Zig-Zags in Politics.

President Hoyt of the Union Tanning Company made it his business to visit Laporte on Friday, and was observed in earnest consultation with the tannery officials, but the subject under discussion was said to be one not relating to politics.

Vote for J. L. Christian, he is an honest man far beyond reproach and will be the first to aid "honest government."

It is not a party battle, but a nation in peril. McKinley must have a full house of Representatives and Senators.

It is neither pelf nor place that we crave. We must aid the President in defending our national honor. Where the American flag has been raised it must there remain. Vote for Woodin.

Always beware of those who run and yell "thief," when there are no thieves." This fact has been proven.

From this day until the polls close on the first Tuesday in November every patriot without regard to party who would safeguard the commonwealth should aid in forming a committee of safety and vote for Dr. J. L. Christian.

J. L. Christian is a man of firmness and character. He is practical, progressive and sensible. He has a good name to maintain, and sufficient courage to grapple with wrong even when it is entrenched within his own political household should such occur. Vote for him.

Mullen and Gallagher's thrilling production of campaigning has been on the stage just long enough to insure it a fair trial, it has made a decided hit in provoking little or no enthusiasm, and the popular response is disappointing. It was their intention to mislead the people and make the campaign go with a rush. Voters were to have plenty of time for free excursions, excitement and applause, but no time for thought. Some of the more sanguine leaders are beginning to suspect that it will not work, that there is something wrong with the whole outfit and that a profitable diversion can only be reached by nothing less than a change. There is not much discount on the statement that the rule of common sense applies in politics as in every thing else. On one side it is hurrah and on the other side dignity, honesty and proper conservatism. There is danger in a change of base before the war clouds have cleared away. Our accounts with Spain are in a state of unsatisfactory or substantial settlement. It means peril if this State does not do its duty. It can be daughter in the National house while it is mistress in its own. A rebuke to Woodin and Christian here is a reflection upon the sublime administration of McKinley in his war and financial problems he is so successfully working out. To rebuke these worthy candidates indicates a want of confidence in McKinley and his advisors. This Democratic howl about "Quayism" is a contention calculated to have weight only in disordered minds. Woodin and Christian are the people's candidates and they are pledged to support the wishes of their constituents and to stand shoulder to shoulder in the support of McKinley.

Our voters are called upon this year to decide questions upon which depends the honor of the Nation for all time and the prosperity of the country for many years while developing its new possessions. Nobody is better equipped than he should be to decide this question, and yet some are painfully deficient in the knowledge requisite to an intelligent decision. Many good honest men are suffering themselves to be misled by political healers crying "better government" and making allegations which they are unable to prove. Hence it should be the desire of every citizen to learn all he can bearing upon the real issues of the hour. He should have a mind hospitable to truth, and not assume that he knows all about the subject by hearing hot speeches and handling Wanamaker and Swallow mud cakes.

Campaign Stars That Illuminate.

For Sheriff the Republicans have a candidate in H. W. Osler who is going to win, and a better man never aspired to that responsible office. Mr. Osler is well known to the people of the county. He is a gentleman of unimpeachable integrity and sobriety, well versed in business affairs, and one who could be depended on to administer the duties of High Sheriff with the strictest fidelity, honor and sobriety. Mr. Osler is going to receive a handsome vote from his many friends on the other side and if every man on his side does his duty which he surely will, there will be no mistaking the result.

Wm. J. Lawrence will succeed himself to the office of Prothonotary. That is what his supporters are saying and most Democrats profess to believe the same thing. A man of fine character, a business man of the first ability, and the people will see to it that he is honored to the office which seeks his perfect and systematic supervision. The people owe him gratitude for the able services rendered them by him while serving his first term, and they will reward these services on Tuesday, November 8. His party will be assisted by a large number of Democrats and good ones too. Vote for him.

Dr. J. L. Christian, for whom his friends are making a phenomenal old-fashioned campaign, and who is making a vigorous and able contest, was born in Columbia county in 1866, studied medicine and graduated from the Baltimore College of Physicians and Surgeons, and the Medico-Chirurgical College in Philadelphia. The Doctor is a hustler and has been an untiring worker in his profession from the time he located in Hillsgrove in 1890, and shows the same amount of vim since embarking in the field of politics. Of comfortable means he takes an interest in political matters as a citizen's duty, and is highly competent to properly represent the people of this county effectively in the legislature. He is well informed, energetic, progressive and full of enterprise. He is broad minded, kind and charitable, and one of the truest friends and most loyal men a voter ever had a privilege to cast a ballot for. Being well acquainted with all sides of his character, we frankly say that he completely deserves the success in life with which he has been blessed, and which has come to him on account of his manly qualities. This accounts for his great popularity with all who know him. Dr. Christian deserves to succeed in this campaign for Representative, and will poll the largest vote ever polled under like conditions. Standing as he does, for the interest and wishes of his constituents he is the popular candidate of the whole people, impartial toward none and manly to all.

H. W. Osler is the sort of man the people want in the Sheriff's office if they desire that it be conducted on strict business principles. Taking all features into consideration it is evident that the best thing for the voters of Sullivan county to do is to give him a flattering majority and insure his induction into the office of Sheriff.

W. H. Woodin is a man who has all the vigor of youth; he is experienced in public affairs; he has carefully studied all the financial interests of the nation; he possesses the pride of character that must make him appreciate the responsible duties of public office. Although he comes from a well known family of high rank there is nothing dudish or aristocratic in his make-up. He is a party man, with no finical nonsense in his notions of politics, but he is the kind who can think for themselves. He is a man who will stand by McKinley. This he will do manfully and that above all is what the people want at this crisis. That is the kind of a man intelligent voters want, and that is the kind they will get with Woodin. Mr. Woodin will not only mean well, but this meaning will be emphasized by action, prompt and needful.
