REPUBLICANS IN PENNSYLVANIA.
"When the Republicans of Pennsylvania assumed the reins of government in this state the legacy they inherited from their Democratic predecessors was a debt of over $40,000,000. On the 30th of November, 1898, this debt had been almost wholly extinguished, the balance that was left amounting to but $1,025,981.92, over $39,000,000 of Democratic debt—paid from 1861 to 1898, and if the present deficiency in the revenue is added to this legacy of debt which the Democrats have left us, the entire debt of the commonwealth will not exceed over $4,000,000. How is that for business management, during all the turbulent times of war, and the alleged mismanagement of the Republican party in Pennsylvania? Surely no business firm within the limits of this commonwealth can show a better balance sheet in all these years than the good old commonwealth under the business management of the Republican party from 1861. If a lifetime of integrity and business success is a strong endorsement of the capacity and integrity of a business man, is it not also true that 38 years of business success and political integrity upon the part of a great political party entitles it to the confidence and respect of all right thinking citizens and business men who love their commonwealth and desire only her highest good? With history so recent and with a record so pronounced as these two parties present, no intelligent citizen can long hesitate upon which side to cast his vote. The Republican party has deserved support, and in view of her efficient and progressive spirit, as manifested in the past, the great body of patriotic, liberty loving and progressive people of this dear old commonwealth will continue as heretofore to give her their very cordial and most enthusiastic support.

"Pennsylvania should this fall roll up big Republican majorities for Colonel James E. Barnett, the candidate for state treasurer, and his colleagues on the Republican state ticket. The Keystone state shall lead in the movement for the re-election of President McKinley next year."

DID NOT CONSULT SCHLEY

The Rear Admiral's Transfer Said to Be a Very Unusual Procedure.
NOT DESIRABLE STATION

Preliminary Steps Taken to Assign Him to Command of South Atlantic Squadron.

To Perform a Duty Which Has Usually Fallen to the Lot of a Captain—His Present Appointment Declined on a Previous Occasion. May Revive Old Controversy.

Washington, Sept. 19.—Formal orders have been issued to Rear-Admiral Schley directing him to hold himself in readiness for sea duty, this being preliminary toward assigning him to command the South Atlantic station. From all that can be learned here in the absence of Rear-Admiral Schley, he has not had an opportunity to decide whether this assignment would be agreeable to him or not. It is unusual in the case of an officer of flag rank to give him an assignment without first consulting his wishes, but Schley's pleasure in this instance does not seem to have been considered. This is the least desirable of the flag commands and one which has heretofore been given to a captain for that reason. Altogether Rear-Admiral Howison has been in command of this station, it was only in a nominal way, for he made a cruise with the Chicago around Africa and through the South Pacific waters embraced within this station.

Two small gunboats plying in Southern waters were designated as belonging to the South Atlantic station. Therefore it is obvious why Schley would not care for the station. In fact, when it was offered to him some time ago he declined it. It was well known then that he desired a sea command more befitting his rank, having expressed preference for the European station.

His friends have confidently believed he would be given the European station when there should be vessels to permit its re-establishment. It has been thought that when the Kearsarge was put in commission the department would be ready to organize a squadron for that station. It has been desired by the department to send representative ships to the European waters in view of the reputation gained by American warships during the war with Spain, and as Schley was one of the naval heroes it was thought the department would at least be generous enough to have him cross the Atlantic.

Whether Schley will make a formal protest or not remains to be seen, but his friends are already active and may intercede in his behalf. He cannot refuse, however, if ordered to go, unless he is prepared to resign or submit to a court-martial. But it is believed Schley will not go on record as refusing.

It is now believed Rear-Admiral Remy will be given the Asiatic station should Rear-Admiral Watson's health incapacitate him for further duty afloat, and it has been intimated that Sampson will be permitted to take a squadron to European waters, in which event a squadron of respectable proportions would be assigned to him.

Those who had hoped that the Schley-Sampson controversy had ended now fear that it will assume a more unpleasant phase than has attached to it heretofore, if the Department continues to treat Schley with such indifference while showing the fullest consideration to Sampson.

Interceding For Damhoffer.
Washington, Sept. 19.—Senator Foster of Washington has called upon the President in the interest of Corporal Damhoffer, who has been sentenced to death, together with a private of the Sixteenth Infantry, for assaulting native women in Manila. Senator Foster was informed by the President that nothing concerning the cases had been received from General Otis. He promised that when the papers arrived Senator Foster and the friends of the condemned men should have a full hearing.

Senator Foster went from the White House to the War Department. He saw Adjutant General Corbin, who said General Otis would be asked not to carry the sentence into effect until after he had reported the facts to the department.

Bore a Good Reputation.
Vancouver, Wash., Sept. 19.—Corporal George Damhoffer of Company B, Sixteenth Infantry, who was sentenced to death in Manila, is a resident of this city. His mother, who lives here, is prostrated over the news. Damhoffer bore an excellent reputation.

Fever Increasing at Key West.
Jacksonville, Fla., Sept. 18.—The fever epidemic seems to be increasing rapidly at Key West, as the latest report gives thirty-eight new cases. There has been one more death, Captain Shattuck. This makes more than three hundred cases so far in the two weeks since the epidemic began. Private advices say the physicians there are overworked, and it is not improbable that a call may be made for volunteer physicians.
