1902 FEBRUARY 1902

Calendar grid for February 1902 with days of the week and dates.

County Seat Indices. AND GLANCES AT THE TIMES.

—Court next week. —Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Schrader spent Sunday at Cherry Mills. —W. B. Heim and sister Miss Pearl, visited at Hughesville, last week. —Mrs. N. R. Kohensparger announces that she is prepared to comfortably accommodate six boarders court week. —Evidence in the injunction case of Simon Fromburg vs. Julius Vogel, John H. Lawrence and Frank Buck, was heard before Judge Dnnham on Monday, and the decision of the court reserved for deliberation. —The horse dealing business was brisk at this place last week. Rev. J. T. Bradford sold his team of blacks to Mr. Wheland of Proctor. Dr. W. H. Randall sold his horse to Dr. Voorhees of Sonestown, and purchased the team owned by the late Dr. Willson. —The Ladies' Aid Society will hold their Sock Social in the M. E. Church, on Tuesday evening, Feb. 25. Each person is requested to bring in money to the amount of five times the size of the shoe they wear. Refreshments will be served by the society. —At the license court held at Laporte on Monday, all houses having had license were granted the same. Six new applicants were held over until next Monday when arguments will be heard in the following applications: Patrick Finan, J. D. Cooper, J. P. Gorgg, of Lopez; Wm. Moran, of Muncy Valley; Jas. M. Campbelle, of Forksville; John Aubrey of Dushore. —The New York Press Clipping Bureau has just completed for Senator Hanna, a collection of Newspaper paragraphs covering everything that was printed in the editorial columns of the papers of this country and England, relating to the death of Wm. McKinley. This remarkable collection is bound in four volumes, and shows that no crowned or uncrowned ruler ever received so many tributes of love and esteem, not only from the press of his own country, but from all over the world. —Tuesday's election in Laporte Borough resulted in the following elections: Judge of Election, F. W. Meylert; Inspectors, Dewitt Layton, Chas. Funston; School Directors, Jas. MacFarlane elected, tie vote between Andrew Hackett and W. B. Ritter; Constable, Jas. Gansel; Councilmen, David Temple, W. H. Rogers elected, tie vote between T. J. Keeler and E. J. Flynn, by casting lots, T. J. Keeler was duly elected having drawn the winning number; Overseer and High Constable, John Minier. The results of election seem generally satisfactory. —Secretary Gage served longer as the head of the Treasury Department than any other man except Albert Gallatin and Alexander Hamilton. He held office nearly five years. Albert Gallatin served longest, nearly twelve years, from 1801 to 1813. Alexander Hamilton's term was a little over five years, from 1789 to 1795. Under Secretary Gage the revenues and expenditures in one week exceeded those under Alexander Hamilton in a whole year. —Since 1890 Washington, D. C. has had the distinction of being the leading negro city in the country, a position that had formerly been held by New Orleans, with Baltimore a close second. It still holds first place in this regard but the present census shows Philadelphia has made the heaviest gains in negro population in the last decade. The truth of the matter is that a great many cities are showing marked increase in the negro population, while the decrease are few and comparatively small in number, most of them being in Virginia towns and cities. San Francisco has the smallest negro population of any large city in the country, possibly because cheap labor there is performed by the Chinese.

Mrs. Mertie Battin, wife of Geo. Battin, died at Cross Forks, last week. The remains were brought to this place for burial. Mr. and Mrs. Battin left this place about seven months ago and had since resided in Potter county. Mrs. Martha Manley and son Fay, and Herbert Foster and wife, attended the funeral of Mrs. Manley's mother, at Alba last Monday. J. P. Kilmer and son are hauling hardwood timber to their mill. Chas. The twins appeared to improve during last week and passed their time playing happily with toys. The death of Dordica has been concealed from Radica, who is making excellent progress.

It is said that the youth was incited to the crime by reading cheap blood-and-thunder literature. He was sentenced to serve two and a half years in the penitentiary.

Honored By Pope.

New York, Feb. 15.—Documents were received here testifying that the Pope had honored Erwin Steinbock, head in this city of the firm of Fr. Pusted & Co., with knighthood and the Order of St. Gregory the Great. The chief office of the firm of Fr. Pusted & Co. is at Ratisbon, Germany, with offices in Rome, Italy; New York and Cincinnati.

EXCEPTIONAL SUCCESS.

Achieved by the Penn Mutual Life Insurance Company During the Past Year. A noteworthy example of what can be accomplished by careful and intelligent business management is afforded by the Penn Mutual Life Insurance Company, as set forth in its fifty-fourth annual report. The past year was the most successful in the history of the company, and the increase in the volume of business is truly phenomenal. The assets on January 1, 1902, were $48,979,021.54, being larger by $4,780,872.45 than those of the previous year. The reserve fund at 3 1/2 and 4 per cent. to re-insure risks was increased by $4,325,045 and now amounts to $42,184,607. During 1901, the premiums and annuities received were $9,682,902.33, interest receipt, etc. $2,350,231.09, dividends to policy holders, $625,223.54, to which should be added $392,730.42 allotted to deferred dividend policies, making the total apportionment of surplus during the year $1,017,953.96. Losses paid, $2,756,281.25, matured endowment and annuities, $911,078.75. There were issued 26,249 policies, insuring $62,453,057, against 19,309 policies insuring $52,232,846 in 1900. The total number of policies in force is 99,083, insuring $242,051,662. Since the organization of the company there has been paid to policy holders the enormous sum of $62,827,323.74, a fact which of itself affords indisputable evidence of the company's financial strength. The Penn Mutual is now so firmly established in public confidence that it would be impossible to predict that measure of success the future has in store, but it is safe to assume that it will be greater than ever. The business in this State is very large and this is to a great extent due to Messrs Bourne & Durham, general managers for Northeastern and Central Pennsylvania. The last year was by far the most successful in the history of the agency, its issue going considerably beyond the three million mark, and thus bringing the firm in the front rank of producers for the Penn Mutual. With offices and able representatives in Scranton, Wilkes-barre, Easton, Allentown, Williamsport, Binghamton, N. Y., and in all the principal cities throughout their territory, as well as an effective force in Philadelphia, their success is easily understood, and to the cordial co-operation and earnest efforts of its representatives and the supreme excellence of the company, Bourne & Durham attribute the magnificent business of the agency for 1901. The Company is very efficiently represented in this County by M. A. Scureman, of Dushore, as District Agent.

Two Missing at Astoria Fire.

New York, Feb. 17.—Fire destroyed the ornamental sign works of Frank Meyer, at Astoria, L. I., last night. William Brown, Theodore Jacobson, William Hildebrand and James Stovel were sitting in one of the rooms of the factory when the fire broke out in the power room beneath them. Brown jumped out of the window after the flames had burned him severely. Hildebrand got out through a door, but Jacobson and Stoven have not been found. It is feared that they are in the ruins of the factory. The monetary loss is placed at about $25,000.

President's Cousin Dead.

New York, Feb. 17.—Cornelius Roosevelt, the only surviving son of the late S. Weir Roosevelt, is dead of heart disease in this city. Mr. Roosevelt was born in this city 54 years ago, and was educated at the Troy Polytechnic Institute.
