TWO VOTES FOR REGULARS. Authentic announcements that both Muchibronner and Sproul will act with regulars, at once exploded the insur-gents' claims.

Senator Muchlbronner, because, pos sibly, he resides in Allegheny county, was stated to be under obligations to Senator William Flinn, of that county, the insurgent leader. Mr. Muchlbronner disposed of this

Mr. Muchnormer disposed of this report in a most emphatic manner in an authorized public statement. "I am not a party traitor," said Senator Muchlbronner. "I have al-ways been a Republican and I propose to vote with the Republicans and i pose not with the Democrats. It has always been my policy to act with the major-ity in my party, and it is my inten-tion to adhere to that principle, which I believe to be right and proper, for upon our support of this policy will depend the success of the Republican party

"For whom do you intend to vote for president pro tem. of the senate?" Senator Muchlbronner was asked. "I believe, in fact I am convinced, that a large majority of the Republi-can members of the state senate favor the re-election of Senator William P. Snyder, of Chester county, for that office, and I intend to support him. I have no doubt of his election.". Senator Muchlbronner will go into the Republican caucus on the United States senatorship and will vote for Col. M. S. Quay to succeed himself. SNYDER IS A WINNER.

Senator Sproul, although he co-operated with the insurgents during the last session, is a stanch supporter operated with the insurgents during the last session, is a stanch supporter of Senator Snyder for president pro-tem. of the senate. With a view of getting them to join their ranks the insurgents, despite their secret arrangement with the Democratic operated pro-tem., have been making overtures to Senator Sproul. They have promised to sup-port him for president pro-tem. if he will co-operate with them. "I knew that Senator Sproul was be-ing urged to become a candidate against me even before I saw the an-nouncement to that effect in the news-papers," said Senator Snyder in dis-cussing the matter. "No sooner had the statement appeared in print, how-ever, than I received a letter from Mr. Sproul stating that he would vote for me for president of the state senate and adding that he was not a candi-date, and that he had no intention of opposing me for re-election. "I might also add that I have more than enough votes pledged me to as-sure my election" remarked Senator than enough votes pledged me to as-sure my election," remarked Senator

Snyder. Another member of the state senate who has been heard from within the last few days is Senator E. B. Harden-bergh, of Wayne county, the auditor ceneral-elect, who will co-operate with the stalwarts during the balance of his term in the senate.

HARDENBERGH SPEAKS OUT.

In their campaign of misrepresenta-tion the insurgents started a report that Senator Hardenbergh had fallen out with the regulars over the ques-tion of patronage in his new office. This story was quickly disposed of by Senator Hardenbergh in a public state-ment, in which he said:

ent, in which he said: "I am of the opinion that it is the moral duty of every member elect-ed to the legislature to follow the usage prescribed by the party with which he is affiliated, either in or-ganising the legislature, selecting a candidate for United States sena-tor or concerning legislation of a man throughout the deadlock on the United States senatorship, was not re-elected. A young Republican, David J. Smyth, was successful in securing the Republican nomination for the house in this district. He was elected by a good majority. In accordance with their policy in other sections of the state, the insurgents put Repre-sentative-elect Smyth down as an an-ti-Quay man, and cited the fact that he had defeated a man who had voted for Quay at the last session. INSURGENT GAIN EXPLODED INSURGENT GAIN EXPLODED.

for Quay at the last session. INSURGENT GAIN EXPLODED. Representative Smyth has disposed of this insurgent newspaper yarn, and placed himself squarely on record with the regulars. "I can conceive of but one course to be pursued by a loyal and consistent Republican in the matter of the organ-ization of the legislature of Peunsyl-vania and the election of a United States senator," said Representative-elect Smyth last evening. "Although but a young man, and this will be my first session, I am satisfied that there is but one thing for a Republican to do, who is a member of the legislature. He must stand by his party organiza-tion; he must stand by his party, if must vote for a choice of a majority of the Republican members of the legis-lature for officials of that body, and he must support the candidate of a major-ity of the Republicans for United States senator. "This is my first experience as a pub-lic official, but I am satisfied that I can make no mistake in conforming with the time-honored usages and customs of my party and complying with the will of a majority of my party. I come from a district which is stalwart in its Republicanism, which believes in the principles of the Republican party, and which has been steadfast in its support of Republican candidates. of Republican candidates. COMBINE WITH NO DEMOCRATS. "Neither Democrats nor assistant Democrats can command consideration from the Republican voters of the Sixth legislative district of Philadel-phia, who have honored me with an election to the state house of repre-sentatives. No Republican elected from this district dare fuse, unite or combine with the Democracy for any purpose and hope for re-election to the legislature or support for any office in the future. The Republicans of this district believe in majority rule. By that principle Major McKinley was elected president of the United States, and through the observance of that principle he will succeed himself in that office. "There can be no questioning the fact that a large majority of the Re-publicans elected to the next legisla-ure were chosen by the people with the knowledge that they favored and would vote for the re-election of Col. M. S. Quay to the United States sen-ate. The issue was plainly and square-ly put at the Republicans of the dis-trict which I represent are in favor of the election of Col. Quay to the United States sente, I would graceful-ly support any other Republican who would receive the votes of a majority of the Republican members of the next legislature. The Republican voters of the district in which I live would not countenance my supporting any Guf-fey Democrat or insurgent Republican who might be nominated in opposition to the choice of a majority of the Re-publican members of the legislature." Famous Trotter_Sold. XEW YORK, Dec. 1.—The great trot Publican members of the legislature." Famous Trotter Sold. NEW YORK, Dec. 1.—The great trot-ting horse The Abbot was sold yesterday afternoon at the Madison Square Garden for $26,500. The purchaser was John J. Scannell, fire commissioner of this city. There was a crowd of 8,000 persons in the Garden to watch the holder of the world's trotting record go under the hammer. The Abbot was taken into the ring at 4 o'clock by Mr. Geers, who has driven him in his record beating trots. When the sale began, F. Tipton of the Fasig-Tipton company, bidding for an-other person, bid $26,000. This was fol-lowed by Mr. Scannel's bid of $26,500. No other bids being made, the horse went to the fire commissioner.

Falling Roof Kills Many. SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 30.—By the collapse of the roof of the San Francisco and Pacific Glass works at Fiftienth and Bryant streets about 50 people were more or less injured and twelve killed ontright. Nine others have since died. The victims were watching a foothall game between the Stanford and Universi-ty of California teams when the roof be-neath them gave way, precipitating them to the floor of the factory. Some of them fell upon the furnaces, and one man of mknown identity was burned almost to a crisp.
