arful of Being Legislated Out o Power in Pittsburg, He Is Working a Faction in the Democracy to Serve His Own Selfish Ends, But He Will Not Succeed.

(Special Correspondence.) Harrisburg, Jan. 22 .- With the elec tion of Col. Quay to the United States senate the decks have been cleared for contests here over legislation this win-

STALWARTS ARE AGGRESSIVE. The stalwart leaders will have one of their number introduce the real ballot reform bill, and it will meet every requirement of the most radical of the reform element.

There was introduced in the senate last week by Senator Sproul, of Delaware county, a bill indorsing the ship subsidy bill now before congress as a measure the adoption of which will be measure the adoption of which will be to the interests of the workingmen and the industrial interests of Pennsylva-nia that will be called upon in the event of the passage of the subsidy bill to help construct vessels for the mer-chant marine which will be benefited by the proposed legislation at Wash-ington. Senator Sproul's resolution calls upon the Republican members of congress to vote for the ship subsidy bill. It was passed in the senate and will go through the house this week, despite opposition from the Democrats.

There was introduced in the senate by Senator Scott, of Philadelphia, a stanch supporter of Col. Quay, a restation supporter of conceptage, a re-form measure which is of special inter-est to Philadelphians. This bill will save the city of Philadelphia over 575,000 a year. It is intended to abol-ish the present fee system in the offlees of city treasurer and register of wills. This bill was introduced at the suggestion of Mayor Ashbridge, at whose instigation the Republican con-ventions in Philadelphia, prior to the last election, went on record in favor of this reform. While the insurgent newspapers insisted that the stalwart Republicans never intended to carry this reform into effect, the friends of Col. Quay have taken this, their first Col. Quay have taken this, their first opportunity, to introduce the bill abol-ishing the fees, and they will see to it that it is promptly passed. Covernor Stone has promised to sign the bill as soon as it shall be presented to him. A bill has been introduced in the senate which was drafted with the view of giving the Pennsylvania Rali-road company the privilege of increasing its capital in order to carry out the plans which President Cassatt has plant in this state and the extension of its lines in different parts of the railroad company to increase its capital stock from $151,000,000 to $200,000,000, and will thus strengthen the greatest railroad corporation in the world. Governor Stone's recommendation and who, with two Republicans to choose from, selected the stalwart Re-publican as more entitled to their votes. Flinn and the Democratic coterie that take orders, from him had a set of scathing resolutions adopted. in which these independent thinking Democrats were made to appear to be traitors to their party for bolting Flinn's candidate for speaker of the house. These honorable and manly Democrate have, however, not been in-timidated by the Flinn blackjack style of political campaigning, but they are more determined than ever that the Flinn Democratic combina-tion shall not own them in the coming contests over legislation, and they will act and vote as they see fit, regardless or orders from Flinn, Guffey or any one else under the Flinn domination. THE PEOPLE TO RULE. THE PEOPLE TO RULE.

THE PEOPLE TO RULE. To block the schemes of millionaires to buy United States senatorships in Pennsylvania Senator Quail, of Schuyi-kill, a Quay supporter, introduced a bill calling for the election of United States senators by a vote of the peo-ple. This proposition, at Col. Quay's suggestion, was put in the platform of the last Republican state convention.

In the Court of Common Pleas of Sullivan County, Wn. B. Fosterj vs Hattie A. Foster, No. 3, September term, 1900. In Divorce

ter. It promises to be a most interesting session of the general assembly of Pennsylvania on account of the many measures which will be intro-duced to carry out the various prom-ised for reform made by the Republi-can organization. The stalwart Re-publicans propose to take the initia-tive and to be responsible for the pass-age of the bills they will introduce. Senator William Flinn, the insur-gent leader of Pittsburg, has intro-duced a bill in the state senate to change the ballot laws, but he will not be allowed to figure in the light of a reformer for the advancement of schemes which he may have in contem-plation in his home county. STALWARTS ARE AGGRESSIVE. To Hattie A. Foster, respondent in the

The state administration will als urge the prompt passage of bills in-tended to make restrictions against the sale of oleomargarine more effective. The oleo trust will fight these meas-ures, and there is a prospect of a bit fer struggle over the bills. Governor Divises Upplication Stone is determined to press for the passage of these measures, and he wi take a personal interest in this contest in favor of the dairy and butter in-terest of the commonwealth.

TO GIVE FLINN REFORM.

The proposed reform legislation for Pittsburg will command consideration from the leaders of all parties and fac-tions. Flinn will make a desperate night to prevent any interference with his control of the official patronage and the leating of contracts in Allecheny his control of the official paironage and the letting of contracts in Allegheny county. He will fight to the last all attempts to overthrow the present ring conditions in Pittsburg, which busi-ness men and manufacturers and oth-ers have so long sought to turn down. He is already drilling the Democrats' line to help defeat the plans of those who will push the reform legislation for Pittsburg. In order to keep Demo-crats in dread of the criticism of the insyrgent newspapers, which are used to greatest effect. Flinn and his Dem-ceratic allies have within the last week worked these newspapers at a great rate. They secured the adoption of a resolution condemning those Dem-cerats who refused to vote for Flinn's condidate for speaker of the house.
