

Republican News Item.

THURSDAY, MAR. 13, 1902.

Calendar for 1902 March 1902 showing days of the week and dates.

County Seat Indices.

—Born, on March 9th a daughter to Mr. and Mrs. Erastus Yeagle.
—It is to be hoped that winter will not linger very long in the lap of spring.
—H. P. Hall of Sonestown, was a business man at she county seat on Saturday last.
—DeWitt Layton, last week, moved into John V. Finkle's residence on Muncy street.
—Miss May Higley has gone to New Orange, N. J. to reside with Mrs. J. W. Fraley.
—Miss Fannie Meylert after several weeks visit with friends at Eagles Mere, returned home Monday.
—Landlord F. W. Gallagher, has greatly enhanced the appearance of his barroom and office by having the walls handsomely papered.
—Ex-Judge John S. Line of Bernice, was a business man at the county seat Tuesday, and a most welcome caller on friends at his old time haunts where he left his usual trail of mirth and good cheer.
—Attorneys E. J. Mullen and Alphonsus Walsh, and Ex-Judge M. J. Phillips attended the funeral of the late Rufus K. Polk at Danville on Saturday. It was the largest attended funeral ever held in Danville, and many prominent men in business, army and political circles were present. Wm. J. Bryan was among the prominent figures at the obsequies.

—The cabled editorials of the German press demonstrate how thoroughly the people appreciate the spirit in which this country has shown attention to their Prince, and there is reason to believe that the friendship so engendered may bear fruit in the near future.

—Much comment has been heard since the death of Congressman Rufus K. Polk as to how his successor would be elected. If congressional districts, of but one or two counties, or in cities, the successor would be elected as a consequence of the gubernatorial proclamation. However, in this district which consists of four counties, namely: Northumberland, Montour, Columbia and Sullivan, it would create an enormous expense, so it is thought that the election will not be held until the regular fall election which is held in November. Nevertheless, should the governor decide that the election is absolutely necessary a notice will be sent to the sheriff and one of the present candidates on the Democratic ticket would likely be elected.

—Congressman Rufus K. Polk, of Danville, died suddenly on March 5th while on a visit to Philadelphia. Mr. Polk arrived in the city on Tuesday afternoon. He complained of feeling ill, and in company with a friend visited a physician. From here he went to the home of a friend where he died during the night and his death was not discovered until morning. Heart disease was assigned as the cause.

CONGRESSMAN POLK'S FUNERAL

William J. Bryan Among Those Who Attended the Services.
Danville, Pa., March 10.—The funeral of Congressman Rufus King Polk Saturday was one of the largest in the history of this city. The committee from the senate and congress arrived in the morning. All morning ains brought delegations from the neighboring towns, and when 1 o'clock rived, the hour for the funeral, the reets were crowded with mourners, d all stores and factories were used.
The Rev. Dr. McAtee conducted the ervices at the house. The honorary ll-bearers were fellow congressmen Mr. Polk, while workmen who loved ihr employer carried the coffin. All aces of business and all works were sed during the afternoon. William nings Bryan stopped off on his way Bloomsburg to attend the funeral.

Dushore Item.

The robin has made his appearance.
The snow storm which raged last Wednesday and Wednesday night was the nearest approach to a blizzard we have experienced in at least three years. About fifteen inches of snow fell which drifted badly. But few farmers or out of town people were seen on our streets the next day or two, owing to the bad condition of roads. The regular passenger train over the branch which left WilkesBarre about 4:30 p. m. on Wednesday, reached Parnice after many difficulties about 9 o'clock, where it was stalled for he night. The next morning they undertook to continue the trip to New Albany with two engines, but encountered about 14 feet of snow in Dohm's cut, near Satterfield, into which they dashed, the snow plowing over the cab of the engine and up even with the top of the coal es. They became stuck just as the first engine was emerging from the cut, and it was nearly three o'clock before the train could be shoveled out.
A slight freight wreck occurred about a mile above town Saturday evening which delayed the passenger train for several hours.
The temporary railroad bridge at Monroeton, was again made ready for traffic by Friday last, after having been taken out by flood three times this winter.
We are again enjoying our usual mail, passenger and freight service after the series of floods, storms and wrecks.

Our new borough council met on Friday evening last and was organized by electing J. David Utz, president and choosing Atty. W. H. Hill, as secretary and borough attorney. The council is now made up of the following members: J. David Utz, H. E. Obert, J. N. Orthlieb, John M. Utz, Jerry Deegan, J. H. Yonkin and Wm. O'Neil. The two last named being the new members seated at the last meeting.
The beautiful snow is fast disappearing.

Holecomb and Lauer, undertakers, were called to attend to the funeral of an infant son of Frank Dennis, of Bernice, Sunday.
Charles Messersmith, a respected citizen of Cherry township, died after a lingering illness, on Thursday last, aged 42 years. The funeral services were conducted in the Lutheran church at this place, Sunday morning, by Rev. J. W. Klingler. Interment at Thrashers cemetery. The deceased leaves a wife and one five year old daughter.
Special lenton services have been held in the Catholic church one or two evenings a week since lent began. Some able sermons have been delivered by clergymen from abroad.
The many friends of Rev. P. G. O'Neil in this section were grieved to learn of his death which occurred at Ellwood city, near Pittsburg, Pa., on Saturday last after a brief illness. Father O'Neil was a son of the late Nicholas O'Neil, and was reared at Cummsky. The funeral will take place this Wednesday, the remains being interred in the cemetery at Cummsky. Deceased was taken in the prime of life so soon after he had commenced his career as a priest which promised to be a brilliant one, he being but 41 years of age. An aged mother who now lives at Satterfield and a number of brothers and sisters survive to mourn his loss.

The Davidson Teachers will hold their last local institute in the M. E. church at Sonestown, Saturday evening, March 22. The public is cordially invited to attend.
Following is the program:
Music by the choir.
Opening address, subject, "The Bar room, the Club room, the Church room and the School room, B. G. Welch; Recitation, Mildred Hall; Music by male quartette; Question box; Music by female quartette; Recitation, Esther Dunn; Debate: Resolved, that the best interests of our people require strict enforcement of the compulsory school law.

The local institute at this place was a very successful one, although the attendance was small owing to the unfavorable weather.

Miss Bertha Johnson of Muncy Valley, was the guest of Miss Mable Hazen, over Sunday.
Andrew Edgar transacted business in Williamsport, Saturday.
Miss Josie Str. ng of Strawbridge, is spending a few days with Mrs. John Converse.

Measles are quite prevalent in this town, and now the mumps are making their appearance, chicken-pox is also approaching.
Henry Warburton and Walter Ellison of North Mountain, were calling on friends in town last week.
Miss Mae Simmons has a music class at Muncy Valley.
H. P. Hall was in Williamsport, Friday.
Protracted services began in the M. E. church last week, but owing to the serious illness of the minister, J. Guilden, the services have been discontinued.
Prof. Warren is to be congratulated on the courage he displayed in the second attempt to hold a local institute. "As the teacher, so the school," and thus the remarkably helpful and interesting local was due to the chairman. Mr. Warren is also to be congratulated upon the marked success and progress of the Sonestown schools.

Teacher's Local Institute.

Sonestown, Pa. March 8, 1902.
The institute was called to order at 11 a. m. by the chairman. The number of teachers present were few, but what was lacking in quantity, abundantly recompensed itself in quality and a very profitable hour was spent with a question box. Some of the discussions were: If pupils do not give proper sounds of words and there is no physical disability, drill them daily on correct expression. Teachers should insist on pupils taking part occasionally in Friday afternoon exercises.
Adjournment.
At 1:30 the meeting was again called to order and the remaining questions discussed.
B. G. Welch, upon invitation, spoke earnestly to the institute. He emphasized the duty of the teachers to carefully train the habits of the of the child. He ventured the prediction that in the future the teacher's physical, as well as mental powers, will be examined.
A Ladies' Quartette was pleasingly rendered. The ladies being Mrs. C. H. Warren, Misses Maude Starr, Mary and Lela Buck.
"Primary Class Drill in Numbers" was the next subject upon the program. Mrs. Warren announced that owing to the prevalence of measles she was unable to have her class in attendance, but fully explained her method. She was followed by Mr. Lorah and Miss Karge.
Miss Blanche Miller gave a well rendered recitation.
Following was a class drill in Civil Government by M. Myrtle Edgar. Miss Edgar asked leave and chose out of the audience Misses Karge and Streby, Messrs. R.S. Starr and M. D. Sweeney as her class. The "pupils" acquitted themselves nobly, earning from their teacher the plaudit "well done."
The subject, resolved that grammar is more important than physiology, was discussed. Affirmative by Mr. Lorah, Miss Streby and Mr. Warren; on the negative by Mr. R. S. Starr, Mr. Welch and Mr. Hazen. The judges were J. W. Buck, Walter Hazen, M. D. Sweeney. They decided in favor of the affirmative.
Wynn Warren recited for the institute and was twice encored.
It was moved and carried that the thanks of the institute be given to the trustees for the use of the building. The secretary spoke of Supt. Meylert's affliction and reason for not being present. Mr. Starr then suggested that in some way we express to Supt. Meylert our sympathy and also appreciation for his help. Accordingly it was moved and carried that a committee consisting of Miss Myrtle Edgar, R. S. Starr and Mr. Warren act as committee to draft resolutions to that effect, and the following was adopted as read:
Whereas, Supt. Meylert is now suffering a painful affliction in which we feel keenly for him, be it
Resolved, that we extend to him our heartfelt sympathy, with the hope of his speedy recovery, and
Whereas, he has strewn sunshine along the rugged pathway of the teacher's life, be it
Resolved, that, in behalf of the teachers of this district, we extend to him our hearty appreciation of the kindness he has shown to them. His term has been one of joy and inspiration.
These sunny days have passed away. But not without their pleasure: And in our heart will always keep These stores of cherished treasures.
A chorus was rendered by members from the Sonestown choirs.
A vote of thanks was extended to Mr. Welch for his able address.
The institute was a most helpful one, and we adjourned feeling well encouraged by the interest manifested.

Hillsgrove.
Judson Rogers has been engaged by Robert McEwen to construct the "ark."
Miss Nina Green is on the sick list. Our town can boast of politeness. Not long ago we saw one of our subjects knock on the post office door. The temporary bridge at Elk creek was washed away by the recent flood. Ralph McBride and Fred Jenkins have left the town, in search for work.
John Lucas is confined to his home with inflammatory rheumatism. Mabel Morgan is at Nordmont. Iza and Edna are having quite a contest. Who will draw the shark? James Shaver "enjoyed" a visit in town Wednesday.
Misses Frankie and Margaret Lewis were pleasant callers in the city, Friday night.
Henry is still dealing in "Huckleberries."
Joseph Gansel has returned to his work, having recovered from anthrax.
Miss Mapes spent a few days in Laporte.
