REPUBLICAN NEWS ITEM, Laporte Pa.,

Philadelphia, Feb. 27.--It was with great exultation that the insurgent press bureau sent out through the state last week a story to the effect that Colonel Quay's case in the United States senate had been side tracked and that it could not possibly be brought up at this session of congress.

While they may not have believed what they wanted the people of the state to believe, the insurgents thought that this was a splendid card to play for effect upon the Republican primary elections throughout the Commonwealth and at which they are endeavoring to break through the lines of the stalwart Republican element.

The guerrilla politicians, who know no allegiance to any organization, except their own personal political machine, did not know that while their newspaper allies, few in number though they be, were printing this story of Colonel Quay being bowled out, Senator Penrose had his plans carefully laid to bring the case up in the United States Senate on Friday last.

This he did and despite the schemes of a few Senators who are leading the opposition to the Beaver steersman, to side track the case, the young Pennsylvaniaian fought with tact and spirit and he finally won by a vote of 34 to 23 and the case was called up for discussion.

This showing was a surprise to the enemies of Colonel Quay, as among those voting against the consideration of the matter at that time, were several Senators who are on record as having said they will vote to seat Colonel Quay when the matter comes up for final action.

These men for one reason or another opposed consideration of the Quay case on that day but all of them have since said they will vote to seat him when the issue is reached for a final vote.

PENROSE A GOOD FIGHTER.

Senator Penrose made a strong showing on the floor. He advanced the proposition, first of all, that the claim of the senator to a seat was a question of the highest privilege, and was entitled to be brought up whenever any senator desired to discuss it.

He claimed that no vote was required whatever. A ruling upon this point was not made. The presiding officer indicated that if he were forced to make a ruling it would be against Senator Penrose's proposition.

Senator Hoar and one or two others were anxious that the point should be met. A long discussion would have resulted and both Penrose and Chandler were prepared to debate the question, but the point was temporarily shelved, when Mr. Penrose made the simple motion that the Quay credentials be taken up.

Senator Daniel, of Virginia, made the opening speech in favor of Senator Quay. His contention was that a governor has a right to appoint at any time when there is a vacancy and the legislature is not in session. It was an elaborate address, and the senator was well fortified with quotations. There does not seem to be any desire to supplant the Hawaiian question, for as only a few speeches are to be made, they can be made before 2 o'clock, the hour when the regular order begins.

The indications are that the matter will be put to a vote within a short time and there is every reason to believe that Senator Quay will be seated by a good majority. The New York Herald's Washington correspondent wires his paper that there is no doubt about Colonel Quay being seated upon Governor Stone's credentials.

The local election in this city last week resulted in the election of every man on the Republican city ticket. There were only candidates for magistracies running, but a bitter fight was made against them by the insurgent Republicans and by other men who have selfish ends to serve politically and who have been arrayed against the leadership of the Republican party in the state because they have not been allowed to have their way in the matter of the distribution of the favors of the Republican organization. These men found as the campaign progressed that the people did not believe the reports which were intended to hold the Republican party responsible for the election frauds which were unearthed in a couple of election precincts in the slum districts of this city. The thinking and honest voters realized that conditions exist in every large city in the quarters of the depraved elements which naturally result in election frauds, of the men accused of stuffing the ballot boxes three were found guilty as the results of investigations and prosecutions by Republican officials and they are now serving their time in prison. The people evidently did not take any stock in the attempts to make the Republican party organization responsible for these frauds. Of the Republican candidates for magistrate Quay supporter, who had been the subject of almost daily attacks during the campaign waged by the insurgent newspapers, polled the highest vote at the election. He was the only candidate who received over 100,000 votes.

The Republican organization comes out of the last contest stronger than ever and will be found with representatives from almost every district from this city acting with the leaders of the regular Republican state organization at the coming state convention.
