The NEWS ITEM speaks of its candidates in this issue. You need not take these facts for granted, but inquire of them as we have. You will then co-operate our statements.

The Democrats conceded everything to candidate Otto Behr in his home district. What better thing could be said of a candidate? It shows that those who know him best know well of him and have implicit confidence in him. Otto is a man, among all classes of men.

Meylert Brunner, a prominent attorney of St. Paul, Minn. formerly of Muncy, and well known to many citizens of this county, is visiting Laporte friends this week. He is accompanied by his son Master Mayall and still enjoys life in his old fashioned ways of younger days.

Chairman Scouten continues his campaign of mud and dirt slinging. Last week his attack was upon J. S. Taylor, this week he attacks the private character of Adam Baumunk. We have no reason to believe that the honest and reputable Democrats of this county are in sympathy with this kind of political warfare. Mr. Baumunk is well known as an honest, trustworthy, hard working farmer. If such a man cannot escape slander and detraction, who is safe? The answer Chairman Scouten will get to these attacks will be by the people at the polls.

The Prohibitionists of Sullivan Co. made the following nominations at their convention at Eagles Mere Sept. 14th. For County Treasurer, David Mullinaux, Millview; County Commissioners, J. H. Hoffman, Hills Grove, and H. C. Boatman, Sonestown; County Auditors, Wm. L. Johnson, Lopez, and Arthur Granger, Millview.

It was the eminently qualified and honest principles found in Otto Behr that placed him before the people as a candidate for Treasurer, and not any political aspirations of his own. He is deservedly popular where ever known because his good German qualities ever predominates. Make him County Treasurer and you will make no mistake.

Adam Baumunk, candidate for county commissioner, is one of Sullivan county's greatest respected citizens. He comes from honest, industrious German stock, and is one of the chief factors in developing the county's farming industry. Farming has been his study and occupation for life and no one better knows the farmers needs and how they should be represented than he. Mr. Baumunk is the proper man for this important office. Properly qualified men and not party issues should be the ruling features at the polls.

J. S. Taylor, candidate for county commissioner, is a business man with a business turn of mind and cultivated business habits. There is no county office that requires a thoroughly trained business man more than the office of commissioner. To properly transact county affairs is a huge business undertaking and requires a capable financier to successfully cope with the vast affairs and discharge business obligations in a competent, economical and honest manner. There is no better business man in the county than J. S. Taylor, and we add without any fear of denial that there is not a more honest, conscientious man, a man who adheres most strictly to the principles of right than Mr. Taylor, to be found in Sullivan county. He should be made commissioner by all means.

Enrapt in Flames.

A sad accident occurred near Dushore on Monday that resulted in the death of Mrs. John Deiffenbach. She was preparing breakfast and was taking a frying-pan from the stove, using her apron as a cloth to protect her hand, when the apron caught fire and in an instant her clothing was all ablaze. Mr. Deiffenbach tried to smother the flames with a blanket but life was extinct before his task was done. Deceased was past 72 years of age.
