Fun in Sweden.

Fun in Sweden. General Baron Rappe, Swedish Minister of War, has just suffered a penalty for a very amusing slight to oyal ceremony. The day before Dristmas King Oscar summoned a subinet council to the palace. At the satisment General Rappe, who is aotoriously absent minded, having on ais full uniform, as required by the regulations, forgot to put on his slumed chapeau, and hastily clapped wis ordinary silk hat on his unfortun-te head. No one happened to see sainet. No one happened to see simen route till he approached the subinet, looking out of the window, saw the motley War Minister ap-proaching, and burst into loud guffaws it his unceremonious appearance. it his unceremonious appearance. They chaffed him without mercy, and he King, to censure his absence of aind, put him under a three days' artest as provided by the military regu-tations forbidding the wearing of ci-vilian attire in conjunction with military uniform.

The Saloon Not a Necessity.

The Saloon Not a Necessity. To the Editor-SI: The saloon is not an facessity, There is no need of man that the seloon fills. This very agitation is evi-dence that the people's considence is being pricked because of the nublic toleration of a wful evil that is daily perpetrating the most horrible curse upon humanity, and meedally upon the workingman, and still mod children. Why? Because there is a whof fatten upon the lifeblood sapped from the vitals of the tolers of our land, and this selfah interest simply purchases the privilege for the saloon to exist for the solon cannot be hilden by the assertion that the selfah interest simply purchases the privilege for the saloon to exist for the solon cannot be hilden by the assertion that the selfah interest sand ity are of the sa-foon cannot be hilden by the assertion that the solon is the workingman's club. Saturday nights in the United States and is the cause of ninety-seven per cent. of all crimes! Anccessity? Never! Revolution moves slowly, but just as sure as the sun shines, just so surely is public opinion closing in on the saloon. You may not see it and 1 may not, but what sometimes will not hap-pen in 100 years happens in a day, and some day, and that day is not so far distant either, the tide of sentiment will be aroused against the saloon and distillery, because of their constant menace to so-ciety, and this fearful institution will be aroused against the saloon and distillery, because of their constant menace to so-ciety, and this fearful institution will be the nethermost hell. Until then, welcome, thrice welcome, to any agency that has for its purpose the bitrough the coffee wagon, the mercy seat or the ballot box. But hall to the glad day when it shall be no more! I desire to have it clearly understood that the foregoing is not in any way intended as a criticism to the remarks of Bishop Potter. I regard his remarks as intended to be a re-buke to the professed friends of humanity and the morais of the people whose duty it is to restrict the saloon and to provide places of respectable resort for the laboring man. Switzerland's Falling Mountain. The din of falling rocks and rubble continues at Airolo, Switzerland, when continues at Airolo, Switzerland, when fresh portions of the mountain break away from time to time. The ruined mass of stones, trees and houses measures not less than five hundred thousand cubic metres, and the dam-age caused is estimated at over $200,-000.

As further downfalls are feared, it has been proposed to blow down with mines the whole mass in one great avalanche, and so end the prevailing terror.-Berne correspondence of the London Mail.
