their efforts in a single district in the United States where it is possible to elect a Republican to the next house of representatives, so that there may be assured to us a working majority in that branch of our national legislature.

AS TO THE SENATE.

"While the house of representatives is admittedly close in its political complexion, it is supposed that the senate has a more assured majority. Such, however, is not the fact. It is impossible in the limited time allowed me to go fully into the facts and figures, but I will call your attention to a few salient instances. Colorado, Idaho, Kansas, Wyoming, Montana and Nebraska, now represented by Republican senators, will elect senators to take the seats of those in the Fifty-seventh congress on March 4, 1901. North Carolina is represented by a Populist and South Dakota by a silver Republican and Populist, and in both of these states the election of Republican senators ought to be possible.

"All of these states, however, were carried for Bryan four years ago, and if he is elected president this year there is at least a reasonable probability that he will carry two others, Delaware and West Virginia, and in carrying them for the electoral ticket would, of course, carry the legislature with him.

"Presuming that the representation of the remaining states in the senate will probably be the same in the next congress as in the present one, the senate would then stand: Republicans for gold standard, 46; opposition for silver standard, 44. The loss of a Republican senator in a single one of the other states would divide the senate equally on March 4, 1901.

WHAT IS INVOLVED.

"The election of a Democrat to the senate for Pennsylvania, or even the failure of the legislature to elect, might throw the senate into control of the Democratic party within two years. The whole history of the control of the senate has indicated that that body has invariably been most closely divided upon all issues. Again, it may be recalled that in Indiana only one Republican was elected to the United States senate, and he only for a single term between 1875 and 1895, likewise in Ohio from 1875 to 1897, a period of 23 years, one of the Ohio senatorial seats was filled by a Democrat, and from 1879 to 1881 both of them were so filled. California and New York also has only been recently represented by two Republican senators each. Pennsylvania has also had her Democratic senators, notwithstanding our enormous Republican majority, and with these instances of the uncertainty of the senate in mind it is also well to recall that in the last 13 congressional elections the Democrats have won eight times. When we consider that, while an effort is being made to cover up the issue of free silver under the trumped-up issue of imperialism, that this free silver issue is still the vital and dominant issue in the Democratic party and is as important as it ever was to the integrity of our financial system, the conscientious and patriotic and thoughtful voter may well hesitate to trifle with the demagoguery of Bryanism or be led by the allurements of those who would weaken or destroy their support and allegiance to any part of the Republican party by appealing to local or factional discontent or differences."

WAR VETERANS AND THEIR SONS.

Patriotic Pennsylvanians Rallying For McKinley and Republicanism.

EXPERIENCES IN TWO WARS.

Bryanites of Today Are But Repeating Copperhead Attacks Which Characterized Their Party in the Days of Lincoln.

In view of the malicious assaults upon the McKinley administration and the United States soldiers in the Philippines by the Bryanites of today, a profound sensation was made by the recent publication of the story of the arrest of P. Gray Meek, present Democratic candidate for auditor general in Pennsylvania, for his copperhead newspaper assaults upon Lincoln in the dark days of the rebellion. Meek's attacks upon Lincoln were no more bitter nor vindictive than are the tirades of his Democratic associates in this campaign against McKinley.

A feeling of intense hostility to the present leadership of the Democracy has been aroused among men who have served in the army and navy of the United States, both during the rebellion and in the recent war with Spain.

Sons of veterans of the civil war who number many thousands in Pennsylvania, are thoroughly aroused, and they propose to make their influence felt at the coming election. Many of them who have been voting with the Democracy will vote for President McKinley and the entire Republican ticket.

National headquarters of the Veterans' Patriotic League have been established in Philadelphia, and great work is being done in the way of organizing the old soldiers and the sons of veterans.

General Director Daniel Sickles, who is a conspicuous factor in this organization, has issued an appeal for support for President McKinley, which voices the sentiments of those with whom he is associated.

"Let me urge every soldier and sailor," says General Sickles, "to lay aside party feeling and unite for national honor and for law and order, as you did in '61 and '65. The present crisis seems to me as vital to the welfare of the country as that which called us to the field.

PROSPERITY AND SAFETY.

the prosperity the nation now enjoys. Let us run no risk by disturbing the conditions which are rapidly giving to us the control of the best markets in the world for the products of our mines, our manufactories and of our farms. The re-election of McKinley means employment for labor everywhere at good wages, paid in gold.

"It means profitable markets for our wheat, corn and cotton, for our gold, iron and steel, for all of our manufactured products.

"It means the preservation of our national honor, by the fulfillment of our obligations to the creditors of the nation, to the veteran soldiers and sailors, and the widows and orphans entitled to pensions; to the public creditors who hold the securities of the government, to the holders of hundreds of millions of paper money, for which the credit of the nation is pledged.

The re-election of Comrade McKinley means security and safety to two thousand million dollars, deposited in our savings banks—the earnings of our mechanics and laborers, otherwise threatened by the loss of one-half of this vast sum, if Mr. Bryan is permitted to debase our currency to his silver standard of 16 to 1.

"The re-election of Comrade McKinley means a preference to be given to worthy veteran soldiers and sailors; it means a continuation of our liberal pension policy.

"The re-election of Comrade McKinley means tranquility and prosperity at home, peace in the Philippine Islands, the maintenance of our national honor, the vindication of our flag, and the augmented influence of our beloved country among the nations of the world.

"Let all of us vote for McKinley and Roosevelt—heroes of two wars—statesmen to whom the country may well confide its interests and its honor, patriots who have risked their lives in defense of our flag, illustrious citizens, both of them, who have given ample evidence in all their public employment and in private life, that they possess the attainments and the virtues which dignify the high stations for which they are nominated.

COPPERHEAD DAYS RECALLED.

"In 1864 copperheads prolonged the war and cost the Union army tens of thousands of lives by encouraging the south to hope for a settlement on their own terms with the Democratic party, if successful in the presidential election of that year. The re-election of Lincoln in 1864 saved the Union. The war Democrats voted for him and gave him victory. In 1900 copperheads are sacrificing the lives of our soldiers in the Philippine Islands by encouraging Aguinaldo and his foolish followers to hope for success if Mr. Bryan is president. The re-election of Comrade McKinley will bring peace and prosperity to the Philippine Islands and put an end to copperheadism in this country.

"Comrades, let us stand together once more for our country, its peace, its prosperity and welfare and honor. Let us again put patriotism above partisanship. Let us stand together, touching elbows, as Comrade McKinley stood with us in the ranks in 1861."

A MIGHTY FORCE FOR M'KINLEY.

Young Republicans of Pennsylvania Will Labor at the Polls on Tuesday Next.

TO WORK FOR THE WHOLE TICKET

Thousands of Club Men Are Appealed to That the Democracy Shall Have No Opportunity to Rejoice When the Returns Come In.

Republicans everywhere throughout Pennsylvania are preparing for next Tuesday's election, so that they may perform a solemn duty to their families, to state and to their country, to vote the whole Republican ticket.

There are many "howlers" of active, progressive young men who will not be content with merely casting their ballots for McKinley and Roosevelt and the entire Republican ticket, but they propose to labor all day to get others to the polls to do likewise.

CLUB MEN ACTIVE.

In an address just issued to members of Republican clubs J. Hampton Moore, president of the State League of Republican Clubs, gives this timely notice:

"In the approaching election for president of the United States the forces of the Pennsylvania State League of Republican Clubs are expected to play a most important part. The recent convention held in Philadelphia demonstrated the enthusiasm and earnestness of the workers of the league, and justified the expectation that excellent results would be forthcoming in the interest of McKinley and Roosevelt, and the whole Republican ticket.

"It is not my purpose as president of the league to enlarge upon the advantages of the Republican party policy. All good citizens should be united upon this point. It is my duty, however, to issue this final call to all Republican club members of the state to put their best foot forward in the fight which is to be determined on Nov. 6.

"Shall McKinley or Bryan rule this country? That is the question. If you are for McKinley, work for him; vote for him; urge your neighbors and friends to work and vote for him. Permit no citizen who is interested in the commercial and business life of the community to fail in his full duty as a citizen. Make him come out to vote; see that his vote is counted, and see that it is counted upon the right side.

"What you do for McKinley and Roosevelt do also for your own state

This week's Herald, as usual, knowing that it can not convince intelligent voters, tries to gain the less intellectual by circulating cock-and-bull stories about Dr. Christian and F. P. Vincent, the falsity of which can not be proven.

The voters who are stupid enough to be taken in by such ridiculous nonsense are very few. Such trash is only considered as boomerang and hurts most those who use it.

If, according to the Herald, Dr. Christian voted (72) times favoring Quay measures, the old man must be on the right side of all legislative questions. Here is Mr. Christian's record of the voting he done, and for the life of us we can not see why it is not all right. He was an earnest advocate of all the legislation in favor of pure butter and in aid of the farmer. He voted for the amendment to the constitution, which Gov. Stone afterward vetoed, and which veto was overruled by the supreme court. He voted for the Keater ballot law, and Farmer Creasy's tax bill. His vote is recorded in the negative on all measures increasing salaries and creating useless offices. It was largely through his work and influence that the appropriation for the Sayre hospital was increased from $6,000 to $10,000.

It is easy for the Herald to make false statements, but these are plain facts taken from official records.

Has Refused to Accept the Vacancy in the Judgeship.

Addison Candor's declination of the judgeship of Lycoming county reached Governor Stone Wednesday morning. The governor asked him to reconsider the matter but this he declines to do.

candidates. Give your loyal support to E. B. Hardenbergh, the Republican nominee for auditor general, and to Galusha A. Grow and Robert H. Foerderer, the Republican nominees for congressmen-at-large. They are worthy and deserving men, who are entitled to and should receive the full Republican vote.

VOTE THE WHOLE TICKET.

"Do not be deceived in any of your congressional districts. Stand for the regular Republican nominees. If the president of the United States is to be William McKinley see that a congressman is elected who will support him. Mr. McKinley is the head and front of the Republican organization of the United States. His support comes from the organization of the Republican party in the various states. Pennsylvania, the greatest of the Republican states, should be stalwart in its support, and should not elect a single congressman who is not in thorough sympathy with the Republican party, and with the president, who is its inspiration and fountain head.

"It is a safe rule to stand for the regularity of nominations. The State League stands not only for the maintenance of Republican principles, but it stands for the rule of the majority. Wherever a congressional candidate has been regularly nominated he should receive the support of all the members of the State League.

SHOULD BE NO WAVERING.

"The loss of one congressman in Pennsylvania may turn the next house of representatives. The president of the United States, the chairman of the national executive committee and the chairman of the national congressional committee have each urged that there be no wavering on the part of the Republicans of Pennsylvania.

"Let us hope that the expectations of the leaders of the party in state and nation may be realized, and that the State League may be able, after the returns are in, to claim the honor of having swelled the majority to upwards of THREE HUNDRED THOUSAND VOTES.

"The only danger that confronts the party is inaction and apathy. The State League has never heretofore failed to do its part. Its enthusiasm has been a welcome factor in this campaign. Let us hope the result will justify its labor.

"Remember from now until Nov. 6 the important question for you, your neighbors and friends is

"M'KINLEY AND CONFIDENCE. BRYAN AND UNCERTAINTY. Which?"

PUT THE CROSS IN THE REPUBLICAN CIRCLE.

The regular Republican nominees, from President McKinley down, should receive every Republican vote. Differences of opinion should be laid on the shelf, at least until the next primary elections, and Republicans of all shades of thought and feeling should go to the polls on election day to mark the circle at the head of the Republican column.

AID AND COMFORT SHOULD NOT BE GIVEN THE DEMOCRATIC PARTY BY VOTING FOR ANY PART OF THE DEMOCRATIC TICKET OR BY SCRATCHING ANY PART OF THE REPUBLICAN TICKET.
