PRESIDENT M'KINLEY.

"I am glad to participate with the families, friends and fellow citizens of the Tenth Pennsylvania volunteers in this glad reunion. You have earned the plaudits not alone of the people of Pennsylvania, but of the whole nation.
You made secure and permanent the victory of Dewey. You added new glory to the American arms. Every one of the noble men, of the regulars or volunteers, soldiers or seamen, who thus signally served their country in its extremity (remained in the service after the expiration of their period of their enlistment) deserves the special recognition of congress, and it will be to me an unfeigned pleasure to recommend for each man a special medal of honor. The government to which you gave your love and loyalty welcomes you to your homes. With no blot or stain upon your record, the story of your unselfish service to country and to civilization will be to the men who take your places at the front and on the firing line, and to future generations, an example of patriotism and an inspiration to duty."—President Mc-Kinley to Lieut. Col. Barnett and his comrades of the Tenth Pennsylvania volunteers, at Pittsburg.

HOT SHOT FOR THE ENEMY.

They Lead the Advance For the Battle of the Ballots on Tuesday, November 7.

The control of the Democratic party, in the national and state organizations, says the Citizen Press, of Franklin, Pa., is in the hands of the disreputable and anarchistic element, which is placing the honest, intelligent and patriotic Democrats in a false position, so long as they silently permit their names to be used as the supports of the platforms erected and the policy expressed by the Altgelds, Bryans and other "statesmen" who assume to speak for the party.
However, one by one of the heretofore prominent Democrats are placing themselves on record as opposed to the copperheadism which is manifested by the rabid leaders of the party and will emphasize their protests by voting the Republican ticket in November, hoping by such action to relate to the rear by such action to relationists now in control, and thereby save the party organization for the future. This course seems to be the only one open for them to pursue at this time and maintain their self respect.

Ex-Governor Pattison, of this state, is the latest to repudiate the policy laid down for the government of the party by Altgeld and Bryan, points out that patriotism is higher than party. "My duty as an American citizen," says he, "commands my support of the country's president at this juncture. When the president said in his Pittsburg speech that the Philippines were just as much American soil as were Texas and Alaska he spoke the truth. The islands are ours by title of treaty, and we have no right to Louisiana or Alaska except that confirmed by treaty. As they are ours, we are bound to see them pacified, to set up law and order in their midst."

This is the solemn fact, and people who throw obstacles in the way of the pacification of the Philippines are aiding and abetting the rebellion, and those Democrats who are of the same opinion should show their patriotism by voting the Republican ticket this fall. It is the only way to make themselves effective. Votes count.

A REPUBLICAN YEAR.

"This ought to be an easy year for Republican success. It does not require oral or written argument to induce men to vote the Republican ticket," says the Everett (Pa.) Press.
"Argument and appeals fall on listless ears in the face of well known facts.
When free traders cry out that the tariff robs you, the laborer answers with a shrug, 'Well, under your free trade we had no work and nothing of which to be robbed. Now, under protection, work is plenty, wages are good, or at least good in comparison with Democratic times, and we have plenty to eat, clothes to wear, and can send our children to school.' The tramp days of Democratic ascendancy are over. When they tell you that free silver will bring greater prosperity, the answer is, well let well enough alone; you have fooled us already too often to our sorrow; we will want more than theories now to induce us to leave the party under whose sway we have re-

SECRETARY OF STATE HAY.

"It is the duty of every Republican, no matter in what state he may live, to go to the polls next month and support the nominees of his party, and by so doing assist in bringing about a sweeping Republican triumph throughout the country. Nothing could be more gratifying to the Republican national administration and nothing could give more encouragement to the president in carrying out the policies he has outlined. Enemies of the country and the political opponents of our party would rejoice over a falling off of the Republican vote this fall.
No more patriotic duty can be performed by Republican citizens than going to the polls and casting a straight Republican ballot and by getting their neighbors to do likewise. Next year's presidential contest is already under way. Republicans should be on the alert."—Secretary of State Hay, in recent interview.

ceived and are enjoying the present good things. No Mr. Democracy for us."

FARMERS AND THE TARIFF.

"The American farmers should be pretty well satisfied with the new tariff law," remarks the Wilkesbarre Times. "Here is the official record of the exportation of leading farm products in the last year of the Dingley law, compared with those of the last year of the Wilson law:

	Wilson Law, Dingley Law, Year 1897.	Fiscal Year 1898.
Breadstuffs all.....	$197,857,219	$273,999,699
Wheat.....	59,920,178	104,289,193
Flour.....	58,914,247	73,093,879
Corn, bushels.....	176,916,265	174,089,694
Oats, bushels.....	35,096,730	30,309,680
Rye, bushels.....	8,560,271	10,140,876
Oatmeal, pounds.....	47,310,151	58,042,505
Provisions.....	138,652,736	175,508,095
Live animals.....	43,588,461	37,880,916
Cotton, bales.....	6,176,365	7,373,163
Cottonseed oil, gal.....	27,138,882	59,627,219

"And this is the sort of prosperity the Democrats condemned at their last county convention."

DON'T FORGET THE DATE.

Free trade and soup houses. Protection and prosperity. We had the first under Democratic rule and prosperity came with Republican success," says the Franklin (Pa.) Citizen-Press.
"Vote to continue the latter party in power, on Tuesday, Nov. 7. Don't forget the date."

THE STATE ISSUES.

A Good Man to Administer the Office of State Treasurer.

"Republicans are not afraid to take up the state issues or to discuss the necessity for Governor Stone's action in cutting down the most liberal item in the budget so as to make expenditures in income balance each other," says the Wilkesbarre Times. "We have already been too liberal at the expense of the state treasury, and if the action of the governor will draw attention to this subject he will have performed a public service. Money gotten by indirect taxation is apt to be lavishly spent, and we know something of this lavish expenditure by many of the school boards and townships in our own county."

"Nor are we afraid to discuss the management of the treasurer's office.
Under the new laws there is no possibility of wrong doing, and the method of depository, together with the payment of interest to be turned into the treasury, makes everything so plain that only a reputable business man is required for the position of custodian. We have such a man in Lieutenant Colonel Barnett, the Republican candidate, who besides possessing all qualifications named is all right on the protective system, an advocate of sound money and a supporter of the McKinley administration. This is the man for the times, and the people of Pennsylvania will undoubtedly say so on the 7th of November."

Archbishop Ireland, of St. Paul, was shown much attention during his recent visit to Pennsylvania. This distinguished prelate is a staunch Republican. In an address which he made at the banquet of the Marquette club, of Chicago, given in honor of President McKinley on his trip west, in responding to the toast "The American Republic," Archbishop Ireland, among other things, said:

"The American republic is the best form of organized democracy revealed in humanity's history; as such she claims homage from her own citizens; as such she draws to herself the attention of the world.

"And surely there has been in America no lowering of the highest standard of patriotism. Where is the country at whose call for heroes citizens with such speed, with such forgetfulness of self and in such numbers rally

SECRETARY OF WAR ROOT.

"Republicanism this year means, as it has ever meant, loyalty to our country, belief in the inviolability of public faith, an unflinching adherence to honest government and honest money, and an undying devotion to the honor and integrity of the flag, wherever it floats, carried by our soldiers or sailors on land or sea. This year all these qualities are accentuated in a marked degree, and the Republican who fails to go to the polls and cast a stalwart Republican ballot will ever regret having failed to take advantage of one of the grandest opportunities of his life to show his devotion to and practical and timely allegiance to the party, which means so much to the continued welfare of our people. The greater the Republican vote this fall the greater will be the incentive to Republican leaders to prepare for the great national struggle next year."—Secretary of War Root, in a recent interview.

Harrisburg, Oct. 17.—Make a note of vember 7.

All good Republicans will bear this in mind. This is going to be a great year in national politics. The result of the elections in the several states next month will be watched not only by the people of the United States, but by the nations of the world. The issue of the foreign policy of the McKinley administration is inseparably connected with the canvass in every state in which there is to be an election, and the returns will be watched and reviewed with particular reference to their bearing upon the national administration.

Nothing that has occurred in politics since the last presidential election has created as much talk as the proclamation of Aguinaldo to his followers, in which he said:

"In America there is a great party that insists upon the government recognizing Filipino independence. We must show gratitude and maintain our position more resolutely than ever. We should pray to God that the great Democratic party may win the next presidential election."

This declaration from the ringleader of the insurgents has attracted widespread attention, and Democrats who are loyal to their government are disgusted with the position in which their leaders have placed them and their party. They will refuse to vote the Democratic ticket this fall.

There is every reason why every Republican should go to the polls on Philadelphia, Oct. 17.—The tour of Colonel Barnett, the Republican nominee for state treasurer, has been a series of popular demonstrations of enthusiasm, and as he proceeds in his canvass the meetings get larger and the ovations more enthusiastic. Many of the scenes witnessed in Roosevelt's whirlwind campaign for governor in the Empire state are being repeated here. The people, regardless of party, are turning out to receive the young soldier fresh from the Philippines, and all indications are that many of them will disregard politics when they vote next month and Democrats and Republicans alike will honor him with their ballots. Colonel Barnett is not a spectacular orator. He does not play to the galleries, but in a straightforward, matter of fact way he discusses the issues and tells the people just what he will do in the event of his election.
