Democrats and Republicans!

In fact it matters not with what political party you are affiliated, you should be a Protectionist in one respect. That is to say you should protect yourselves against loss by the destruction of your property by fire; and what is still more essential, protect your families against the loss of their support by the death of the person who produces that support—the husband the father. This latter protection can be obtained practically without expense, since it is possible, and in fact compulsory, for the life insurance company to safely invest the funds paid into their hands, and, after a term of years, return same with profits to policy holders, if living, on demand.

This matter should command your serious attention. Delay is dangerous and expensive. You will therefore do well to consult the agent in regard to the merits of the Penn Mutual Life Insurance Company of Philadelphia, which is justly reputed to be the most conservative and the most economical as well as the most liberal and equitable in its dealings with policy holders.

It is no experiment or adventure but by all odds the safest and best investment you can make, besides furnishing protection to your family.

The Penn Mutual is already over 53 years old and has over 200,000,000 of insurance in force, several hundred thousand dollars of which is in Sullivan county.

WILL FIGHT TO BITTER END

Thus Cables President Kruger from Machadodorp.

10,000 BOERS SO SWEAR

General Botha Makes an Impassioned Appeal to Monster Mass Meeting of the Burgers in Pretoria's Public Square—Urges Them Not to Give In, but Fight.

New York, June 4.—The following cable was received here yesterday:
"The Transvaal burglers are full of courage. We will fight to the bitter end. KRUGER, President."

(Oom Paul Kruger.)

Lorenzo Marquez, June 4.—The Boers are determined to fight, even if they have to abandon Pretoria. A deperate stand will probably be made at Lydenburg.

The latest news from Pretoria is that 10,000 burglers met in the Public Square to listen to General Botha, who addressed them from the balcony of the Government building. In an impassioned speech he declared that they should not give in without a struggle.

He roused the feelings of all to such a pitch that all swore unanimously to go on to the bitter end.

Lucas Meyer and others also spoke.
Fifteen trains daily are being sent to Machadodorp with supplies for Lydenburg.

Pretoria is full of excitement. The ordinary Government work is suspended. The city is under martial law, with General Botha in command.

The seat of government is now at Middleburg.

Pretoria is pictured by the refugees as in a state of indescribable confusion and chaos. The British are expected hourly.

Some foreign attaches have arrived at Lorenzo Marquez. They consider that organized war on the Transvaal side is at an end.

Flying among the Boers are reports that the British have been beaten back at Lindley, with heavy loss, that the main attack on Elandsfontein failed and Lord Roberts was forced to retire to Klipsriverberg, that the railway has been cut behind him south of Ver-evenging, and that a provision train has been captured.

The revival of the Boer fighting power east of Lord Roberts's advance, although fruitless, is a symptom that the Boers are not yet crushed.

In General Rundle's attack on the intrenched Boers, seven miles east of Senekal the British did not see a Boer all day, so completely were they screened. The 182 losses wired by Lord Roberts were suffered by the Grenadiers and Scots Guards while advancing.

The scene during the battle was wonderfully picturesque, rolling billows of smoke, higher than the highest kopje, obscuring the combatants. The roar of artillery and the crackle of musketry, under the light of the flames of the burning veldt, combined to produce a picture of appalling grandeur, but terrible for those engaged within its field.

In the advance of the Grenadiers, Colonel Lloyd led in the face of a deadly fire. He was hit, but struggled on, only to be disabled by another bullet.

Lieutenant Murray, falling, cried "Forward, Grenadiers!" The blinding smoke of the burning veldt hampered the operations.

Lieutenant Lord Seymour, on offering to go back to direct the artillery, was wounded. The order to retire was given and executed under a screen of smoke. The Boer fire was kept up until dusk.

General Rundle withdrew his whole force at sundown to Senekal. The Boers sent to the British for medical help, saying that Commander De Villiers was seriously wounded. General Rundle sent a doctor with a bottle of champagne and his compliments.

The Boers have now withdrawn from Lindley, and Colonel Sprague has been able to extricate the Duke of Cambridge's Yeomanry from their difficulties.

The whole army of Free Staters is now between Senekal, Lindley and Ficksburg. It is reported to be composed chiefly of desperate men who would not go to the Transvaal to fight and who are too proud to surrender.

Their total number is believed to be from 3,000 to 4,000.

Late last night another correspondent cables as follows:

Pretoria, June 4.—Kruger has fled.
Lord Roberts is expected here in about two hours. The Burgomaster of Pretoria has been delegated to receive the British. The square is crowded with silent burghers awaiting their arrival.

The Boer armies have been dismissed. The forts around Pretoria are deserted. The British prisoners are practically free. At the instance of WASHINGTON NOTES.

Events, interesting or otherwise, at the Capitol.

C. F. V. Neely, the Chief of Finance of the Postal Service of Cuba, will be tried in that island under Spanish law on the charge of robbing the Government. Governor Roosevelt announced that he had granted the extradition demanded by Governor-General Wood through the War Department.

In every branch of official Washington the plan suggested of inviting the Boers to colonize in the United States meets with approval. All the Senators and Representatives who sympathize with "Oom Paul's" people in their war for liberty are enthusiastic over the idea, and it is favored by many of the Administration members, who recognize the excellence in character of the immigration proposed.

The Senate Sub-Committee on Judiciary will make a report to the full committee tomorrow on the nomination of John R. Hazel to be Federal Judge in the new Western New York district. The impression prevails that Hazel will be confirmed. It is not believed that the sub-committee will report against his confirmation, but that it will present a brief of the testimony submitted against him to the full committee without recommendation.
If this is done Senator Platt has sufficient influence with the Republican members of the committee to obtain a favorable report.

Princess Aribert, the grand-daughter of Queen Victoria, prefers to be received in Washington as the Countess of Munsterburg, the least of her many titles, rather than as Aribert of Anhalt.

The United States transport Meade has reached San Francisco with Major-General Otis on board.

Justice Chase, of the Supreme Court upon the petition of Attorney-General Davis, has ordered all the officials of the Ice Trust to appear before Meyer Nussbaum, as referee, with all the books, contracts and documents of the Trust, for examination by counsel at New York City.

SPORTING NOTES.

Frank Kramer, the erstwhile amateur bicycle champion, proved pretty conclusively on the Vailsburg track, Newark, Sunday that he is the greatest sprinter in America. He also showed himself as game a rider as ever strad-dled a wheel.

Tom Sharkey and "Yank" Kenny will fight twenty-five rounds at the Broadway Athletic Club on next Friday night. Kenny was Bob Fitzsimons's sparring partner for two years, and incidentally became a very clever boxer, fighting occasionally to enhance his reputation. Next to Jeffries, he is the biggest man in the ring to-day, and his size will give him quite an advantage over Sharkey.

Charles Fagerholm, a young Swede, completed his long bicycle ride from San Francisco to New York on Sunday. He started on April 12 at noon, and the entire trip took him 52 days 5 hours and 14 minutes. Fagerholm started from the Golden Gate City without a cent in his pockets. He said that he was treated kindly at most places, but in some places he was refused even a drink of water.
His route was from San Francisco to Idaho City, then over the Rocky Mountains to Yellowstone National Park to Helena, thence to Niagara Falls via Minneapolis, Milwaukee, Chicago and Buffalo. Fagerholm said he met the worst roads in the Empire State. He is a machinist by trade and merely took the ride in order to see the country.

On Saturday, June 16, the Larchmont Yacht Club, by far the best racing club in the country, will hold its annual Spring regatta. Prizes are offered for all classes of schooners, sloops, yawls, raceboats and catboats.
Entries will close on Thursday, June 4, and unless all signs fail the regatta will be one of the best of the season.

Atlanta, Ga., May 10.—The telegraphers' strike on the Southern Pacific system was formally discontinued Thursday morning by President W.
F. Powell of the O. R. T., who came to Atlanta to manage the strike for the men of the order.

GOMEZ BACK IN HAVANA.

Begins a Campaign for Presidency of Republic.

$500,000 IS SUBSCRIBED.

Friends Say He Will Endeavor to Obtain a Plebiscite of the Entire Island to Force Political Opponents—Heartily Welcomed on His Arrival from Santo Domingo.

Havana, June 4.—General Maximo Gomez arrived here yesterday, and was received with all honors. Representatives of the Nationalist and Republican parties and various societies went in different tugs, each having a band, to bid him welcome.

(Gen. Maximo Gomez.)

The motives that have induced him to return are the subject of much speculation. Many believe that General Gomez, disappointed at the attitude taken toward him by the people of Santo Domingo, has come back to Cuba to engage in an active campaign for the future presidency of the Cuban Republic.

An intimate friend of Gomez says that if the political parties refuse to combine he will establish a Cuba Libre party of his own and endeavor to obtain a plebiscite of the entire island, expecting in that way to force the political leaders to adopt his proposal, if only in the hope of a future office.

It is rumored that, for such a purpose, Gomez has been promised funds by a number of wealthy men, including a United States Senator, who is said to have offered $500,000 on certain conditions, to which Gomez will undoubtedly agree.

It is said his first step will be to bring all his influence to bear in favor of the election of the Mayorality of Havana of General Alejandro Rodriguez, partly for personal and partly for political considerations.

Already his friends have issued a statement saying that early in the week he will attempt to consolidate the Democratic, Republican and Nationalist parties, with a view of bringing about a harmonious constitutional convention in this city in August.

The authors of this statement contend that such a convention is the only path to independence.

It is reported that Gomez while at San Domingo said he was returning to Havana to bring about the complete and absolute independence of Cuba, and that he had such a convention in view.

Rev. William Henry Harrison, an Episcopal clergyman, died at Odgenburg, N. Y., aged seventy-five. He came to the diocese of Albany in 1882 from Newark, N. J. He was the last of the Harrison family, which was very prominently identified with the early settling of St. Lawrence County.

Lewis T. Howell, president of the National Bank of New Jersey, at New Brunswick, died in East Millstone, aged seventy-five. He was connected with the New Brunswick Gas Company and the New Brunswick Fire Insurance Company, and was very wealthy.

signed his post as Turkish commissioner to Egypt, has gone to Paris to join York Deutsche Kriegerbund.

Mrs. Gladstone is in a semi-conscious

It is thought she can not recover.
