Meeting of "The Union Party," Again Postponed.

IT IS NOT NOW IN PUBLIC FAVOR

Championed By Yellow Journalism This Latest Agitation Against Republicanism Has Been a Most Signal Failure.

(Special Correspondence.)
Philadelphia, Sept. 17.—The managers of the Union party have decided that this is not a propitious time for them to attempt an organization against the patriotic citizens of Penn-sylvania, who comprise the Republican party, of this commonwealth. They have concluded to postpone the meeting of their so-called convention. The assassin's bullets, which finally meant the death of the President, called off their convention when it was first scheduled to meet, and now the fatal termination of the attack requires them to defer action again.

Both the state and city conventions of this mushroom political growth, known as the Union party, have been postponed. They were to have met on Thursday next and name candidates for state and city offices.

The Wanamaker-McClure-Gordon

leadership of this alleged reform outfit determined that it would not be well for them to attempt to put an inde-pendent ticket in the field at this time and they called off their allies. The date for their gathering has not yet been fixed.

A. K. McClure, who seeks to have his brother-in-law reelected to the board of revision of taxes in Philadel phia, and a few of his associates on the committee of the Union party, on the "relations between city and state," decided to call off the state convention of the Union party which was to nom-inate Judge Yerkes, Democrat, for supreme court justice, and E. A. Coray, Independent Republican, for state treasurer, until after the burial of the late President McKinley.

Recent developments, the universal denunciation of "yellow journalism," upon which the so-called Union party fattened and grew for a while, have put this ephemereal organization out of the pale of popular sympathy, and tion the convention which was to have been held in Scranton on September 17 and 18, President Moore, in his notice to the members of the league,

'Our stricken President has passed away. He was the admired ruler of our nation and the accepted head of our great party. He was the idol of Republicans and the ideal of Americans. He had risen from the soil of his na-tive land to be known and beloved by all mankind to the boundaries of civilization. It was left for the red hand of Anarchy alone to wrest from him his precious life and to plunge a happy nation into deepest gloom.

Sharing in the national pride that exalted him, we had prepared in the regular course to raise our voice as Pennsylvania Republicans in praise of his public works. The frenzied hand of the assassin has changed it all.

"It is for the law and the American people to deal with this hideous crime and the causes actuating it; for us to drain our cup of sorrow with the mourning millions of American brethren; to frame our minds to holier and nobler purposes in political and civic life and to guard, in future, against the shame and the peril of tolerance without reason.

"That which we had planned in support of the great principles of our President represented, must be stood aside with humility and reverence while we join respectfully in paying the last rites to the dead. Our tribute to the living must give away to the principle of the nation and to the homeson. grief of the nation and to the homage which is due the memory of a great and powerful leader.

"By virtue of the authority vested in me as president of the State League of Republican Clubs, therefore, I de clare a postponement of the 14th an-nual convention fixed to be held in the city of Scranton, September 17 and 18 next, until such time as the executive committee may determine, of which timely notice will be given.

"I furthermore recommend as a mark of respect to the memory of our dead President, that all clubs affiliated with the State League, drape their meeting places for a period of thirty

AMENDMENT TO THE CONSTITU out this epinemereal organization out of the pale of popular sympathy, and made it a thing to be loathed and abhorred.

"Republicanism, patriotism and Americanism" stand arrayed against "personal interest, Anarchy and yellow journalism" in Pennsylvania, as they do throughout this broad nation. In this home of loyalty to the principles of the Republican party, no sympathicans of the Republican party of pathizers of the Emma Goldman doctrines, nor any allies of her supporters, can hope for popular favor or support. THE CLUB LEAGUE CONVENTION.

President J. Hampton Moore, of the State League of Republican Clubs, has issued a proclamation postponing until a date to be determined by the executive committee of the organization.

Strike out section four of article eight, and insert in place theteof, as follows:
SECTION 4. All elections by the citizens shall be by ballot or by such other methods as may be presented by law. Provided, That secrecy in which be presented to the provided of the Joint Resolution.
