It is rumored that T. J. Keeler may sell his stock of merchandise and rent his store building to C. B. Jennings of Estella.

Merchant A. P. Weiland of Nordmont, made this office a pleasant call Saturday while in town looking up new customers to deal in the product of his grist mill.

There seems to be great activity in the telephone business in different parts of the United States. Telephone lines are being run from town to town by the way of the leading farmers along the route who are becoming subscribers. It will not be long now before the farmers will begin to have office hours.

Revenue amounting to $15,605-45 was derived, from mail at the Dead Letter Office during the past year. Of this amount $3,285-.26 was realized from the sale held December, 1901, of parcels, which could not be restored to owners, and the balance, or $12,320.19, was actually received through the mails in cash.

Hon. Galusha Grow, of Pennsylvania, a member of the present House of Representatives, was in Congress before many of his colleagues were born. He took his seat on the first day of Dec. 1851. Among his colleagues then were Henry Clay, John A. Logan, Thaddeus Stevens, Roscoe Conkling and others long since passed away.

Miss Alice Roosevelt will go through the ceremony of breaking a bottle of wine over the prow of the German Emperor's American-built yacht. A little rehearsal with bottled water will enable her to do it correctly. The Kaiser, however, missed it when he failed to select Mrs. Nation, by the way, why not spill lager beer instead of champagne, Hoch der Kaiser.

The citizens of a certain town in Michigan, have established a precedent which may be widely copied. Incensed at the charges of their physicians, they contracted with one physician to care for the health of the town at a stipulated salary of $1,800 per annum, agreeing to pay a stipulated fine where the doctor found he had been called unnecessarily.

It is said that the old time tradition that women must wait for a marriage proposal is to be relegated to the attic. A western movement by a St. Louis clergyman favors proposal by women. Many women support themselves and a husband, and if a woman is able to support a husband she should certainly have something to say, in fact everything to say, in the selection of one.

There are a score of men in America whose fortunes exceed those of monarchs of one hundred years ago. But instead of using their vast wealth in selfish pleasure and extravagant pagentry, many of them are using it for the promotion of industries through which thousands live with comforts unknown to kings of the past century, while a few, of whom Mr. Carnegie is most conspicuous, are lavishing millions for the public benefit.

Prothonotary Thos. E. Kennedy Gives a Dinner to County Officials.

Thos. E. Kennedy gave an elegantly appointed dinner at the Laporte Hotel, Tuesday night, as a farewell courtesy to the Board of Commissioners he so ably served as clerk, and to the County Auditors, who highly praised his official record. The guests in addition to the Commissioners and Auditors were Wm. Kennedy, John Flynn, Atty. E. J. Mullen, Frank Lusch, Sheriff Cott, Ed. Flynn, Michael Flynn, H. L. White, W. B. Ritter, Ed. Sweeney, A. H. Buschhausen, Harry Zax and N. C. Maben.

A sumptuous dinner was served which was in keeping with the reputation of the Laporte Hotel. General enjoyment ran high throughout the evening. A jolly German quartette, comprising Messrs. Caseman, Baumaunk, Buschhausen and Maben, contributed largely towards the amusements of the evening. Instrumental music by Mr. Caseman was also much enjoyed. All present pronounced the dinner a decided success.

County Auditors Adjusting Grievances.

Ex-County Commissioners S. S. Rogers, Henry Huffmaster and Philip Secules were summoned and appeared before County Auditors A. P. Starr, Christian Caseman and James Sweeney, on Tuesday, to appear in defense of the surcharges made against them four years ago which had not yet been settled as they claimed injustice done them.

Four years ago the commissioners refused to allow the auditors a clerk, and charged them with the amount paid for such service, although it had been the custom for many years to be assisted in this manner. Notice was not served them to this effect until the service came to be paid. At the next annual audit the commissioners found themselves surcharged to the amount of $150 and they were not called in for a hearing in their own defence. It appeared to our present auditors after carefully examining the accounts, that both misunderstanding and actions of spite underlay the principle causes for the surcharges, and acted wisely and justly in cancelling the most of them. There was but one item of $52 jointly surcharged to the commissioners that was left to stand and be collected. This was for an amount paid to the commissioner's clerk as compensation for extra work, which was thought by the auditors, belonged to the service for which a salary was paid. The individual account of Mr. Secules for expenses to the Commissioners State Convention, remained to be paid. Clerical compensation was allowed the auditors as they had not been properly informed that the service would not be paid, as had long been the custom. One of the auditors having paid his portion of the surcharge, it was ordered that he be refunded the amount.

The muddle is now judiciously equalized and should be settled without further trouble.

Counterfeiting on a Farm in Cherry.

On Jan. 14, Deputy United States Marshall Lapp, of Harrisburg, assisted by Detective Guy C. Holland of Towanda, and constable F. W. Buck of Dushore, arrested William Reader, a farmer of Colley Township, charged with counterfeiting money. Spurious 5 and 10 cent pieces have been passed in that locality for some time. Several weeks ago Constable Buck became satisfied that Reader was the man and procured the services of William Kraus, a butcher, who visited Reader and received some of the bad money in a deal.

The officers found nine 5-cent and ten 10-cent pieces on his person, which were clearly counterfeit. They searched the premises but did not succeed in finding the dies from which the pieces were cast, but found a gasoline lamp and melting pot. Reader's housekeeper, Emma Yanney, was arrested with him and the pair were taken to Towanda, where they will have a hearing before United States Commissioner Mix.
