BATTLE GROWS DESPERATE

Politics for Breakfast, Dinner and Supper Here in Sullivan.

WALSH IS GROWING NERVOUS.

Meyers is Springing Newspaper Announcements Now-a-days. A Hazy Outlook look for Walsh and Franke.

It is simply impossible to arouse interest in anything here but the campaign. The most important topic of the day all dwindle down to who will be next Sheriff, Member, and Prothonotary, notwithstanding the fact that Woodin has taken first place in the race and seems to retain it. To say that the contest is not warming up is absurd. Here is Meyers out with a published announcement stating what he thinks he can do if elected, and next we see Big Jim Walsh constantly coqueting with both wings of his party; and a score of men of political reputation in different parts of the county taking part in a conference held at Mullen's office one day last week, and 2 advertised thunder meeting soon to occur in the county in hopes of shattering the Republican party.
The political wisdom here is Mullen and Gallagher's.

To claim the "silent vote" for either Franke or Walsh is preposterous.
All that they have, are proclaiming themselves on every house-top and street corner. The difference between them and the regulars is the difference between the street and home circulation of a newspaper. A hundred noisy boys with a thousand newspapers on the streets make more show of circulation than a hundred thousand papers delivered at the homes of subscribers. The unwary may be caught by such outward display, but not the veteran.

The last dodge of our Democratic friends in this Congressional district to defeat the election of Woodin for Congress is a shrewd one. They have found that they have no standing with the people on the National issues.
They dare not repeat their explored arguments on the silver question; nor dare they denounce the McKinley tariff. The memory of the Cleveland tariff, and the Cleveland financial policy is too fresh in the minds of the people. The contrast between the present prosperity of the nation and the ruinous depression which existed under the last Democratic administration is so great that no Democratic orator has brass enough in his face to openly contend against the successful administration of President McKinley.

They perceive that the popular man for Congress is W. H. Woodin, who is pledged to sustain the administration of McKinley, and therefore they have determined to dodge the true issue.

Flairing handbills are posted which starts out like this, "The friends of better government in Pennsylvania will hold a mass meeting at Garey's Hall," and ends up with announcing that the leading orator is to be R. K.
Polk the Democratic candidate for Congress, and O'Boyle, the well known Democratic leader in Luzerne county. They are claiming to be the especial friends to better government in Pennsylvania, but what has that to do with the great National issues with which Congress has to deal? If the Democratic candidate for Congress wants the support of the honest voters of Sullivan county let him put out his true colors. Will he support the tariff measures, the financ... and the war and the policies of President Mc-Kinley, or will he oppose them? If he will, wherein is he better than than W. H. Woodin?

If he wont let him say so, and those who agree with his sentiments will vote for him. If he is truly a Democrat let him advocate the measures before the public which he intends to support in the National House of Representatives. We can tell him he makes his debut as an orator before the voters of Sullivan county in a very questionable shape.

He will find the voters of Sullivan county too wide awake to be deceived by false pretences. The man who represents them in Congress must be an honest supporter of Mc-Kinley's administration.

Walter Spencer Hurt.

While attempting to alight from a P. & R. freight train in Williamsport Monday evening, Walter Spencer, son of J. Harry Spencer, missed his footing as he stepped off the train and fell, cutting a long gash on top of his head and back of the ear. He was taken to the hospital, where it was said that his condition is quite serious.

Bernice Echoes.

The Citizen's Military Band received their charter from the Court of Sullivan county on Friday. They are now a chartered organization and no one need be afraid to do business with them. We predict for them a brilliant future in the music world. They are fast climbing the ladder of musical fame and by the time the blue birds commence to warble their sweet notes again this band's name will be a draw card to every music lover.

Invitations are out announcing the marriage of Miss Maggie Collins place.

ited friends at Greenwood, Sunday.

ing his son William, at New York, the past two months, returned home Wednesday much improved.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Murphy returned from their wedding tour last week, and received the usual reception from the boys; cigars, cigars.

Mrs. H. G. Lewis of Towanda, was the guest of Mrs. Harry Hampson last week.

Miss Cora Thayer has been quite sick but is convalescing at this writing.

Miss Mary Hannon, who has been visiting her sister in New York, for some time, returned home Saturday.

James McFee and John Murphy of Lopez visited relatives here Sunday.

Dr. J. L. Christian, candidate for the legislature, is most competent to fill the position, being a genial, pleasant, well-booked gentleman, well thought of in his community and throughout the county. A vote for Dr. Christian is a ballot in the right direction.

Christian is a man of honor and when he goes to Harrisburg in the interest of his constituents they can rest assured that he is there for them alone, and not for any so called machine, Quay or any other man. Christian is a man of the people and will sus-tain himself as such when he goes to Harrisburg.

Voters should look to their interests and to the interest of the Commonwealth by electing men who represent the party that builds, not destroys; men who are able, honorable and possess trained minds; all of which enters into the composition of Dr. Christian's makeup and makes him the most adaptable and desirable man for the office he aspires.

Cheerers.

Each day it becomes more apparent that H. W. Osler will be the next Sheriff of Sullivan county. He is growing extremely popular, and will have the backing of the best element in the county. Mr. Osler will prove an able successor to the present incumbent, Ellis Swank, whose administration has been clean and generally satisfactory so far as he was concerned. Mr. Osler is one of Sullivan county's most successful farmers and a thorough business man. He is genial and pleasant to everybody, and when in control of the Sheriff's office he will do his duty with as little offense as is possible, for his good nature would not allow him to do otherwise. At the same time he will do his duty firmly and promptly, as all good officers must to carry out the mandates of the law governing this high office.

The name of Wm. J. Lawrence will prove a sure winner for Prothonotary. Mr. Lawrence a man who has earned all the success he has attained to the present place he holds which is a highly important one and requires care and a special aptness in connection with a thorough knowledge of the affairs of the office. For this reason a re-election has always been given an officer in this branch of the public's affairs. A man like he, tried and true, will have the undivided support of the voters.

A TOILER HIMSELF.

The Shamokin News says The Republican party workers are lining up solidly to give Mr. W. H. Woodin a handsome majority. In the big towns such as Berwick, Bloomsburg, Danville, Sunbury, Mt. Carmel, Milton, Shamokin and Watsontown the healthiest kind of a sentiment prevails while in the country districts the name of Mr. Woodin is on everybody's lips. The general impression is that he is the man for the place.

He is courteous, kind and smart, and strictly honest. In Berwick, where he is best known the inhabitants honor him for many good acts he has gone through with for their benefit. He is, as is well known, connected with a big manufacturing concern there and the hundreds of men who have at one time or another found employment discovered in him a square man. He toiled faithfully since childhood about the works and knows the worth as reward of labor. No better compensation could be paid him, for a man who takes good care of his employes surely is a man, and in these days there are many who do not. Mr.
Woodin is needed in Washington next term of Congress. He is competent and will be a credit to represent the voters of this district.
