the Pennsylvania Road Last Friday Night Was Quickly Solved by Detectives.

COLUMBUS, O., Aug. 13.—Charles R. H. Ferrell, a former employee of the Adams Express company, has been arrested in this city and has confessed to the killing of Messenger Charles Lane and the robbery of the way safe of the Adams Express company on the Pennsylvania east bound train which arrived in this city at midnight Friday. One thousand dollars of the money which he had stolen was recovered.

Ferrell was to have been married on Thursday next to Miss Lillian Costlow, daughter of Patrick Costlow, an engineer on the Pennsylvania line. He had been discharged from the employ of the Adams Express company about three months ago and had not since been able to secure employment. He confessed that the motive of the robbery was to secure money of which he felt in great need on account of his approaching marriage. The money recovered he had given to Miss Costlow to keep for him, saying that it was money he had saved from his earnings. He was at the home of his afflanced and in her company when placed under arrest.

The robbery had been carefully planned, and it included the murder of Express Messenger Lane. He had no accomplices and no confidants. He knew Lane well—in fact, they were friends, and he relied upon Lane's confidence to help him execute the crime. He knew that considerable money was always carried by the messenger on Pennsylvania train No. 8 between St. Louis and Columbus and that he was certain to secure a large sum if he robbed the way safe on that train. Having provided himself with a Smith & Wesson six shooter, 38 caliber, he went to Urbana Friday morning and waited for No. 8. When the train arrived there, Ferrell went at once to the express car and told Lane that he was out of money and asked permission to ride to Columbus with him. Lane consented, never for a moment suspecting the treachery of his pretended friend. For a short time after the train left Urbana they chatted pleasantly. Lane sat in a chair in the end of the car, wi rell, fearing that the wounds already inflicted would not cause death, took Lane's revolver and fired two more bullets into the body.

Ferrell then took the key to the way safe from the pocket of the dead messenger, opened the safe and placed Lane's revolver inside, where he could reach it easily in case he was detected and needed it to defend himself. After he had taken out all the sacks containing the money packages, money orders and way bills he placed them in a small satchel and waited until the car arrived at Plain City, when he slipped off the train.

Eleven Omnibus Passengers Killed and Eleven Others Seriously Hurt.

SLATINGTON, Pa., Aug. 13.—Eleven persons were instantly killed and 11 others, several of whom will die, were seriously injured last night in a grade crossing accident three miles east of this city by a passenger train on the Lehigh and New England railroad crashing into an omnibus containing 25 persons. All the dead and injured were in the omnibus, and but three escaped uninjured.

The accident occurred about 5 o'clock. The omnibus, driven by a man named Peters, was returning to Slatington from a funeral the occupants had been attending at Cherrysville. The coach belonged to Henry Bittner of Slatington, and the dead and injured were nearly all relatives of Sophia Schoeffer, at whose obsequies they had been present. The train was a special and consisted of an engine and one car. At the point at which the collision occurred there is a sharp curve in the road, and the omnibus came along at a good rate of speed, the occupants being unconscious of any impending danger. As the bus swung around the curve the engine and car came in sight. It was too late to stop either the omnibus or the train, and as the driver of the former whipped up the four horses to cross the track ahead of the train the latter crashed into its middle. The occupants were thrown in all directions, bruised and bleeding. The 11 dead were killed outright. Physicians and a special train were sent for, and the injured were taken to South Bethlehem.

GRATEFUL CUBANS.

The Teachers Not Unmindful of the Favors Received.

A loving cup to be presented to the university and the national concert which will be given next Thursday evening will partly serve the purpose. Yesterday, however, neatly printed cards were handed about by the Cubans to the guides, instructors and all other Americans in Cambridge who have been friendly to them in any way bearing the following words:

"The Cuban teachers who, through the efforts of Mr. Frye, have been enabled to attend the course of instruction in the Harvard summer school cannot find words to express their gratitude toward the American people and in particular toward all the officers of the university.

The earthly Zion of which Dr. Dowie is overseer is situated on the shores of Lake Michigan, 42 miles from Chicago, but the overseer does not live there yet, because the city is not completed. The headquarters of this sect is in Chicago, where for ten years it has existed and grown despite the efforts of the Chicago churches, the board of health and a large proportion of the citizens to drive it out. Starting with nothing, it has at present, according to its leader, more than 50,000 active members and has a recumulated property valued at $2,000,000.

An Estimate Giving the Big Lead of Regular Republicans.

QUAY TO MEET THE VOTERS.

From Maine Will Go Into the Counties and Canvass For Re-election to the United States Senate.

Counties and Canvass For Re-election to the United States Senate.

(Special Correspondence.)

Harrisburg, Aug. 14.—Since the departure of Col. M. S. Quay on a trip to Maine a persistent effort has been made by the insurgents and Democrats in Pennsylvania politics to create the impression that the Beaver statesman has decided to retire from politics. All sorts of reports have been put into circulation to the effect that the insurgents have made great gains and are in a position to influence the selection of the candidate for United States senator. Lists of figures purporting to represent the relative strength of the regulars and the insurgents have been published in insurgent papers and other matter has been given publicity with the idea of misleading the Republican voters in the counties yet to nominate members of the legislature.

FORMER CHAIRMAN ELKIN SPEAKS.

Former State Chairman John P. Elkin, who is in a position to get exact information on the political situation, has given a complete refutation of the insurgent statements, and in an interview for publication he has had this to say:

"Estimates and tables of figures pro-

"Estimates and tables of figures proclaimed by insurgent newspapers on the senatorial situation lack convincing force because no details are given.
I have just looked over the estimate published in the Philadelphia Press in an issue of recent date, and find it so wide of the mark that I do not apprehend it was intended to be either reliable or accurate. If the opposition newspapers want to be fair with the public in this matter it would be an easy task to make up a list of counties in alphabetical order, showing upon what facts their claims are based. The estimates thus far made public are as mysterious and misleading as the cipher dispatches of Chinese diplomats.
There are a few things which may be taken as fixed facts in this controversy.
In the first place Senator Quay is a candidate and will remais in the field until his successor is elected. Before leaving for Maine he informed his friends that upon his return he would make a tour of the state in the fall campaign on the senatorial and other public questions. It is his intention to carry this vexed senatorial question to the forum of the people, where he will meet his adversaries and give the electors of the state the opportunity of deciding it. In my judgment a decided to say:
"Estimates and tables of figures promeet his adversaries and give the electors of the state the opportunity of deciding it. In my judgment a decided majority of the voters in the state are in favor of re-electing Senator Quay for the United States senate. There has been so much misrepresentation about the partisan and factional complexion of the incoming legislature that a plain statement of the exact situation may prove of interest. The list of counties below show those in which primaries have already been held, those in which primaries have not been held, together with the results, so far as known.
