Ignorance is the mother of scepticism. Ignorance does not abound to any great extent in Sullivan County. So that there is But Little Scepticism about the Value of The News Item As a Profitable Advertising Medium. Read it, Your neighbor does. Subscribe, Don't borrow.

County Seat Indices. AND GLANCES AT THE TIMES.

—Miss Ina Osler spent Tuesday night in Dushore. —Miss Ella Irwin is visiting friends in Watsonstown. —Miss Marcella Farrel of Dushore visited Miss Ina Osler over Sunday. —M. C. Mercer of Eldredsville, was a business man in town, Monday. —Miss Mary Fries is visiting her sister, Mrs. Chas. Coleman, at Newberry, Pa. All aboard for Salt River! A big crowd goes up every fall. Annual trip fare, free. —The ballot printing, election blanks and advertising cost Bradford county about $1,000 for this election. —Jerry Kennedy has moved his family from Titusville to the J. L. Smith residence in Laporte. —There will be many disappointments over election, especially among those who made election bets. —Mrs. H. W. Osler left early Thursday morning for Philadelphia where she will visit friends for several weeks. —Atty. Bradley cast his vote early Tuesday morning with his grip in his hand, then left town until next day. —Miss Viola Dunlap, of Hills-grove, and Mr. Norman Slagenwhit, of Procter, were married in Williamsport, November, 6th. —Judge Dunham, Atty. Wm. Shoemaker, W. C. Mason and Chas. Funston voted early Tuesday morning then started for Philadelphia. —Isaac T. Lowe who has been in Watsonstown for some time, was shaking hands with friends in Laporte, Monday. —Mrs. Sarah Gower, living near Sonestown, will expose to public sale her valuable farm, a portable sawmill, farming implements, grain, cattle, horses and household goods, on the premises, Friday, November 16th. —A reward of $25 will be paid by Sheriff H. W. Osler, for the capture and return of Frank Smith, who escaped from the jail last Saturday evening by crawling through the hole that is used to pass food from the kitchen to the jail. Smith was placed in jail several weeks ago on a charge of larceny and was awaiting trial. Landlord McKibbins, of Lopez, had the arrest made, claiming that Smith had stolen $30 from him and one of his boarders. —The nation has been true to its own interest. The American people have for the second time repudiated Bryanism and everything the term represents. The re-election of Wm. McKinley means a great deal more than a mere party triumph. It is a popular condemnation of the dangerous theories advocated by Bryan. It proves that the American people could not be stampeded by the false cries of "Imperialism" and "Militarism" and that a large majority of the citizens of these United States demand a continuance of the economic policies that have restored the country's industries to a condition of prosperity. The nation has vindicated the honest, wise and patriotic administration of President McKinley; the people have stamped with the seal of their approval what the administration has accomplished and approves the policies it is proposed to carry out.

A dozen theories are advanced as to the cause of the explosion. Two men were found dead in a part of the mine which had been abandoned. The door at the mouth of the mine was shut, and two men were blown 250 feet from the mouth. Half a Million More From Nome. SEATTLE, Nov. 5.—The steamer Senator has arrived from Nome, bringing down 333 passengers and $500,000 in treasure. She left Nome Oct. 21.
