YALE IS 200 YEARS OLD

"Old Eli" Celebrating Bi-Centennial of Its Founding.

New Haven, Conn., Oct. 21.—Yale University began yesterday the cele-bration of the 200th anniversary of the founding of Yale College. The bicentennial of the great institution of learning was ushered in with ceremonies essentially religious.

The services were performed in accord with the devout and reverent traditions of the good old New Eng-

ENTRANCE TO BATTELL CHAPEL, YALE UNIland days when the little handful of clergymen gathered together and with prayerful supplications asked divine blessing upon the institution which they had conceived and brought forth.
The old hymns were sung and powerful sermons were uttered.

BANK CASHIER MISSING

Bovertown National In Hands of Examiner For Investigation.

Boyertown, Pa., Oct. 19.—Up to this morning nothing has been heard respecting the whereabouts of Milton A. Mory, the missing cashier of the Na-tional Bank of Boyertown. The com-mittee of bank officials who went to Philadelphia yesterday found that Mory had taken $165,000 worth of the bank's securities and these securities were found deposited with S. M. & M. S. Fridenberg, brokers, of that city. What amount Mory had raised on the securities is not announced but the presumption is that the Boyertown bank officials made good the sum sebank omerais made good the sum secured as they state this morning that the securities are again the property of the bank. It is further stated that the banking institution will lose not over $2,000 but the hint is made that some others, and caught for considerable sums. Mory was under $30,000 bonds. His wife says that he appeared completely unnerved for the past few weeks, but that he was more cheerful than usual when he left home on Monday. Fears are entertained by his friends that he has committed suicide. It is generally understood that he speculated in stocks.

SALISBURY FIRE-SWEPT

Firemen From Distant Wilmington

Alone Saved Ill-fated Town.

Philadelphia, Oct. 21.—A special from Salisbury, Md., says: South Salisbury was swept by fire yesterday morning causing a loss of about $30,000. Around the burned district was property worth a quarter of a million followed the same and though the same and the sa of dollars and this was saved through the prompt arrival of firemen from Wilmington, Del., a hundred miles distant. The flames started in the kindmill of W. B. which were destroyed. In these buildings were stored 4,000,000 bundles of kindling wood. Miller's loss on stock is $14,000, on the mill $8,000 and on the three warehouses 4,000, on all of which there is insurance of $14,000. Two dwelling houses adjoining the mill were also destroyed.

Not Yet in Touch With Miss Stone. Constantinople, Oct. 21.—The United States legation in Constantinople is still without definite news from either the Rev. Dr. H. C. Haskell or the Rev. J. W.
