AND GLANCES AT THE TIMES.

Maj. Isaac Bruner of Muncy, is rusticing in town.

Sheriff Osler was transacting business in Williamsport Tuesday.

Atty. S. B. Karns and family of Bonton, visited friends in town last week.

The Laporte Summer Normal School closes a very successful term this week.

A large attendance greatly enjoyed the social dance given in the Mokoma Pavilion on Tuesday evening.

Mrs. E. R. Powell and little son of Warrensville, visited with Laporte friends the early part of this week.

Stewart Chase of Sinnamahoning Pa., was shaking hands with old time friends in town several days last week.

Miss Mollie Keeler of New York, who has been spending several weeks at her father's home at this place, left on Wednesday for Buffalo, to visit the Pan American.

Misses Mame Harris, of Wilkes Barre, Elsie Lawrence of Dushore, and Dollie Sturdevant of Lopez, are guests of Misses Grace and Eva Lawrence.

The Seventh Annual Convention of the P. O. S. of A. of Sullivan County, will be held at Nordmont, Pa., August 3, 1901. Rev. D. E. Hupley, National Chaplain, will be there.

John Kirk, who was placed in the county jail several weeks ago for refusing to pay $1.20 tax, and who was recently captured by Miss Ina Osler while trying to escape from jail, has now been discharged, having had his tax paid by some friend who wanted his service painting a house near Estella.

A Ministerial Association was organized in Laporte, last Friday. Officers elected were, Pres. Rev. J. T. Bradford; Sec'y, Rev. Otho Brant, D. D. Treasurer, S. B. Bidlack. The meetings are to be held weekly on Monday at 2 p. m.

The entertainment given in the Baptist church Tuesday evening by Miss Jennie Laura Keefe, soprano, and Miss Ada Amelia Chase, reader, was greatly enjoyed by a well pleased audience. Both ladies showed marked ability in their line of art and measured fully up to the expectation of their hearers. Laporte would gladly welcome this musical and literary treat at any future date.

At the home of Mr. W. J. Lawrence, Monday evening was given a delightful lawn social by the Misses Lawrence to their many friends and associates of Laporte. Large lights, flowers and evergreen decorations added beauty and art to the green lawn, which was graced with wicker chairs and seats. Although obliged to resort to the parlors of the house because of the storm, yet no pleasure was lost, for humorous games, guessing contests, jokes, music and songs kept a continual and hearty laughter, known only to a jolly concourse of young people, reigning throughout the evening. Ice cream, cake and other delicacies were served. Near the close of the entertainment, the subject of an organization of a Literary Society, for the young people of Laporte, was very profitably and encouragingly discussed. Each of the thirty-one young ladies and gentlemen, as they departed for their homes, heartily expressed their appreciation and gratitude for the excellent time and high order of entertainment given them.

The Laporte Lumber Company operating at Jakersville in the manufacture of turned articles has dissolved partnership and John J. Webster has purchased the interests of Messrs R. J. Yothers, H. N. Neff and Austin Rainey, and enters into partnership with M. A. Rosencrants of the former company. The business will be conducted under the same name of the old company.

The Philadelphia Inquirer of Monday published a two column cut of Miss Ina Osler showing her in the act of holding a fugitive prisoner captive on top of a fence where she caught John Kirk, who escaped from the jail several days ago while plumbers were at work on the jail and neglected to give it proper care when going out. Miss Osler seeing the prisoner running from the jail started in pursuit, caught a firm hold on him and clung on like a porous plaster until assistance arrived. Miss Osler is now figuring quite conspicuously in the press for her bravery and prints her statement of the incident as follows:

"I reached the fence just in time to catch hold of his leg as he was about to drop down on the opposite side, and I hung on to that leg like grim death. I knew if my hold loosened he would escape. I was a little frightened when he threatened to kill me, but I was determined to hold on to him until help came. He reached down several times and struck me in the face and threatened to kill me if I did not let go, but I held fast until assistance came."

Two young ladies who are attending the Summer School were doomed to remain in the town of Laporte over Sunday. On Saturday afternoon they saw their landlord start out equipped with fish pole and basket and without waiting for an invitation Misses May and Bessie took the opportunity to go fishing and started for the scene of encounter. They cast their line and sat by the water's edge waiting long and patiently. At last a bite came; it was a bass and it was pulled out in triumph. By and by there was a pull on the other ladies' line, she hauled it up, and horror of horrors, there was a cat fish. Then a lively scene took place. Both were afraid to take it from the hook. At length the last mentioned lady summoned courage, wrapped her hand in the folds of her skirt and removed Mr. Cat Fish. After debating long and earnestly on what to do with it they finally made a basket of a hankerchief and entombed the future breakfast therein. After eating heartily of it they were unable to get to school early Monday morning.
