daughter Elizabeth in New York that she had been directed by Dr. McGee who is at the head of the nurses under the auspices of the Daughters of the Revolution, to go to Chickamauga, and will report there Friday.

EAGLES MERE CHAUTAUQUA. Many Improvements Made. Plenty of Delightful Amusement for the Casual Visitor. Good actions crown themselves with lasting days; Who well deserves needs not another's praise.—Heath. However true, these lines, it is only just to praise the successful efforts of the Chautauqua people. Yet we will omit that part and set down existing facts, and let each mind be its judge and jury. Through the kindness of the efficient management of the Assembly, the NEWS ITEM was provided with a passport that privileged us to remain an entire day and to eat, drink and be merry, which is made possible by the well managed affairs and the care exercised by the officers and their subordinates. In the fulfillment of this accepted invitation we embraced the first opportunity that presented itself Saturday morning and consigned ourselves to the excellent care of our genial Conductor Knipe, whose pleasant manner makes the outset of ones journey full of radiant hope and joyous expectations, providing his train on the W. & N. B. is in regular accord with the schedule time and no one is seriously conflicting with his rules regarding the expectoration of tobacco extract on the coach floors. As to the Chautauqua, limited space prevents of going into detail in telling our readers of all that is to be seen, heard and enjoyed at this popular resort which is as yet in its infancy, but growing wonderfully. The one theme of wondering comment is the marvelous transformation which has taken place since the close of last season. Several thousand dollars would hardly cover the substantial improvements and amusement ventures that have been rife throughout the entire year. All classes of artisans have been kept busy building, painting, grading streets and beautifying the place generally. In fact wherever one may look it will be observed that the painter's art has been called into requisition to beautify the premises. A stroll on one of the long avenues to its extreme end will reveal the expenditure of many dollars in making preparations for the amusement of the younger contingent with a gymnasium and bowling alley, and to the close observer many new amusements have been provided for that prove very acceptable to visitors. A bright and newsy morning paper is published on the grounds this season. Such excellent talents as the Park Sisters, The New Century Quartette Co., Eli Perkins, Mrs. Bertha Kuuz Baker and many others ranking high as entertainers, can be enjoyed. A visit to the Chautauqua is time and money well spent.

Camp Correspondence. CHICKAMAUGA PARK, GA. The boys enjoy a game of ball nearly every day. It is the Colonel's wishes that they should indulge in the sport. The 1st. regiment of Vermont left the park today for their own state where they will be mustered out of service. The contract for the new camp at Lexington has been completed and is being put in readiness to receive the troops. Valentine Ambuster of Co. L., died on Tuesday of typhoid fever and was interred in the National Cemetery at Chattanooga. Memorial services were held on Wednesday evening in the Y. M. C. A. tent. Mr. Kent and Lieut. Brown made very impressive addresses to the boys. The 9th took part in a sham battle on Friday. The weather was very hot but they succeeded in capturing the enemy. There is great improvement in the general condition of the regiment. Captain Moore and ten privates of Co. M., took a trip out to Jones' Spring on Tuesday, to prepare it to get water for the army. Having a larger contract on our hands than we anticipated we were compelled to eat dinner where we could get it, which was at an old darkie's, who prepared a delicious repast consisting of warm biscuit, ginger bread, roast chicken, and a noble sweet potato pie, which was a new dish to all. The boys did justice to their appetites and soon relieved the table of it's burden which was the first one they have had the pleasure of sitting at. As I was one of the party, I heard no one complain of no appetite, but rather not capacity enough. The last review of the great Chickamauga Army took place at Snodgrass Hill on Wednesday, the 17. Forty-four thousand soldiers who have for months been ready to battle for their country paraded together on the historic field. The occasion was that of the review of Gen. Breckenridge's entire command, including cavalry, artillery, infantry and ambulance companies. The time of the review was between the hours of 9:45 a.m. and noon. Early in the morning the bugle sounded, which called the many thousand boys up and immediately began preparing for the last grand event. The day was an ideal one. The sky was clear and a fresh breeze was blowing which cooled the air which otherwise might have caused many to drop out of the ranks. On the review stand with Gen. Breckenridge was his brother, Gen. W. C. P. Breckinridge of Ky. Gov. Atkinson of Ga., Maj. Wester, military representative of Sweden and Capt. Abigaard representing the Norwegian Government. Immediately after the firing of a field piece the review began. Led by the cowboy cavalry company there passed the artillery in forms of companies, followed by the infantry which passed the review stand in a column of fronts with only the short interval of eight paces. After passing the stand the companies came to a column of fours at double-quick time, so as to not delay the review, after which each regiment marched to it's own quarters. Maj. Gen. Breckenridge was highly pleased with the review and showing of the troops. It would be a hard matter to decide which one of the regiments made the best showing as some were more perfect in one way and deficient in another, but they are an army to be proud of considering how long it has been organized and drilled.

A. MINER.

To the Good People of Laporte and Sullivan County. I desire, in this public manner, to thank the good people of Laporte and Sullivan county for the very kind attitude they have taken toward the third, and, in many ways, the most satisfactory term of Laporte Mountain Summer School which closed last Friday. This kind attitude has made this third term the most charming to instructors and to students and has assured still greater success for the school in future years. With a charming location, invigorating atmosphere, strong faculty, and this kind attitude of the community Laporte Mountain Summer School is assured of growing success from year to year as its merits become more widely known. Very respectfully, L. L. Ford, Prin.
