P. Gray Meek, Candidate For Auditor General, a Typical Representative of Democracy.

HIS COPPERHEAD RECORD REVEALED.

Missing Documents Found Whi Tell the Story of His Arrest by United States Authorities on Charge of Interfering With Drafting of Troops-His Venome Attacks Upon the Martyred Pre dent in Line With the Bryan Policy of the Present Campaign.

(Special Correspondence.) Bellefonte, Pa., Oct. 23.
The attacks of the Bryanite Demo
racy of today upon President Willia
McKinley in their "anti-imperialism campaign vividly recall the assau made by the leaders of the same par upon the martyred President Abraha

Sensational interest is attached the discovery this week of certa missing documents and other papers a case in which the Democratic ca didate for auditor general in this ca paign, P. Gray Meek, was involved.

P. Gray Meek, during the dark da of the rebellion, was one of the mo-blatant and bitter vilifiers of Predent Lincoln and his administration
He was arrested by the United Sta

authorities and had a very close of from going to jail for a long te upon the charge of interfering w the drafting of men for the Un

army and other treasonable actions.
But for the intercession of influentifriends and, possibly through mea which it might be well not to dw upon, the escaped punishment for l assonable work.

Meek was then a venomous copp head Democrat.

His newspaper, The Democra Watchman, which he still publish fairly teemed with abuse of Lincomembers of his cabinet and those rectly in charge of the suppression the rebellion, in almost every issued ing the war.

The attacks of the Bryanite Den cratic leaders of today upon Preside McKinley in connection with the criticism of the conduct of the car paign against the insurgents in paign against the insurgents in character compared with the abu and defamation heaped upon Linco by the Democracy of his day and m of the type of Meek.

When P. Gray Meek was propos for the nomination for auditor gene this year there were those who called the circumstances of his arr in 1865 and of the terrible character his editorial comments upon Lincol administration and his work in try to incite citizens of Pennsylvania to sist the drafts for troops to defend flag and the honor of his country.

The Democratic leaders who we then engaged in condemning President. McKinley for his policy in the Phil pines evidently did not regard Mee mckiney for his poncy in the Finity pines evidently did not regard Meek record as inconsistent with the polic of the Democracy of today. The blandly asserted that the voters wou not be influenced by what Mr. Mewrote or did 35 years ago, anyhow. Besides, it was stated that the pers in the case had all been abstract from the public records and that the would be no material other than the treiteration of a vague story with which to direct the attention of the people to the fact of the arrest. Meek at the instance of the Unit States authorities.

Several citizens of this place with were familiar with the circumstanc of Meek's arrest went to work to to get at the documents in the car After diligent inquiry they have final gotten hold of the copy of the indicement against Meek and other pape of record, and they succeeded in geting a copy of his mewspaper. Ti Democratic Watchman. of the issue ting a copy of his newspaper, T Democratic Watchman, of the issue July 22, 1864. The leading editorial of this de-read as follows:

500,000 MORE.

Another edict has gone forth and on the 5th of September the wheel from which is drawn the order of death will be put in motion again. King Abraham wants more victims, fanaticism demands more blood, and five hundred thousand more men must offer up their more blood, and five hundred thousand more men must offer up their lives on the bloody altar of infide abolitionism. Is there to be no stop to this terrible work, no lul in the cry for blood? Must the "powers that be" surfeit on it, before we can hope for an end to this horrid butchery—this fiendish frightful war?

"Already two millions of men

horrid butchery—this fiendish, frightful war?

Already two millions of men have been called for and responded. Where are they today? Let the buillions of graves that mark the soil of the southern states—the sickening hospitals filled with thousands of men, disabled in limbs, broken in health, who are wasting away the miserable remnant of their lives in pain and poverty around us, answer; and then let the condition of our country today tell what these sacrifices have been for, and what good has been accomplished by them. That Abraham Lincoln will be idiotic enough to attempt to enforce another draft we have not the least doubt, notwithstanding the "signs of the times" indicate platialy that it will be a dangerous undertaking for him, and those
