put afloat to hurt the governor. ASHBRIDGE ALSO A MARK. The same tactics that have been dis-played in their treatment of the gov-ernor have been exhibited in this city within the last few weeks by the in-surgent newspapers in their raid upon Mayor Ashbridge's administration. Every Philadelphia paper earrying the full page Wanamaker advertisement has swung around in its political course in a startling manner. Every important change of an office holder under the old Warwick regime calls forth a howl of protests from these newspaper organs. Attempts to reor-ganize the various bureaus and bring about reductions in the force, in line with Mr. Ashbridge's policy of econ-oney, proceeds to carry out the plant the mayor or his subordinates who recommend the changes are actuated by political considerations. Meanwhile Ashbridge proceeds to carry out the plans outlined for his administration, and while the politicals of the Mar-tiouchies his work ahead, and, like Governor Stone, commands the respect and confidence of the people, who recognize the motives ef nis tri-ducers. ducers.
