COLUMBIA MOURNS.

Our country has been appalled as it has not been since the attempt upon the life of President Garfield, in 1881, by the news of the death of President McKinley who fell a victim to a similar dastardly outrage.

Let us now cease these sacrifices to cease. It is a nation's duty to protect the individual head of the government. The only explanation of such outrage seems to be that there is disease prevalent in the land and that yellow journalism is the deadly germ that poisons the minds of the weak.

County Seat Indices.

A small attendance at court this week. Miss Ina Osler is visiting friends in Bernice and Dushore. Wm. Finkle left for New Orange, N. J., last week, where he has accepted a paying position.

Miss Harriet Grimm, of this place left on Friday last for Milesburg, Center county, Pa., where she will teach school. On account of the Citizens Memorial Service to be held in the Court House, Thursday evening, there will be no religious service in the M. E. church on that date.

H. A. Kemp, photographer, is taking large orders. Join the rush. The convention which unanimously nominated JOHN D. REESER for Associate Judge, NELSON COX for Sheriff and JAMES C. DEININGER for Prothonotary was composed of sound minded, independent, representative men from every part of the county.

A very fitting service was held at the M. E. Church Sunday evening. Rev. Bidlack allowed his word to follow to follow the thoughts that run with the hearts of his congregation and preached and prayed on the one subject that absorbs the chief attention of the world.

Misrepresentation will not succeed in the election campaign. Scouten's Herald makes a labored effort to show that James C. Deininger is not a citizen of this county; and this in the face of plain facts known to hundreds in Davidson and Laporte townships.

The Yellow Journal. The deplorable tragedy at Buffalo has led to wide and deep denunciation of Anarchists and that which has warmed it, fed it and fostered it—yellow journalism. Now, what is a "yellow journal?" It is one that disregards the dignity of the position of the chief executive of the nation and holds the occupant up to ridicule and often revilement.

There is a journal recently started in Dushore, the Herald, which was launched upon the boundless sea of journalism for the sole purpose, according to the oath of a reputable citizen, to ruin an Associate Judge of our Court.

The yellow journals will exist, flourish and multiply, just so long as the public will support them. Giving support to such papers simply to see who is abused is a poor, feeble excuse. The sowers of violence upon character will do well to be glad that others reap what they sow.

The Rev. Otho Brant will preach Memorial Sermons on "Our Martyred President," in Robbins school House, Nordmont, Wednesday evening Sept. 18, at 7:30 p. m. and in Muncy Valley, Friday evening at 7:30. All are cordially invited to attend these services.

St. John Protestant Episcopal church. 16th Sunday after Trinity. Color for altar and vestments, green. The Rev. Otho Brant, D. D. Rector, will preach 11 a. m. Morning Prayer and Sermon, subject, "Our Martyred President." At 7:30 p. m. Evening Prayer and Sermon, subject "Our National Sorrow." At 2 p. m. Sunday School. All are cordially invited to be present.

"The cigar factory played out!"—so sayeth the Herald. Mr. Deininger in company with M. W. Botsford established a cigar factory at Nordmont; they employed eight or nine men, and Mr. Deininger worked with them for eighteen months. The business was closed honestly with no debts unpaid.

Scouten's newspaper says, "John D. Reeser has no knowledge whatever of legal affairs, having spent his life in selling dry goods and groceries at the big store." Truly John D. Reeser does not profess to be a lawyer, but he knows too much about justice to advise a man to take out ten-u' penans and summon a hundred unnecessary witnesses merely to make a big bill of costs in a little suit before a justice of the peace.

Whence comes the hostility of Scouten's newspaper to William J. Lawrence? He is not a candidate for office, and desires no profit in any way shape or manner from the pending election; and yet Scouten attacks him savagely. "Billy" Lawrence, he declares, "built a court house at a sound price which is now about ready to tumble down, and is not content with the profits."

In the hall of the court house there is a marble slab fastened to the wall with names as follows: John H. Farrell, Gabriel Litzelman, John J. Webster, Commissioners; John E. Gallagher, Clerk; Wagner & Rightmire, Architect; Lawrence Bros. Builders. If the court house is about to tumble down as Scouten's Herald alleges, who is to blame? The Commissioners paid the architects well for making the plan and superintending the work.

NO QUESTION ABOUT IT. There can be no question about it, the sensational newspapers must share in the responsibility for the President's assassination. They may squirm and hiss, hiding their shame in editorial comments and cartoons of a sympathetic character, but at last they stand exposed before the world of the terrible sin of having encouraged lawlessness and murder by deliberate misrepresentation and vicious exaggeration.—New Haven Register.

NORTH AMERICAN MUST ANSWER. The Philadelphia North American must answer the grave charge of aiding and abetting Anarchy, the direct cause of the attempt on President McKinley's life. In the early part of September last, this journal induced Emma Goldman, the high priestess of anarchy, to come to Philadelphia and address a meeting there. It is said the representatives of this paper smuggled the woman into a secret meeting, where she made her address. In addition, they used the refusal of the police to permit Anarchy to be preached as a means of viciously attacking the mayor and city administration, claiming the woman had the right to speak anywhere.

The attempted assassin of the President confesses that his act was inspired by the inflammatory speeches of this woman. In the upholding of her heinous cause, The North American cannot but be more or less responsible for the fruits of her efforts. The fearful results attained are on a line with the intemperate, vicious and untrustworthy character of this journal's teachings. While professing to champion the cause of reform, it has been worse than criminal itself.—West Grove, Chester Co., Independent.
