AMERICAN GUNBOAT SENT TO AMOY

The Arrival of Two Thousand Fresh
German Troops Reported—Members of the Tsung-li-yamen Appear in Peking.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 28.—After several days' intermission in Chinese advice the government has received two dispatches which presumably bring its advice up to the most recent date. There are indications that the principal delays in the lines of communication are encountered between Tien-tsin and Peking, a fact explainable by the newspaper advices that small bands of Boxers are operating on the line of communication by Lord Roberts' troops in the Transvaal campaign. Usually these interruptions are very short, the marauders being driven off and the lines restored within a day or two. The fact that more than a week was covered by the last interruption gives rise to the belief here that these attacks upon the lines of communication by Boxers are more formidable than was supposed to be possible after the heavy losses inflicted upon them by the international forces in the advance.

The most important dispatch was one from Minister Conger, relative to the military situation in Peking. Unfortunately it lacked a date, the minister presumably not having yet received the department's instruction to include the date in the body of his dispatches. The state department at first undertook to have the cable companies correct this serious omission, but finally concluding from internal evidence that Mr. Conger's message was certainly later than any official emanation from the Chinese capital the message was allowed publicity for what it was worth. Mr. Conger's reference to the arrival of 2,000 fresh German troops caused some surprise, no one apparently having closely watched the movements of the German contingent, which is now arriving with fairly regular frequency in China and which consequently may be expected soon to equal in numerical strength the military contingents of any of the European nations there represented.

A significant statement in Minister Conger's dispatch is that respecting the expected appearance in Peking of some of the members of the Tsung-li-yamen. A natural construction to be given to this statement is that these ministers wish to undertake to represent the Chinese government formally in negotiations with the powers. It having been found impossible up to this moment, according to Mr. Conger's statement, to meet any representative of the Chinese government in Peking who was competent to open negotiations, it may be inferred that if these ministers actually appear with proper credentials one of the problems connected with the present difficult situation in China will be solved.

With some responsible person or persons to deal with it may be possible for the United States to come to some agreement as to a settlement of the Chinese trouble. Ever since the fall of Peking the principal difficulty confronting the government here has been to arrange for the next movement in its programme.

Another event of some interest is the order dispatching the Castine from Shanghai to Amoy, distant about 400 miles. The little gunboat should make the run in about two days under favorable conditions. Her force is small, but sufficient to serve the moral purpose, if there be need for such. It appears that she is ordered to Amoy quite as much on account of representations from well informed business circles as from any official advice. The consul at Amoy agreeing with the representations of the business interests, it was decided to be proper to send a gunboat to Amoy not because of any particular apprehension as to Japanese aspirations, but to prevent rioting at this dangerous point. The first direct word from General Chaffee since Aug. 18 came in the form of a cablegram reporting the action of the Sixth cavalry with the enemy near Tien-tsin on the 19th. The cable is dated Aug. 27 and is as follows:

"Colonel Wint on the 19th reports marched at 4 a. m. and engaged large force of enemy seven miles from city. Dispersed them, killing about 100. Americans lost five wounded. Will cable names wounded as soon as ascertained."

Colonel Wint is lieutenant colonel of the Sixth cavalry, but is acting as colonel in the absence of Colonel Sumner, who is in Europe. The fight probably occurred near Tien-tsin, as the Sixth cavalry was at that place at the time mentioned.

THE ALLIES AGGRESSIVE.

General Yung Lu Said to Have Started the Boxer Outbreak.

LONDON, Aug. 28.—The allies, resuming aggressive operations, have taken the district west of Peking. This statement, based on Chinese authority, is cabled from Shanghai. From the same place comes the further statement that Li Hung Chang has wired the empress dowager at Hsiao-fu requesting the arrest of Prince Tuan and the disarmament of the Boxers in order to give him an opening for negotiations with the Boxers.

The illuminations projected at Shanghai in celebration of the relief of Peking have been abandoned, lest they should cause a native outbreak.

"Evidence has been received here," says the Shanghai correspondent of The Standard, "going to show that General Yung Lu was the real author of the anti-foreign outbreak, the empress dowager, Prince Tuan and the others all being persuaded by him to take an extreme attitude while he stood aside and awaited developments."

Remains of Defeat For Allies.

PARIS, Aug. 28.—A special dispatch to Le Siècle from St. Petersburg says: "It is persistently rumored in St. Petersburg that the Russian government has received a dispatch asserting that after a fierce battle inside of Peking the allies retreated, losing 1,800 men, mostly Russians. It is further said that the Chinese occupy fortified positions, from which they are bombarding the allies in a murderous manner."

G. A. R. ENCAMPMENT

Mr. Bryan Declines to Be Present.

LARGE ATTENDANCE OF VETERANS

New York's Delegation a Record
Breaker—Other Eastern States
Well Represented—Naval Parade the First Day's Feature.

CHICAGO, Aug. 28.—William J. Bryan has followed the example of President McKinley and declined to be a visitor at the national encampment. He yesterday sent a message to Executive Director William H. Harper, the head of the local committee in charge of the local end of the encampment, saying that because of the absence of President McKinley from the encampment he considered it advisable to remain away. His telegram is as follows:

"W. H. Harper, Executive Director of the Grand Army Reunion, Chicago—Since President McKinley is detained by public business I believe that the proprieties of the occasion demand that I also decline and thus relieve the remembrance of any appearance of partisanship."

The local committee through Mr. Harper expressed its regrets at the inability of Mr. Bryan to be present.

The thirty-fourth annual encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic, which was formally opened Sunday night by the monster meeting in the Coliseum, is in full blast, and in all respects it promises to be the greatest and most successful encampment the army has ever held. Train after train loaded down with veterans and their friends has rolled into the various depots in the city, and by last night it was estimated by railroad officials that 45,000 old soldiers had arrived and that 300,000 other excursionists had come with them. There were many thousand additional arrivals this morning. The veterans have come from all parts of the republic, and every northern state has sent a strong contingent. The New York delegation is one of the largest the Empire State has ever sent to an annual encampment. Fully 1,000 of them had come in by this morning, and every train from the east brings more of them. New Jersey, Pennsylvania and the New England states are all represented by large numbers of old soldiers. Iowa, Ohio and Indiana and Wisconsin have sent larger numbers than any encampment of recent years. General J. Warren Keifer of Ohio and General Edward S. Bragg of Wisconsin both said they looked to see the greatest number of old soldiers that had marched at one time beneath the stars and stripes since the memorable review in Washington at the close of the war.

The first day of the encampment was one of ideal beauty in marked contrast to the hot and humid weeks that have preceded it since the 1st of August. There was in the early portion of the day a fresh breeze off Lake Michigan, tempering the heat of the sun, which shone brightly but not too warmly to make marching a burden for the old veterans, who claimed the day as theirs. The right of the line on the opening day was given to the men who sailed the seas during the civil war. The cheering was all for them, and the honors were theirs. The army will come to its own today.

The late afternoon feature of the day's celebration, the naval parade on Lake Michigan, proved somewhat of a disappointment. The end of the naval fight off Lincoln park closed the official programme of the encampment for the day, but all over the city in various halls and in the hotels there were reunions of regiments almost without number, gatherings of comrades who had not met since the days of the war and fraternal gatherings of all sorts and descriptions. One of the leading affairs of the night was the banquet of the Iron brigade, which was held at the clubhouse of the athletic club at 8:30. On the list of speakers were the following:

Speaker D. B. Henderson, Julius C. Burrows, United States senator from Michigan; Governor Edward Scofield of Wisconsin, General Albert D. Shaw, commander in chief of the G. A. R.; Governor James A. Mount of Indiana, James G. Flanders of Milwaukee, Charles G. Dawes, comptroller of the currency, and General Edward S. Bragg of Wisconsin.

A meeting of the National Association of ex-Prisoners of War was held in the Coliseum, which drew a large crowd, an attractive programme being rendered. The address of welcome was delivered by Mayor Harrison. Speeches were also made by Governor William A. Stone of Pennsylvania, United States Senator Penrose of Pennsylvania and General John C. Black of Chicago.

Hill and the officers of the United States training ship Essex. Sousa received several ovations, and the principal soloists were repeatedly encored. The citizens of Amsterdam have presented to Sousa a silk Netherlands flag. Today the band left for London, sailing from Southampton next Saturday on the St. Louis.
