1902 FEBRUARY 1902

Calendar grid for February 1902 showing days of the week and dates.

County Seat Indices.

—Miss Fannie Meylert is visiting friends at Eagles Mere.

—From all parts of the county sleighing is reported good, and King Cold still reigns.

—Tony Nardini and Harry Landon are students at the Williamsport Commercial College.

—Attorneys E. J. Mullen and A. J. Bradley are in Williamsport, attending Superior Court.

—A. B. Kilmer, Esq. of Shunk, was doing business at the county seat Monday.

—Mr. A. A. Dunham of Eagles Mere, had business transactions at Laporte Monday.

—Merchant Vernon Hull, of Hills-grove, was transacting business at the county offices Tuesday.

—Three sled loads of young people from Sonestown, drove to Laporte, Tuesday evening, where they spent a merry time at the home of F. M. Crossley.

—Heine, the poet, is said to have made a will in which he bequeathed everything to his wife on the condition that she would marry again. He said that he wanted one man to regret his death.

—W. C. Mason arrived home last week, for a few days rest, from his work at Punxsutawney where he is engaged in civil engineering on an electric railway extension.

—The church supper given by the Ladies' Aid at the home of Mrs. T. J. Keeler last Friday night was well attended and afforded a pleasant time to those present. The net proceeds amounted to $28.00.

—Trained nurse Miss Myrtle Miller, has been giving excellent attention to Chas. Coleman during the past week, and now has her patient in a fair condition to recovery. Mr. Coleman was first taken ill with appendicitis and later suffered a critical attack of neuralgia of the heart.

—Mr. Wm. Kilmer an old resident of Fox township, died at the home of his son, Mr. Zack Kilmer near Shunk, Friday of last week. Mr. Kilmer had nearly reached the age of 84 years. He buried his aged wife two weeks before his death. The funeral service was held Sunday, Rev. Smith of Forksville, officiating. Interment in West Hill cemetery.

—Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Meylert are visiting Mrs. Meylert's sister in Middletown, N. Y. Mr. Meylert is still suffering from the attack of inflammation of the eyes he had several weeks ago and is having his eyes treated by a specialist in Middletown.

—Jacob Gries had his left foot badly bruised last Friday while at work in the log yard at the stove factory. While assisting in unloading logs he was accidentally caught by a large log which fell from the sled. It will be several weeks before his painful injuries will allow him to resume work.

—Raymond, the little son of Mr. and Mrs. Emerson Higley, had one of his arms badly burned last Saturday, while his mother was absent but a few moments. The child is unable to say how his sleeve caught fire, but it is supposed he was playing about the stove. The boy's screams attracted Mrs. Higley's attention and on hastening to the house found the boy's arm enveloped in flames, and the flesh badly burned.

—Dr. W. H. Randall, of Williamsport, has purchased the Wilson property at this place and commenced work in his new field Wednesday morning. Dr. Randall's reputation as a first class physician is well known to many of the people in this section as he practiced medicine in his younger days at Forksville. He is a cousin to Dr. W. F. Randall of Dushore.

—The Democratic members of Congress who are objecting to anti-anarchy legislation because it is against state rights, are putting that doctrine to a bad use. Attempts on the lives of national officers can be construed only as crimes against the nation.

It is gratifying to note that among the famine conditions said to be threatening other countries of the world, there are only two that are menacing the United States. One is a famine of railroads to haul the cars, in spite of the increased mileage of the past few years, and the other is a famine of cars to haul the produce, in spite of the fact that the shops are working night and day to make up the deficit.

Hills-grove.

Numerous friends gave Miss Jennie Biddle a surprise party last Thursday evening, by showering a fine lot of birthday presents upon her.

Miss Beatrice Green is on the sick list. Miss Emma Karge spent Sunday with John Lucas and family.

The Ladies' Aid Society and Christian Endeavor gave an oyster supper at J. W. Green's Thursday evening.

Soap orders are the rage at present.

Merry sleighing parties should stop their noise when passing homes where there are sick persons.

Prof. Green is spending considerable time over the hill. Perhaps he is hunting (dear) out of season.

Miss Edna Lady has returned from an extended visit with her sister in Binghamton, N. Y.

C. H. Green is working at Cross-Forks, Potter county.

There are a number of cases of measles in town.

The Methodist Christian Endeavor, have two new members, J. S. Morgan and Edna Secules. It would be a good thing if more of our young people would do likewise.

Eagles Mere.

Measels are again in our town and a number are suffering with them.

Oney Brink had one of his fingers mashed while coasting last week.

The Night Cap Social held at Hotel Eagles Mere, on Saturday evening, was a decided success.

Mr. Ellis Keisinger has been spending a few days with his parents at this place.

Mr. Norman Hall of New York City, and Mr. Moore of Picture Rocks, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. VanBuskirk.

Mr. Earl Bigger of Muncy Valley attended the social at this place Saturday evening.

Miss Grace Bradford and Rev. S. B. Bidlack, of Laporte, called on friends at this place Thursday of last week.

D. Kehrer of South Williamsport, spent a day here last week.

F. W. Peale and W. H. VanBuskirk, attended the horse sale at Hughesville, Friday.

Miss Bessie Cheney is visiting friends at Pennsdale.

E. V. Ingham and E. S. Chase, transacted business at the county seat Friday.

A delightful surprise party was given Mrs. Chas. McCarty, on Friday last, a large number were present and all report a good time.

Miss Fannie Meylert of Laporte, is visiting her sister, Mrs. E. S. Chase.

Shunk.

The spelling contest given at the lower school house last Thursday evening was well attended.

Anna Porter has returned from Canton, where she had been receiving medical treatment.

The Squire was out of town a few days last week.
