"Love and a Cough Cannot be Hid."

It is this fact that makes the lover and his sweetheart happy, and sends the sufferer from a cough to his doctor. But there are hidden ills lurking in impure blood. "The liver is wrong," it is thought, "or the kidneys." Did it ever occur to you that the trouble is in your blood?

Purify this river of life with Hood's Sarsaparilla. Then illness will be banished and strong, vigorous health will result. Hood's Sarsaparilla is the best known, best endorsed and most natural of all blood purifiers.

A Prophecy.

It is said that one day, when Cromwell was but a mere lad, as he was lying on his bed in a melancholy mood, a gigantic spectre appeared to him and said, "Thou shalt be the greatest man in England!" The flogging only deepened the impression. He told his uncle Stuart of the prophecy, and was warned that it "was traitorous to relate it." It leaves the skin soft and clear, furnishes life to the coat, produces a beautiful growth . . . and leaves it smooth, glossy and free from harshness. I use it with luke-warm rain water, which I find is the best. This forms a rich, oily lather, and helps loosen all stubborn scales and blotches of

To Make Corn Popular Abroad. Thirty years ago American corn— or maize, as the English still call it was almost unknown in the Eastern countries of Europe except as a food for cattle. It is true that cornmeal was eaten by the peasants of Italy in the mixture they called polenta, but that the demand was small was shown by the fact that it was almost wholly supplied by corn grown on Italian soil. Attempts were made at the ex-positions held in Paris in 1867 and 1889 to teach Europeans the value of cornmeal as food, but it is only recently that these efforts seem to have borne While our exports of corn to conti-

At the Paris Exposition that is to be held in 1900 further attempts to popularize Illinois' great product will be made, and it is to be hoped that no pains and no reasonable expense will be spared to increase the demand for cornneal, or cereal flour. It is a wellbe spared to increase the demand for commend, or cereal flour. It is a well-recognized fact that when the farmer is prosperous all his fellow-country-men are prosperous also.
