

THURSDAY, JAN. 3 1902.

County Seat Indices.

—Miss Mame Heim visited relatives at Satterfield, last week.

—Mrs. F. C. Mostellar of Gwava is visiting relatives in town.

—Mr. Robert Stormont arrived home on Wednesday, from his journey to Scotland.

—Mr. John D. Rockefeller has promised to duplicate every donation to Vassar College to an amount not exceeding $200,000.

—One of the splendid steeds of Dr. Rose Morgan, slipped and fell on the ice one day last week, injuring the animal badly enough to place it on the retired list for a few days.

—Messrs. Asa and Charles Kilmer, of Western Sullivan, were business men at the county seat, Tuesday, where legal papers were drawn making them agents for the disposal of their father's personal property.

—Wackenhuth, the genial doctor of Picture Rocks, was in town Monday, on a professional call, and found time to call on several old time friends while on his way to the station.

—A spread of smallpox is feared in the state regions of Northampton County, as hundreds of Italians who insisted on viewing the corpse of a woman who died of smallpox, are allowed to roam at large.

—Chas. Coleman of this place, was taken very ill with appendicitis, Thursday of last week, and for several days was in a serious condition. He is now improving and his friends are hopeful for his recovery without an operation.

—Leo Wrede of Hughesville, was taken ill with symptoms of diphtheria, on Tuesday at his boarding house in that place. The house was at once quarantined. Leo visited his home at this place last week and it was feared he had contracted the disease from his sister, Miss Mollie.

—Had Edwin Markam never written anything else, he would have been entitled to respect for his statement "A man becomes religious only when he comes into brotherly relations with his fellows not forgetting his hairy and feathered kinsman of the fields and sky."

—George Gorman of Nordmont, was a county seat visitor on Thursday last. He informed his friends here that it is his intention to leave Sullivan county, in the near future and move to Bristol, Tenn., where he was at one time employed, in his more youthful days. Mr. Gorman has been one of Sullivan county's substantial citizens for the past nine years, and the best wishes of many friends follow him down in the cotton region.

—Miss Mollie Wrede was taken ill with diphtheria last Saturday which developed into a serious case Sunday. Dr. Gamble of Forksville, was in constant attendance for two days, and now has his patient in a fair state for recovery. The borough health officers, on Monday posted notices about the premises of Mrs. Wrede, quarantined the home and ordered the schools closed to prevent the spread of the dreaded disease. No new cases have as yet broken out.

—Joe Dominick, an Italian employee of the Laporte tannery, on Saturday last was taken to the Williamsport Hospital, by Supt. J. W. Flynn, suffering with anthrax on his left arm. Dominick was under the impression that he had been taken to the Hospital to have his arm amputated, and at the first unguarded moment made his escape from the building and went directly to the station, boarding the late train for home. This train, however, does not run farther than Picture Rocks, where he was obliged to get off, but nothing undaunted he walked to Muncy Valley, a distance of twelve miles, where he remained for the night, and journeyed on to Laporte the following day. Mr. Dominick is now seriously ill at his home and refuses to be treated elsewhere.

—During the recent illness of Senator Quay the Kickapoo Indians called a meeting of the chiefs, and the medicine men were instructed to propitiate the Great Spirit in order that he might not take away "Big Chief Quay". As the Senator has recovered the medicine men will doubtless claim all the credit but, being uncivilized medicine men, they will not send the Senator a bill.

A Woodsman's Serious Accident.

Harry Williams, who has been employed by J. Williams, a jobber for Willis Snyder, met with a serious and probably fatal accident on Saturday last. He, in company with Mahlon Williams were bringing a load of hay from Millview, to Snyder's camp, and when only a short distance from Millview, along a dug road, the sled lurched violently to one side, causing the load of hay to upset and throwing Mr. Williams, who was driving, into a tree top, badly bruising him about the body and fracturing his skull. He was unconscious for several hours and is now thought to be lying at the point of death.

Mr. Williams is a young man 26 years of age, unmarried. His home is at Sterling Run, from where relatives came on Monday to care for the unfortunate man.

LATER.—At the hour of going to press, Wednesday, undertaker Wm. Calkins of Forksville, brought the dead body of Mr. Williams to Laporte, where it was taken aboard the train and sent to his former home.
