REPUBLICAN NEWS ITEM,

Entered at the Post Office at Laporte, a second-class mail matter.

In the Senate Feb. 2 Mr. Allen, of Nebraska, renewed his criticisms of Secretary Gage and his dealings with New York banks. Mr. Daniels, of Virginia, delivered an extended speech on the pending financial measures. Daniel M. Ransdell, of Indiana, and Charles G. Bennett, of New York, were sworn in as Sergeant-Arms and Secretary of the Senate, respectively. In the House the consideration of the Indian Appropriation bill was resumed Feb. 2, and Representative Sibley, of Pennsylvania, assailed his Democratic colleagues for their opposition to expansion, and received an impressive demonstration from the floor and galleries.

The Senate Committee on Company of the property of the property of the property of the property of the senate Committee on Company of the property of the p sive demonstration from the floor and galleries.

The Senate Committee on Commerce has practically decided upon a favorable report upon the bill creating a Department of Commerce.

The House Committee on Mileage has rejected the claim of Brigham H. Roberts, of Utah, for mileage in connection with his contest for a seat in the House. Mr. Roberts put in a claim for mileage from Salt Lake City to Washington, 2,597 miles and return, at the usual rate of 20 cents a mile each way, making a total of $1,038.80. Mr. Cooper, of Texas, moved that Roberts was entitled to mileage, but on a tie vote, 2 to 2, this motion failed. Chairman Barnham will report this action, which, he says, is equivalent to a rejection of the claim by the committee. As a result of suggestions in the committee, Mr. Barham will confer with the Speaker concerning the recognition of any member who may seek to secure for Mr. Roberts the $2,000 usually allowed in contested election cases. This however, is not the committee action, but is due to a desire to afford opportunity to bring the matter before the House.

In the United States Senate Jan. 31 Senator Pettigrew sought to have tunity to bring the matter before the House.

In the United States Senate Jan. 31 Senator Pettigrew sought to have read a resolution embodying a statement by Aguinaldo giving his version of an alleged recognition of the "Filipino republic" by Admiral Dewey. This led to a sensational debate, in which the actions of the South Dakota Senator were denounced as treason, and the statements of Aguinaldo branded as a tissue of falsehoods. Mr. Pettigrew insisted that Admiral Dewey had given recognition to the Filipinos by saluting their flag and cooperating with them in Subig Bay. Senator Hawley, in an excited manner, objected to having the statement of Aguinaldo read, because it was treason and would lend aid and comfort to the enemy. An angry colloguy was continued for some time between Pettigrew and several Senators in regard to the matter, when the point of order was raised that the statement could not be read because it was embraced in a resolution pending before the Senate providing for its printing, which was sustained by the presiding officer.

in the House Jan. 31 a variety of questions were discussed, including the Philippine policy, government of Puerto Rico and election methods and lynchings in the south.

House Election Committee No. 3 has decided the Wise-Young contested election case for the Second Virginia District in favor of the contestant, Mr. West.

The Senate Committee on Elec-ginia District in favor of the contestant, Mr. West.

The Senate Committee on Elecdons heard several witnesses Jap. 30 in the Clark bribery case, whose admissions destroy the force of their testimony. During the lagt three or four hearings the attorneys for the contestants, the syndicate of Montana eitizens, have put on witnesses who have seemed to be not exactly in touch with the complainants. They swore a man named Black, who disproved a large part of their case, contradicting effectively a preceding wittessa who had testified in a bold and careless manner to several instances of bribery. One witness was pursued relentlessly for an hour to make him disclose the state of his bank account and tell how he got his money. He answered that he won a good deal of disclose the state of his bank account and tell how he got his money. He enswered that he won a good deal of money at faro and poker. Senator Faulkner, counsel for Senator Clark, said he would make his side of the case as short as possible, and when he began should push things as hard as possible.

The attendance on the hearing is as crowded as ever, and Senator Clark is among the most, interested of the spectators. The drift of opinion as to the effect of the testimony thus far is that Clark will not suffer from the testimony of men who admit, as one did, that there is no wrong in telling a lie to a rascal, or, as another did, in declaring that there was no wrong in telling a lie when everybody concerned knew that it was a falsehood. One witness, a clergyman, admitted that he had been charged with embezzlement, and had resigned his pastorate rather than stand trial. Thoughout the hearings there have been a strong dash of the rough, unscrupulous and gambling way of doing things. There are many onlookers who expect the committee will throw out the testimony of most of the witnesses, and that the case against Clark will, fall by its own weight of consclousless audacity of iniquity. The attendance on the hearing is as

In the House the bill for the regranization of the Weather Bureau has been "side-tracked" by a test vote of 57 to 73, it being bitterly opposed by those who disapproved of the life tenure provision it made. The bill, however, remains the unfinished busi-
