County Seat Indices. AND GLANCES AT THE TIMES

-Misses Alma Lauer and Martha Ambrewster are visiting friends in DuBois, Pa.

-M. A. Scureman, was at the county seat Wednesday writing life insurance.

-Mr. R. A. Conklin will make a business trip to New York and Philadelphia the latter part of this week.

-Joe Gansel has nearly recovered from the outbreak of anthrax on his face, and was able to visit his parents at this place, on Sunday.

The tie vote between W. B. Ritter and A. J. Hackley for school director was placed before the board of directors to cast lots and resulted in the election of Mr. Hackley.

Dr. and Mrs. W. H. Randall arrived at Laporte Tuesday from Wil-Main street.

-George Gorman, prior to his departure for Tennessee will dispose of ant of Charles Sumner. his personal property at public sale on his farm near Nordmont, Tuesday, March 11.

-A. B. Kilmer, Esc., of Shunk, was doing business a the county seat Tuesday. The 'S lire is entering upon his third term as justice of the peace.

-John V. Finkle announces to the patrons of his shoe repair shop, that he will continue to do business at the old stand. His daughter Mrs. Fraley, having moved to New Orange, leaves him alone in his large residence, which he is willing to share liberally with a suitable tenant.

-At a regular meeting of the Borough Council Saturday evening the new board was organized and W. B. Ritter appointed secretary. Martin Gallagher was selected to serve as street commissioner and John Minnier for chief police.

-Dr. Rose Morgan, left Laporte Wednesday for Warrensville, where she will take a much needed rest before locating for the practice of her profession in Williamsport. She was highly successful in her professional work in this locality, and the alleviation of suffering humani- below Laporte. ty made heavy demands upon her, to which she conscientiously attended with marked ability and success. Dr. Randall kindly proffered her a position to asssist him in his large position to assist him in his large practice, but with much regret she deemed it necessary to decline the offer. A host of friends unite in wishing Dr. Morgan success and wishing Dr. Morgan success and large practice, but with much regret she chop" made at Nordmont Steam Mills. -Scouten in his Herald last week expressed the opinion that the County expense for jurors is extravagant, and that jurors should only be summoned once in six months. He says "during the last six months we have had only two and a half days Jury Court."

It wasn't so when he was at the bar. He could stir up trifling criminal cases sufficient to employ jurors from Monday until Saturday, and the misery of it was that in many of his cases the prosecutors and defendants were alike irresponsibel. If the defendant was convicted he was immediately released under the insolvent law and the county paid the costs. If the defendant was acquitted, and cost put on the prosecutor, he also was released and the county paid the costs. Business was brisk then, and the county debt rolled up fast. Soon after this Scouten stirred up the judicial contest and made business for the county for about six months. That rolled up the county debt a few thousand

Boy Nearly Electrocuted.

Chester, Pa., Merch 3.—Fred Macey, 10 years old, was nearly electrocuted and is in a dant, erous condition. He was wrestling in the street with a companion, when he rolled onto a telephone wire, which was crossed with a charged trolley wire. He thoughtlessly grasped the wire with both hands, and was unable to release his hold. His wild shrieks were heard by hold. His wild shricks were heard by George White, a teamster, who pulled the boy from the burning wire and carried him home.
