

1901 NOVEMBER 1901

Calendar table for November 1901 with columns for days of the week and dates.

MOON'S PHASES table showing moon phases for the month of November.

Monotary Kennedy, was a Dushore, last Friday.

Butchering days, and several families are feasting upon spare-ribs and sausage.

Mrs. Louise Barrows and daughter Olive, on Monday left for New York, where they will spend several weeks.

Wesley Sanders of North Mountain, died Wednesday morning. The funeral will be held on Thursday, Nov. 28th at 11 a. m.

William Chrisman has moved on the W. C. Mason farm near town, and will engage in farming next season.

Mr. L. R. Gumble received word on Monday, from Hills Grove, that his father-in-law, Mr. Green, was critically ill, and was not expected to live.

Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Crossley left on Monday evening for Towanda, to attend the unveiling of the soldiers monument, and visit relatives for a few days.

O. W. Bennett, for several years blacksmith at the Laporte Tannery shop, moved to Estella, last week, where he will follow his mechanical line of business.

Mr. Joseph Murelle, of the Towanda Reporter Journal, informs his friends that he is feeling proud and happy over the arrival, last week, of a male heir to his estate.

Sister Mary Aldegonda, of the Convent of Mercy, Pittsburg, is said to have been cured by faith after being unable to walk for thirteen years.

Mrs. Caroline Grimm has closed her home at this place, and gone to New York city where she expects to remain about four months with her daughter, Mrs. Paul Tismer.

Last week Williamsport's Board of Health caused the arrest of fourteen milk dealers of that city, charged with skimming and adulterating milk. Ten of them are held for court.

Mr. James C. Cavan, has resigned his position as clerk at the Laporte Hotel, and returned to his home in Philadelphia. His place behind the bar is being filled by Clarence Ginter of New Columbia.

The Pennsylvania building at the Pan American exposition will become a permanent fixture on the flag staff mountain, the highest point on the route of the Mauch Chunk, Lehigh and Slatington Street railway.

Messrs R. J. Yothers, Austin Raney and D. Dixon, who were lately members of the Laporte Lumber Company, have made contracts for hard wood timber laying on the mountain between Shunk and Canton. They have moved to that section preparatory to erecting a factory for the manufacture of turned wood articles, comprising broom handles, dimension stock ect. They are thorough business men of ambition, and if the situation is in any way favorable, they will make a success of the business, which is the hope of their many friends in this locality.

The soldiers monument at Towanda, erected to the one-hundred-and-forty-first Regiment, Pennsylvania volunteers, six companies of which were raised in Bradford county, was unveiled on Tuesday with imposing ceremonies. Governor Stone, Attorney General Elkin and other distinguished people took part at the unveiling. The monument stands in front of the court house, and is a handsome affair of which the citizens of Bradford county may well feel proud.

T. J. Keeler is confined to his room with injuries resulting from a fall.

Hyman Hall of Sonestown, was last week appointed guardian of John H. Rothrock, of the same place.

Dr. Wackenbuth of Picture Rocks, was in town a few hours last Friday.

The severe storm which visited the Middle Atlantic and New England Coast Saturday night and Sunday, and which continued on the New England Monday, was most severely felt from New York to Boston, where maximum wind velocities ranging from sixty to sixty-five miles an hour were reported on Sunday.

Timely warnings were given by the weather bureau of the approach of this storm and before 1 p. m. Saturday, coast and shipping interests from Maine to Florida had been informed regarding its position, character and course.

Union Thanksgiving service will be held in the Baptist church, on Thursday morning at 10:30, sharp. Rev. Mr. Bidlack of the M. E. church, will preach the sermon. As this is a national service, everybody far and near are cordially and earnestly invited to come and join in the service. We hope the citizens will avail themselves of this opportunity, and crowd the church from pulpit to door. Come with us and we will do you good.

By order of Committee.

Election Officers Arrested. Considerable interest is manifest over the arrest of the members of the election board in the second ward of this borough charged with refusing to accept the vote of C. M. Yeager.

The plaintiff in the railway mail service, running between Hartley Hall and Satterfield, and, together with his family, makes his home on Second street, where he has resided for nearly two years. The gentleman has voted on previous occasions, but when he came to deposit his ballot at the late election the board refused to receive it, claiming that his place of residence was Millburg, where he resided when he entered the mail service. Officials base their decision on Article VI, Section 4, of the election laws which reads: "For the purpose of voting, no person shall be deemed to have gained a residence, by reason of his presence, or lost it by reason of his absence, while employed in the service, either civil or military, of this state or the United States."

The members of the board appeared before Squire Kahler on Friday and gave bail for their appearance at court. — Hughesville Mail
