ABDUCTED IN BROAD DAY

Philadelphia Woman Says Reporters Held Her Prisoner.

ROBBED OF JEWELS AND MONEY

At Pistol's Point Was Compelled to Sign Checks—Kidnapping Occurred in Fairmount Park—One of the Men Arrested Makes Confession.

Philadelphia, Oct. 7.—Charged with kidnapping a woman and holding her a prisoner for four days, robbing her of jewels worth more than $2,000, and compelling her to sign bank checks for large sums of money, is the story which the police unfolded here yesterday when they announced the arrest of two newspaper men, a stenographer in another newspaper office and a barber, all of whom are charged with complicity in the crime.

The nem now locked up at the central police station are Howard K. Sloan, an unemployed reporter; Henry Wallace, society editor of one of the morning newspapers; J. Knight Findlay, of Wayne, near here, stenographer in the business office of another morning paper, and Oscar S. Dunlap, a barber employed in one of the most prominent shops in the city.

The victim is Mrs. Mabel Goodrich, the proprietress of an establishment on North Tenth street. The four men were arrested on Saturday night and will be given a hearing today.

Last Monday Mrs. Goodrich went to police headquarters and told a story of kidnapping and robbery so daring that the police at first doubted its truth. She said that for some time past a young man, who represented himself as a resident of Germantown, had been a frequent visitor at her establishment. He was well dressed and spent money freely. Last Wednesday a week, she said, he proposed a drive through Fairmount Park. He asked her to dress in her best clothes and for her to wear all her diamonds and other jewelry, because in the return from the drive he intended to take her to the finest dining room in the city, and he wanted her to "shine" with the other women in the place.

She accepted, and the next day she went out with him in a carriage, with a fine pair of richly caparisoned horses, and with a coachman on the box wearing stylish livery. At a lonely place in Fairmount Park the carriage was stopped by a man whom she said represented himself as D. Clarence Gibboney, the secretary and attorney of the Law and Order Society of this city. This man, she went on to say, told her that he had a warrant for her arrest on the charge of keeping a disorderly house, but that the matter could be fixed up. He was invited into the carriage, and the next moment she was gagged and blindfolded. She was driven somewhere she did not know, but she noticed from one corner of the handkerchief over her eyes that the men paid toll at two toll gates, and that they took her into a building where a fire engine and a hook and ladder truck were standing.

She was kept a prisoner from Thursday night until Friday night, without anything to eat or drink, and was then taken on another long drive, blindfolded, to a house, where she was kept from Friday until Monday. In the latter place the men, who were masked, stripped her of the jewelry, and at the point of a revolver compelled her to sign bank checks for various sums of money she had deposited in the Third National Bank. They made her sign for more than she possessed, but compelled her to promise she would make up the deficiency when they released her. The men, she said, then took her on another long drive, and put her out at Tenth and Poplar streets, about a mile from her house.

With other information the woman gave them, the detectives began to work on what they believed to be a fairy tale. They got several clues, which led them to a fire house in North Wayne, 15 miles from this city. The fire company is a volunteer organization, and the key to the place was kept in the nearest dwelling. The nearest house was occupied by a family named Findlay, and there the police learned that one of the sons, J. Knight Findlay, had been home but little during the past two weeks. Getting a description of him, the police returned to the city, and found the young man, who is only 21 years old, in the office where he is employed. He was charged with the crime, and broke down and implicated three others.

Findlay said that he had impersonated the coachman; that Sloan, the unemployed reporter, acted the part of Attorney Gibboney; that the barber played the part of the rich Germantown resident, and that Wallace, the society editor, had rented a house in Germantown, where Mrs. Goodrich was to have been held a captive. He told substantially the same story as that narrated by the woman.

He said they kept her confined in the fire house, and then took her to the house, where Sloan was arrested yesterday, at 2556 North Twelfth St.

All the jewelry was recovered, most of it having been found in the possession of Findlay and Sloan who were wearing some of the rings. Only one check, for $155, was cashed, and most of this money was also recovered. Sloan was to have begun work on the same newspaper on which Findlay was employed today. Wallace has been society editor of the paper on which he was employed for only two weeks.

The penalty for kidnapping in this state, under act of assembly, as amended at the last session of the legislature, is life imprisonment.

PAGEANT HAD 60 BANDS

Thousands of Firemen March to Music in Philadelphia.

Philadelphia, Oct. 4.—Marching to the tune of music of 60 bands and drum corps the State Association of Firemen paraded yesterday afternoon. When it was all over the spectators said it was the best they ever saw and the experts said it was the best ever held in Philadelphia or in the state of Pennsylvania. More than 5,000 men were in line, representing over one hundred companies.

The Good Will Fire Company No. 3, of Allentown, received $50 for the finest uniformed company in line.

The first prize for the best looking hose carriage or wagon in line was given to Vigilant Steam Fire Company, of York. The prize amounted to $35. Second money—$15—was awarded to the Washington Fire Company, Peekskill, N. Y.

Moyamensing Hook and Ladder Company, of Chester, was awarded the first prize of $35 for the best equipment, and the Rescue Hook and Ladder Company, of Shenandoah, the second prize of $15.

The committee had much difficulty in awarding the prize of $50 for the best band in line in point of numbers, uniform and excellence of the music. The Allentown band was finally awarded the prize.

STUDENT BRUTALLY HAZED

Diaboled of Clothing and Made to Run the Gauntlet.

Beloit, Wis., Oct. 7.—George F. Stockwell, a student in the preparatory department of Beloit College, was enticed from his room at the house of President Eaton at an early hour yesterday by members of the middle preparatory class. He was overpowered, divested of every article of his clothing and compelled to walk ahead of a score of howling students, aided by the application of switches in the hands of his tormentors. His clothing was fastened to the top of a flag pole, and after he had been sufficiently "disciplined" he was allowed to go home to plan revenge.

THE CUP STAYS AT HOME

In Third Race the American Boat Is Again a Winner.

CLOSEST CONTEST OF SERIES

Invincible Defender Is Beaten Over the Finish Line by a Small Margin, But Becomes the Victor On the Time Allowance.

New York, Oct. 5.—With victory flags flowing from her towering mast heads and the ends of her spreaders in honor of her concluding triumph in the cup races of 1901, the gallant sloop Columbia returned to her anchorage under the escort of the entire excursion fleet. She, yesterday, completed her defense of the honored trophy in another stirring race with the Shamrock II over a leeward and windward race of 30 miles, crossing the finish line two seconds behind her antagonist but winning on the time allowance by 47 seconds.

For the second time she has now successfully foiled the attempt of the Irish knight to wrest from our possession the cup that means the yachting supremacy of the world. And plucky Sir Thomas Lipton, standing on the bridge of the Erin led his guests in three hearty huzzahs for the successful defender. "She is the better boat," he said, "and she deserves to be cheered."

At one time yesterday Columbia seemed a mile ahead, when the wind suddenly allowed Shamrock to point nearer the mark and a mile from home the challenger appeared to be leading by fully half a mile. The talent began to feel nervous, but as the yachts approached the finish the Yankee skipper by some miraculous legdemain showed his boat into the light air like a phantom ship and crossed the line practically at the same time as the Shamrock.

Many of Sir Thomas' guests on board the Erin crowded around to express their sympathy at his defeat and assured him of the high place he had won in the hearts of all Americans. "When a man wins a heart he has won more than a cup," said one of them. There were tears in the Irish baronet's eyes when he thanked them for their kind words. Said he: "The words you have spoken touch me far more than my defeat. I tried to win the cup and I have done my best. But better than all that I have the good wishes of this country."

RANSOMING MISS STONE

Boston Has Already Raised a Third of the Necessary Amount.

Boston, Oct. 7.—Just how much money has been given to the fund for the ransom of Miss Ellen M. Stone, the American board missionary, held captive by brigands is not known this morning. Those directing the effort in her behalf hope that the response throughout the country will be very liberal and that the figure is fully $100,000, if not the necessary amount which is $100,000 more.

At the Shawmut Congregational church, Rev. W. McElwee said that while he did not wish to discourage the present movement for Miss Stone's release, yet the whole thing appeared to him to establish a bad precedent. He thought there must be some efficacy in a first class battleship with decks cleared for action. In his opinion the brigands were playing a game of bluff and had no idea of assassinating their prisoner.

The urgency of the case kept the American Board in session for two hours yesterday. Later the committee issued a statement based upon the views of President Samuel B. Capen of the board and the secretary, Rev. Dr. Judson Smith, as the result of their visit to Washington.

President Capen says that the government at Washington, both the President and the state department have done, are doing, and will continue to do all that is in their power to procure the release of Miss Stone.

CONNELL WAS WARNED

Company C's Captain Knew of Insurgents' Possible Attack.

Manila, Oct. 7.—Major Morris C. Foote, of the Ninth United States Infantry, who has returned here from the island of Samar, was in Balangiga the day before the disaster to Company C. He says that Captain Connell had been fully warned. Information that a plot was brewing among the Filipinos came to Major Foote from a priest, who said that it was in the plans of the populace at both Balangiga and Basy to attack the garrisons, and that the Basy garrison was to be attacked from a cockpit in the rear of the barracks. Orders were immediately given to demolish the cockpit, and extra guards were stationed.
