(Special Correspondence.) Harrisburg, Nov. 6.—Another aggres sive move has been made by the state department of agriculture, through Farmer Cope, the dairy and food commissioner, against the violators of the law regarding the sale of oleo colored in imitation of butter. After the successful raids in Philadelphia and Pittsburg it was thought that the traffic in this commodity would cease.

Farmer Cope is not taking anything for granted. While he is preparing to fight in court the cases in which he has had accused parties indicted, and to have the accused convicted and sentenced, he is still hard at work directing his agents, who are constantly on the go with the view to securing fresh evidence of violations of the law. In Philadelphia last week a number of warrants were issued at the instance of Farmer Cope from the office of Magistrate Stratton, and more arrests are to follow.

The records of the department of agriculture show that over 3,000 samples have been gathered by agents of the department of agriculture in this state since the first of the year.

These have all been submitted to chemists for analysis.

When the results have shown that what was sold as pure butter was noth-ing more than oleo colored in imitation of the product of the dairy, arrests have been promptly made and the cases have been brought to trial as speedily

Secretary Hamilton and Commissioner Cope have been acting under instructions from Governor Stone to spare neither time, labor nor expense to bring every violator of the law to justice, and they have made a record for faithful and efficient work that can be matched by the officials of no other state in the union.

Recent cases in Philadelphia show that while the state officials were being denounced by a yellow journal and charged with neglecting their duty, they were quietly gathering samples and preparing their case, so that they might make a thorough presentation when the matter reached court when the matter reached court.

While Secretary Hamilton and Com-missioner Cope are not disclosing their hand, they have a number of cases under way which will be brought to light when the next batch of arrests

Commissioner Cope said: "We are determined to prosecute all offenders, and our agents will not relax in their work of gathering samples wherever we have the least suspicion that the law is being violated. Since my ineumbency in the position of dairy and food commissioner, a period of about four months, the department has brought about 700 suits and prosecutions, making nearly 1,000 for the year up to date, which is the best answer that could be given to any critics of this administration."

The records of the department of agriculture show that since Jan. 1 there have been over 3,000 samples taken by the agents of the department, and there have been 983 arrests.

In the crusades secretly and thoroughly conducted in Philadelphia and Pittsburg the greatest care was taken to insure the best results. The agents did not know the plans of their superiors, nor were they acquainted with each other. In addition to the pick of the regular force of agents many of the regular force of agents many young men and women, sons and daughters of farmers and dairymen, were specially employed, and they did most effective work in gathering samplee and ferroting out violators of the

NEW YORK. Nov. 3.—The death of former Mayor William L. Strong, which received early resterday morning after a few hours' illness at his home, 12 West Fifty-seventh street, was entirely unexpected and came as a great shock to his family and friends. Mr. Strong had been ill for several months.

At the bedside when the former mayor passed away as quietly as he had sunk into a sleeplike stupor a short time before were his wife, his son, Major Putnamn Bradlee Strong; his daughter, Mrs. Albert R. Shattuck; two nurses and three old family servants.

Mr. Strong appeared as well the previous night as he had been at any time since his old aliment, gout, attacked him six weeks ago and dined with the family in the evening. He retteed at 11 o'clock and apparently went quietly to sleep.

Mr. Strong when ejoyed the distinction of being the first Republican mayor of New York for many years and the last executive head of the old city, was 73 years old.

William L. Strong was born in Richland county, O., on March 22, 1827. The greater part of his boyhood was passed in his native place. When he was 13 years old, his father died. He was thus thrown, in great measure, upon his own resources. He attended the common schools of the county. But the opportunity for a college education was by circumstances withheld from him. When he was 16 years old, he left home to enter a retail dry goods house in Wooster, O., where he served an apprenticeship of two years. Thence he removed to Mansfield, in the same state, where, continuing in the dry goods trade, his proport were better. In 1853 he came to this last named firm was dissolved, and in January of 1870 it was succeeded by Farnham, Sutton & Co. and in turn by Sutton, Smith & Co. in December, 1869, this last named firm was dissolved, and in January of 1870 it was succeeded by W. L. Strong & Co., which firm has continued to the present time.

LONDON, Nov. 6.—The war office has the following from Lord Roberts, dated Johannesburg, Nov. 3:

"On Nov. 1 Smith-Dorrien surprised a Boer laager at Witkop, but was prevented from following up his success by the inclement weather. While he was retiring he was attacked by the Boers, who were repulsed with heavy loss. Captain Charmens and one of the Canadian Mounted rifles were killed, and Major Saunders was wounded."

The queen has decorated and promoted 20 naval officers serving in South Africa. Rear Admiral Sir Robert Hastings Harris has been made a Knight Commander of the Bath.

Roberts Not Sure to Return.

DURBAN, Nov. 6.—According to a dispatch from Pietermaritzburg The Times of Natal says that the return of Lord Roberts to England may still be delayed for several weeks.

Senator Davis Doing Well.

ST. PAUL, Nov. 6.—Dr. A. J. Stone, the physician in charge of United States Senator Davis, states that the slight operation on the senator's foot yesterday afternoon showed it to be in much better condition than either he or Dr. Murphy had expected to find it and that only the simplest kind of an operation had been necessary in order to clear a passage for the pus that had collected under the foot. The former operation had been over the top of the foot, and this was under the foot in the same manner as the first. The senator had revived from the slight operation in good shape. He insisted there had been no question of amputation and that Senator Davis was getting along very well in every way.
